

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

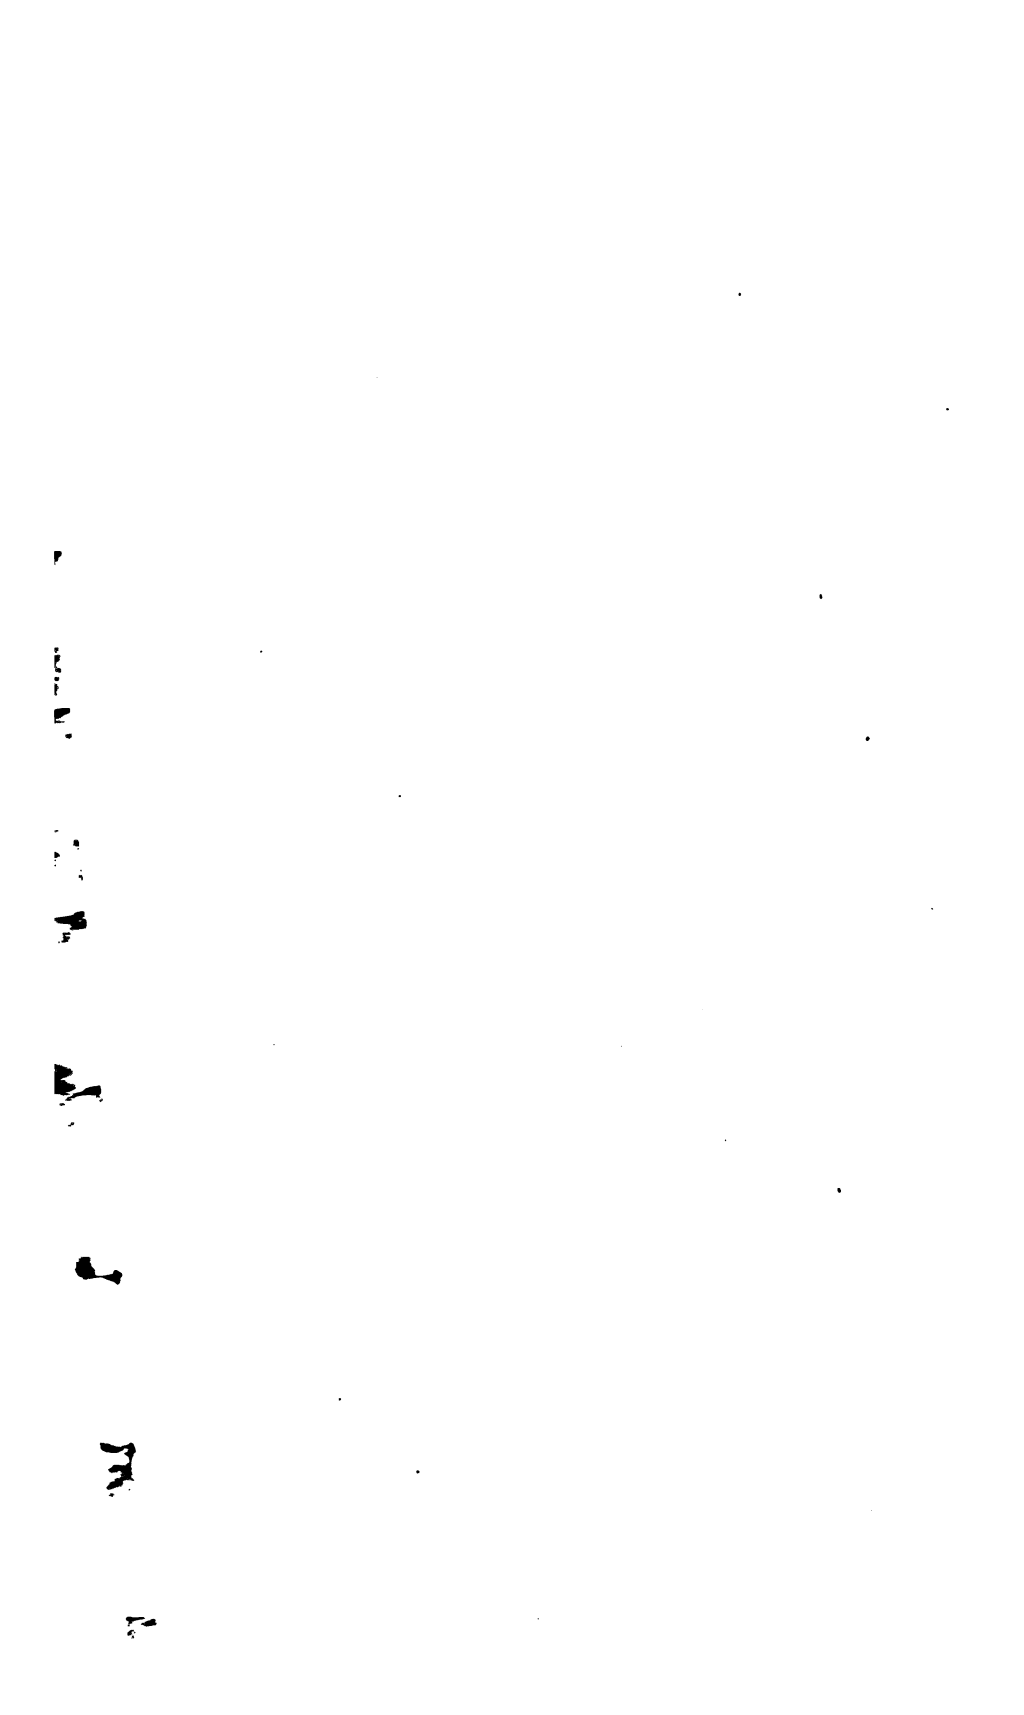

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Proceedings of the Special Convention

HELD FOR THE Election of the Second Bishop of Long Island.

The Special Convention of the Diocese of Long Island called by the Standing Committee for the purpose of electing a successor to the late Right Reverend ABRAM NEWKIRK LITTLEJOHN, D.D., LL.D., met in the Cathedral of the Incarnation at Garden City, Long Island, on Wednesday, November 20th, 1901, at 10.30 A. M.

The Communion Office was said by the Rev. SAMUEL COX, D.D., Dean, assisted by the Rev. WILMER P. BIRD, Canon.

The Rev. REESE F. ALSOP, D.D., read the Epistle.

The Rev. HENRY C. SWENTZEL, D.D., read the Gospel.

The sermon, a memorial of the late Bishop LITTLEJOHN, was delivered by the Rt. Rev. HENRY CODMAN POTTER, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of the Diocese of New York.

During the singing of the Offertory the alms of the Congregation were received for Diocesan Missions.

The following Clergy assisted in the distribution of the Holy Communion: The Rev. Dr. ALSOP, the Rev. Dr. SWENTZEL, and the Rev. CHARLES W. SHIELDS, D.D., of Princeton, N. J.

After the service the Delegates assembled in the Nave of the Cathedral and the Convention was called to order by the Rev. ROBERT ROGERS, Ph.D., Secretary, who, under the Canon Law, invited the Senior Presbyter of the Diocese, the Rev. Dr. SAMUEL COX, to act as Temporary Chairman.

The Roll of the Clergy entitled to seats was then called and 116 answered their names.

The Chair appointed the following a Committee on Credentials of Lay Delegates:

The Rev. Dr. C. W. HOMER.

Col. WILLIAM S. COGSWELL.

Hon. TOWNSEND SCUDDER.

The Roll of Lay Delegates as passed upon by the above Committee was then called and 82 Parishes were responded for by Delegates.

The Rev. JAMES CLARENCE JONES, Ph.D., was nominated and unanimously elected Permanent Chairman of the Special Convention.

The Rev. Dr. JONES took the Chair. The Rev. Dr. ALSOP, on behalf of the Committee on Canons, presented Rules of Order for the guidance of the Convention, as follows

THE FOLLOWING RULES OF ORDER ARE RECOMMENDED BY THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS FOR ADOPTION BY THE CONVENTION.

First.—Except as hereby modified, the Convention shall be governed by the Rules of Order of the last Convention.

Second.—Until the business of the Convention shall be finished, its sessions shall be as follows, viz.: From 10.30 A. M. until 1 P. M.; from 2 P. M. to 5.30 P. M.; and from 7 P. M. to 10 P. M., unless otherwise ordered.

Third.—The first business, after the Convention is organized, shall be to fix the salary of the Bishop.

Fourth.—The Convention shall then proceed to the election of a Bishop as follows:

1. The President shall appoint as Inspectors of Elections one Clergyman and one Layman for the Clerical, and one Clergyman and one Layman for the Lay Vote.

2. Nominations shall be made without remarks. After nominations have been closed, information may be called for and given respecting any nominee. The Convention shall then proceed to a ballot. Ballots may be cast for a person who has not been placed in nomination. After the result of a ballot has been announced (there being no election), and before another ballot has been ordered, further nominations may be made.

3. The ballot shall be taken as follows:

The polls having been declared open, the Roll of the Clergy and the Parishes entitled to vote, shall be called by the respective Inspectors; as the name of each is called, their ballot shall be handed to the Inspectors, who shall deposit it in the ballot box before calling the next name. In case the majority of the Delegates present from a Parish shall fail to agree upon a candidate, when the name of such Parish is called, the fact of such disagreement shall be announced, and thereupon the Inspectors shall cast a ballot for such Parish, marked only with the word "divided."

4. After the call of the Roll of the Clergy and of the Parishes shall be completed, the President shall ascertain whether any Clergyman or Parish has failed to vote; and, after opportunity to remedy such failure has been given, shall declare the ballot closed.

5. The respective Inspectors shall then proceed to canvass the ballots, and shall present the result of such canvass to the President in writing (signed by them if an election has resulted), showing the total number of ballots cast, the number necessary to an election, the number received by each candidate, and the number marked divided. The President shall announce the result to the Convention.

Fifth.—A majority in each order of all the ballots cast shall be necessary to an election.

Sixth.—After the declaration of the result of any ballot a recess, not exceeding twenty minutes, may be taken at the request of a majority of either order.

On motion, the consideration of these Rules was laid over until after recess.

On motion, the Rev. Dr. ROBERT ROGERS was elected Secretary and nominated the Rev. GEO. C. GROVES as Assistant Secretary; the nomination was confirmed.

On motion, a recess was taken for luncheon until 2.30 P. M.

The Convention reassembled at 2.45 P. M.

The Assistant Secretary read the names of those Clergy who failed to respond at first roll-call.

Mr. ALEXANDER E. ORR asked unanimous consent to introduce the following resolution.

Resolved: That the thanks of this Convention be extended to the Rt. Rev. BISHOP POTTER for his able and admirable sermon, and that the sermon be printed and distributed throughout the Diocese.

Consent was given and the resolution was carried.

The Rev. Dr. ALSOP moved the adoption of the Rules of Order as presented by the Committee on Canons.

The motion was carried.

The Chair then appointed the following Inspectors of Election:

On the Clerical Vote.

The Rev. KIRKLAND HUSKE.

Mr. G. WEBSTER PECK.

On the Lay Vote.

The Rev. ST. CLAIR HESTER.

Mr. JAMES SHERLOCK DAVIS.

A motion was made by Mr. LITCHFIELD that the name of the Rev. CLARENCE M. DUNHAM, Rector of St. Jude's Church, Blythebourne, be added to the Roll of Clerical Delegates entitled to vote.

A point of order was raised by the Rev. Mr. WALLER that the matter of receiving a Clergyman into the Diocese was in the hands of the Standing Committee of the Diocese and that the Convention was not competent to act in the premises, as the Clergyman had not yet been received.

The point of order was decided as well taken by the Chair, who declared the motion of Mr. LITCHFIELD out of order.

Mr. LITCHFIELD appealed from the Chair's decision.

The appeal having been put, the Convention sustained the Chair.

The Rev. Dr. SWENTZEL asked the consent of the Convention for Mr. WILHELMUS MYNDERSE to explain the action of the Standing Committee in regard to Letters Dimissory presented to the Standing Committee at their November meeting and not acted upon by them.

Objection being made, consent was not given.

The Rev. Mr. NEWBOLD then offered the following resolution:

Resolved: That the President of the Standing Committee furnish the Secretary of the Convention the names of the Clergy whose Letters Dimissory were before the meeting of the Standing Committee on November 4th last, and that these Ministers be admitted to seats in this Convention.

Motion was ruled out of order by the Chair.

Mr. MYNDERSE then asked consent to explain the Committee's action.

Consent was given.

Mr. MYNDERSE then explained that the list of names presented was far in excess of the number usually presented at the Committee's meetings, and the time before the Convention being too short for a proper investigation of them, such as the Committee felt in duty bound to give, the Committee had decided to take no action, but permit the names to wait over for a later meeting, or until such time as the newly elected Bishop should be consecrated.

The question of the Bishop's salary was now declared in order.

Mr. ALEX. E. ORR, Diocesan Treasurer, made a statement concerning the Bishop's Salary Fund.

It was then moved by the Hon. TOWNSEND SCUDDER that the salary of the Bishop be fixed at $6,000.00 per annum.

Motion carried.

A motion was made and carried that nominations for the office of Bishop of the Diocese of Long Island be now in order. Carried.

The following names were then placed in nomination.

The Rev. REESE F. ALSOP, D.D., by the Rev. E. M. McGUFFEY.

The Rev. ARTHUR B. KINSOLVING, by the Rev. ROBERT ROGERS, Ph.D.

The Rev. HENRY C. SWENTZEL, D.D., by the Rev. TOWNEND G. JACKSON.

The Rev. JAMES H. DARLINGTON, Ph.D., by the Rev. WM. T. HOLDEN.

The Rev. SAMUEL D. McCONNELL, D.D., by the Rev. LINDSAY PARKER, Ph.D.

The Rev. Canon HY. B. BRYAN, by ———.

The Rev. WM. R. HUNTINGTON, D.D., by the Rev. WM. WILEY.

The Rev. LAWRENCE T. COLE, Ph.D., by the Rev. GEO. W. WEST.

The Rev. GEO. WILLIAMSON SMITH, D.D., LL.D., by ———.

The Rev. ALEXANDER VANCE, by Mr. A. A. Low.

The Rev. FREDERICK BURGESS, D.D., by the Rev. HENRI SATTIG.

The Rev. Henry LUBECK, LL.D., by the Rev. GEO. W. DAVENPORT.

Motion made and seconded that nominations be closed.

Motion carried.

The Rev. Mr. WILEY then withdrew the name of the Rev. Dr. HUNTINGTON.

A ballot was then taken and it was moved, seconded and carried that the Convention take a recess until the Inspectors were ready to report. Recess taken.

At 4.40 P.M. the Inspectors reported the result of the first ballot as follows:

Proceedings of the Thirty-sixth Convention.

THE FIRST DAY.

May 22, 1902.

On Tuesday, May 20th, the day named in the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Long Island for the Annual Convention of the same, a number of the Clergy and Laity assembled in the Cathedral, Garden City, the place appointed by the Bishop.

The Communion Office was begun by the Reverend PAUL F. SWETT, Precentor of the Cathedral, the Reverend Dr. JAS. CLARENCE JONES reading the Epistle, and the Reverend SAMUEL COX, D.D., reading the Gospel. The Reverend R. F. ALSOP, D.D., preaching the sermon.

During the singing of the Offertory Anthem, the alms were received for Diocesan Missions.

The Celebrant, the Right Reverend the Bishop, was assisted in the distribution of the Holy Communion by the Rev. Drs. Cox, ALSOP, JONES and ROGERS.

At the close of the Service, the members of the Convention assembled in the Nave of the Cathedral, the Right Reverend the Bishop in the Chair.

The President appointed a Committee on Credentials, consisting of the Secretary, the Rev. Dr. JAS. CLARENCE JONES and Col. WM. S. COGSWELL.

The list of Churches entitled to representation was read. The certificates of the Lay Delegates having been examined by the Committee on Credentials, their names were called by the Secretary. Delegates from sixty-eight parishes took their seats.*

A constitutional quorum being present, the President declared the Convention duly organized for business.

By special request, the Rev. CHAS. W. HOMER, D.D., read the report of the Committee on the Incorporation of Churches.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION TO CONVENTION.

To the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Long Island:

The Church or Congregation duly incorporated and known in law by the name of the "Church of the Nativity," in pursuance and by authority of a resolution of the Board of Trustees, consisting of the Minister-in-Charge, Churchwardens and Vestrymen of the said Church, hereby applies for admission into union with the Church in said Diocese, and presents herewith a duly certified and authenticated copy of said resolution, adopted on the 20th day of May, 1901, authorizing such application and agreeing to abide by and conform to and observe the Constitution and all the Canons of the Church, and all the rules, orders and regulations of the Convention; also the Certificate of Incorporation of the Church which was duly filed and recorded in

THIS IS TO CERTIFY:

1. That pursuant to Section 30, Article II, Chapter XLII of the General Laws of the State of New York, known as the Religious Corporations Law, notice of a meeting to be held at 1477 Flatbush Avenue, in the Borough of Brooklyn, County of Kings, City and State of New York, on the 20th day of May, 1901, at 7:30 o'clock P. M., was given for the purpose of incorporating the Chapel of the Nativity, an unincorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Congregation, and of electing the first Church Wardens and Vestrymen thereof, which notice specified the object, time, and place of such meeting, and was made public for at least two weeks prior to such meeting by the open reading of such notice in time of divine service at the usual place of worship of said Parish or Congregation, to wit, at 1477 Flatbush Avenue aforesaid, on the 5th, 12th and 19th days of May, 1901; that pursuant to such notice such meeting was duly held at the time and place therein specified; that Rev. Andrew Fleming, the officiating Minister, was presiding officer thereat; that at least six persons qualified to vote thereat were present and voted at such meeting, to wit, at least six men of full age who had been regular attendants at the worship of said Parish or Congregation and contributors to the support thereof for one year next prior to said meeting; that the action of such meeting upon each and every matter and question hereafter set forth was decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon, a quorum being present and voting at each vote; that said presiding officer received said votes, was the judge of the qualifications of said voters and declared the result of the votes cast at such meeting; that the polls of said meeting remained open for one hour; and that said meeting decided in favor of the incorporation of said unincorporated Parish or Congregation, and that the same should become incorporated.

2. That the name of the corporation as decided upon at such meeting is "Church of the Nativity".

3. That the County and City in which its principal place of worship is or is intended to be located, is the Borough of Brooklyn, County of Kings, City of New York, within the State of New York.

4. That the secular day of the week commencing with the first Sunday in Advent upon which the regular annual election of the Corporation shall be held was decided upon at such meeting, and was fixed as and to be Thursday in said week.

5. That the number of vestryman decided upon at said meeting was fixed at nine (9).

6. That the names of the Vestrymen elected at such meeting and the terms of office of each are as follows:

I. To hold office until the first annual election of the Corporation to held thereafter:

Charles H. McClelland.

John A. Bryan.

David C. Beatty.

II. To hold office until one year after such annual election:

Henry B. Worthen.

Edward H. Harrison.

D. Stewart Ogden.

III. To hold office until two years after such annual election:

Allan W. Johnson.

Robert W. Hawthorne.

Arthur R. Doble.

That the persons so elected Vestrymen as aforesaid were elected by ballot from the persons qualified to be voters at such meeting, who had been baptized, and each of said Vestrymen so elected had been baptized prior to such meeting.

7. The names of the Church Wardens elected at such meeting, and the terms of office of each are as follows:

I. To hold office until such annual election:

Jacob F. Woolley.

II. To hold office until one year after such annual election:

Frank S. Hildreth.

That said persons so elected Church Wardens as aforesaid were elected by ballot from the persons qualified to be voters at such meeting, who were communicants in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and each of said Church Wardens were communicants thereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we, the presiding officer of said meeting, and two other persons present and voting thereat, have hereunto set our hands and seals this 16th day of November, Nineteen hundred and one.

I, CHARLES T. HARTZHEIM, Clerk of the County of Kings, and Clerk of the Supreme Court of the State of New York in and for said County (said Court being a Court of Record), Do HEREBY CERTIFY that I have compared the annexed with the original certificate of incorporation filed and recorded in my office April 12, 1902, and that the same is a true transcript thereof, and of the whole of such original.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said County and Court, this 18th day of April, 1902.

CHAS. T. HARTZHEIM,
Clerk.

Diocese of Long Island:*

The Church or congregation, duly incorporated, and known in law by the name of St. Timothy's Church, in pursuance, and by authority of a resolution of the vestry of the said Church, hereby applies for admission into union with the Church in this Diocese, and presents herewith a duly certified and authenticated copy of the resolutions of the said vestry adopted on the 3d day of March,

The First Day.

1902, authorizing such application, and agreeing to abide by, and conform to and observe all the Canons of the Church, and all the rules, orders and regulations of the Convention.

Also, a certified copy of the Certificate of Incorporation of the Church, which was duly recorded in the office of the County Clerk of the County of Kings, on the 25th day of July, 1898, in Book —, page —.

Also, a certificate of the Bishop that he approves of the incorporation of such Church, and that such Church, in his judgment, is duly and satisfactorily established.

And, also, evidence that not less than twenty-five persons, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least six months preceding the date of this application, attended Divine Service in such Church or congregation.

Dated at Brooklyn, in the County of Kings, and State of New York, this 3d day of March, 1902.

By order of the Vestry,

WALTER IRVING STECHER,

Rector.

J. ALEXANDER COWIE,

Clerk.

At a meeting of the Rector, Wardens and Vestry of the Church or congregation known as St. Timothy's, duly convened, and held according to law at the Borough of Brooklyn, on the 3d day of March, 1902, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved: That we, the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Timothy's Church, Borough of Brooklyn, desire admission into union with the Church in the Diocese of Long Island, and do make application therefor to the Convention of the Church in this Diocese, and do hereby agree to abide by, and conform to, and observe all the Canons of the Church, and all the rules, orders and regulations of the Convention.

Which is hereby certified by the Clerk of Vestry and is also authenticated by the seal of the Corporation.

The First Day.

Dated at Borough of Brooklyn, City of New York, in the County of Kings, the 3d day of March, 1902.

J. ALEXANDER COWIE,
Clerk.

We, the undersigned, do hereby certify and declare that we are, and for six months last past have been connected with or been members of, and well acquainted with the affairs and condition of the Church or congregation known as St. Timothy's, and that we have had means of knowing, and do know the number of persons habitually attending the said Church during six months past, and that not less than twenty-five persons, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least six months preceding this date, attended Divine Service in such Church or congregation.

Dated at the Borough of Brooklyn, in the County of Kings, the 3d day of March, 1902.

SEE HOUSE, GARDEN CITY, NEW YORK,

July 5, 1898.

Believing St. Timothy's Mission, Brooklyn, to be satisfactorily established, I hereby give my canonical consent to its incorporation as a Parish.

A. N. LITTLEJOHN,

TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL CONCERN:

We, the undersigned, whose names and seals are affixed to this instrument, do hereby certify that on the eighteenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, the male persons, of full age, belonging to Saint Timothy's Church, in communion with the Protestant Episcopal

The First Day.

Church in the State of New York, worshipping in the Borough of Brooklyn, City of New York, County of Kings, State of New York, not already incorporated, met at their usual place of worship aforesaid, for the purpose of incorporating themselves under the Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, to provide for the incorporation of religious societies, and the act to amend the same, in pursuance of notice duly given, specifying the object of the meeting, and the time and place thereof, which had been publicly read in the time of morning service two weeks prior to such meeting.

And we further certify that at such meeting not less than six male persons, of full age, belonging to the Church or Congregation aforesaid, and not already incorporated, and duly qualified to vote at such meeting, met for the purpose aforesaid.

And we further certify that the Reverend Walter Irving Stecher presided at the said meeting, and received the votes.

And we further certify that, by a majority of the votes of the persons present and qualified as aforesaid, it was determined that the said Church shall be known in law by the name of The Rector, Churchwardens, and Vestrymen of Saint Timothy's Church, in the Borough of Brooklyn, City of New York, County of Kings, State of New York.

And that it was in like manner determined that Monday of the week commencing with the first Sunday in Advent shall be the date of the regular election of such Corporation.

And that the number of Vestrymen determined upon to be six.

And we further certify that the following persons were elected Churchwardens and Vestrymen by a majority of votes of the persons present at the said meeting and qualified to vote, viz.:

Richard B. S. Grim, Warden, until next annual election.

William H. Haynes, Warden, until one year after next annual election.

Edward Bickford, Vestryman, until next annual election.

Francis Magee, Vestryman, until next annual election.

C. G. Einfuehrer, Vestryman, until one year after next annual election.

H. H. Goddard, Vestryman, until one year after next annual election.

J. A. Cowie, Vestryman, until two years after next annual election.

A. J. Ball, Vestryman, until two years after next annual election.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, we, the said Rev. WALTER IRVING STECHER, who was the presiding officer at the said meeting, and RICHARD B. S. GRIM, and J. A. COWIE, who were present and witnessed the proceedings, and were selected and named to sign and seal this certificate, have hereunto subscribed our names and affixed our seals, the 23d day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said County and Court, this 12th day of September, 1898.

WILLIAM P. WUEST,
Clerk.

The Standing Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches has received the application of two Churches to be admitted into union with the Church in this Diocese, viz.: the Church of the Nativity, in charge of the Rev. Andrew Fleming, and St. Timothy's Church, in charge of the Rev. Walter Irving Stecher. Your Committee has carefully examined the certificates of incorporation of both these applicants, certified by the officer whose duty it is to record certificates of incorporation of religious societies, and have found them correct in every particular. Your Committee has also seen the certificates of the Ecclesiastical Authority, that the incorporation of both these Churches was approved before the act of incorporation, and that both are duly and satisfactorily established. Satisfactory evidence has also been given that not less than twenty-five persons of legal age, members of the Churches, have habitually, for at least six months preceding their application, attended Divine Service in these Churches. Your Committee has also read the resolution adopted by both, that they will abide by, and conform to the Constitutions, Canons, rules and orders in force within this Diocese, certified by the Clerks and authenticated by the seals of both Corporations. Your Committee therefore recommend that these two Churches be at once admitted to this Convention. The members of your Committee are unanimous in this recommendation.

CHAS. W. HOMER, Chairman.
WILHELMUS MYNDERSE,
A. H. MAN.

Committee.*

Upon motion of the Rev. Dr. Homer, the Church of the Nativity, Brooklyn, and St. Timothy's Church, Brooklyn, were admitted into union with the Convention.

The First Day.

The Rev. Edward M. McGuffey nominated the Rev. Dr. Rogers for Secretary of the Convention. Upon motion of the Rev. Dr. Alsop, the vote by ballot was unanimously dispensed with, and, no objection being offered, the Convention instructed the Rev. Horace R. Fell to cast one ballot for the election of the Rev. Dr. Rogers as Secretary. The ballot was cast, and the Rev. Dr. Rogers declared elected.

The Rev. Dr. Rogers nominated the Rev. Horace R. Fell as Assistant Secretary. Upon motion the Rev. Mr. Fell was duly elected.

The Rev. Dr. Rogers nominated Mr. Alexander E. Orr for Treasurer. Upon motion of the Rev. Dr. Alsop, the vote by ballot was dispensed with, and, no objection being offered, the Convention instructed the Secretary to cast one ballot for the election of Mr. Alexander E. Orr as Treasurer. The Secretary cast the ballot, and Mr. Orr was declared elected.

The President then announced the appointment of the following Standing Committees:

A. E. ORR,
Treasurer.

BROOKLYN, May 19, 1902.

Mr. Orr presented and read the Treasurer's Report of the Cathedral Chapter.

Report

OF THE TREASURER OF THE CORPORATION OF
THE CATHEDRAL OF THE INCARNATION,

At a special meeting of the Cathedral Chapter, held April 12, 1902, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

“Resolved: That the Treasurer be instructed to make a concise statement to the Diocesan Convention of the present status of the endowment funds of the Cathedral Corporation and of the current expenses and income for the last fiscal year.”

The First Day.

In obedience to the above resolution the Treasurer begs to present the following report:

The endowments of the Cathedral Corporation are four in number.

First—The sum of $300,000, which Mrs. Stewart's executor, with the consent of her heirs, turned over to the Cathedral Corporation without conditions.

Second—A charge created by Mrs. Stewart's executor and her heirs jointly on sundry real estate located in the City of New York and at Saratoga Springs of $500,000 (which was subsequently paid off in cash), for the building and maintaining a school for girls and for the erection and maintaining other buildings connected with the Cathedral Corporation at Garden City.

Third—An endowment created by the late Henry Hilton consisting originally of five hundred bonds of $1,000 each of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad of a then estimated value of $400,000. Subsequently this road defaulted in its interest payments and was reorganized. As a result the Corporation now owns $375,000 first mortgage 4 per cent. bonds, $100,000 of Adjustment Bonds and $16,706.25 in cash, having a total estimated value at the present time of about $490,000.

The conditions attached to this endowment are:

1st. That $7,000 per annum of the income is to be used in maintaining a high standard of musical service at the Cathedral.

2d. $3,500 per annum is to be applied to the maintenance of, and in keeping "good hospitality" at the See House.

3d. $2,500 per annum towards the stipend of the Dean of the Cathedral, and

4th. The balance of the annual income to be used in such manner as the Chapter may elect.

Fourth—The Witherell endowment of $5,000, with which Mrs. Witherell, a niece of Mrs. Stewart, has endowed a scholarship at St. Mary's School.

There has been paid out and these amounts will be charged against the proper endowment funds when the enlargement of St. Mary's School is completed, to wit:

The First Day.

Collateral inheritance tax $24,046.00 and counsel fees $8,500, in settlement of suit brought by the heirs of Mrs. Stewart.	$32,546 00
Land purchase account, including six buildings and site for St. Mary's School.	43,247 50
St. Mary's School building, including estimated cost of the addition now under construction, and furniture account..	140,000 00
Balance cost of gymnasium over contributions of patrons of St. Paul's School.	13,551 08
Cost of the Deanery (for which rent is paid)	15,876 82
Cost of power, heat and light plant and all conduits.....	54,822 16
	$300,043 56

It may be a matter of interest to the Convention to know that the total income from all sources since the creation of the Corporation has exceeded the total outgo for maintenance of the Cathedral, the See House, the Missions, taxes and all betterments not included in the above statement, by about $28,000.

In further compliance with the directions of the Chapter, I submit a condensed statement of the Treasurer's report for the last fiscal year presented to the Chapter at its meeting of December, 1901:

The income of the Corporation (schools not included) for the fiscal year 1900-1901 (part estimated) is.....	$48,782 21
There was paid out and charged to Cathedral Maintenance account during the year, including missions and charities..	33,506 27
Leaving a balance of	$15,275 94
to protect all other current expense obligations of the Corporation.

St. Paul's School

The total amount received and credited to St. Paul's School, and bills for tuition not yet paid but considered good, for the year is.	$74,152 55
The disbursements for school maintenance, repairs, etc.	79,717 97

Included in St. Paul's maintenance account is the cost of laundry equipment amounting to $1,777.17, which may be classed as an extraordinary expense. If this is deducted from the total disbursements the actual deficit in maintenance account for the year would be $3,788.25.

St. Mary's School

The total amount received from St. Mary's School for the year (including income from the Witherell endowment) is	$21,115 13
The disbursements for school maintenance for the year are..	23,669 62
The deficit for the year is.	$2,554 49

Included in St. Mary's maintenance account is the sum of $240 for a fire escape; this is properly an extraordinary charge, and if so allowed would reduce the deficit to $2,314.49.

Recapitulation

Balance of income after providing for Cathedral Maintenance, missions and charities.	$15,275 94
From which deduct
Deficit St. Paul's School Maintenance Account....	$5,565 42
Deficit St. Mary's School Maintenance Account. ..	2,554 49
<hr/>
	8,119 91
Surplus income for the year over expenditure for maintenance of all kinds.	$7,156 03

There was received during the year on account of the principal of invested funds the sum of $94,250, and there was invested in guaranteed bonds and mortgages the sum of $72,000.00. A record of these receipts and disbursements will be found in the Treasurer's quarterly accounts submitted to the Chapter.

There was paid out during the year on account of St. Mary's Building Account the sum of $14,644.48.

I estimated the income for the current year at.	$45,000 00
And the cost of Cathedral Maintenance Account at.	32,000 00

Leaving an estimated balance of.	$13,000 00 to provide for school deficits and other expenses of the Corporation.

Respectfully submitted,

A. E. ORR,
Treasurer.

Brooklyn, May 20, 1902.

Mr. Orr presented and read the Treasurer's Report of the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese of Long Island.

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE ESTATE BELONGING TO THE DIOCESE OF LONG ISLAND.

Since their last report (see Journal of the Convention of 1901, page 83,) the Trustees have received the following:

No. 74. The Augustus Rapelye Trust of $5,000, created under the third clause of his will, reading as follows:

*"Third—*I give and devise to the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese of Long Island Five Thousand Dollars, to have and to hold the same upon trust for the Church or Congregation known as St. Mary's Mission Chapel at Laurel Hill, in the Borough of Queens, City and State of New York, to have and to hold and manage the same, and to apply the interest and income thereof for the benefit and use of the above Church or Congregation so long as the same shall conform with the Canons, rules, regulations and usages of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Long Island, and upon the failure or violation thereof then to be held and applied upon the like trust for the use of any other Church or Congregation so conforming in said Diocese, the said Corporation may appoint or select."

The sum mentioned above has been received and invested in guaranteed mortgages on Brooklyn real estate drawing $4\frac{1}{2}\%$ interest.

Diocese of Long Island.
The First Day.

No. 75.—A deed dated 13th August, 1901, from Sarah E. Maurice and Margaret J. Maurice removing certain restrictions contained in a certain deed from the same parties to the Trustees known as Deed No. 62 of the record dated 30th December, 1896.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

A. E. ORR,
Treasurer.

Brooklyn, May 20, 1902.

Mr. Orr presented and read a report of his action on the following resolution, which had been referred to him with power by the last Annual Convention :

Resolved: That as Zion Church, Little Neck, has contributed substantially more than its quota to the principal of the Episcopal Fund, it be relieved from assessments therefor from the time of said contribution.

Mr. Orr presented the Report of the Treasurer on the resolution of Mr. William R. Griffiths referred to him with power at the last Convention.

“Mr. WM. R. GRIFFITHS offered the following :

Resolved: That as Zion Church, Little Neck, has contributed substantially more than its quota to the principal of the Episcopal Fund, it be relieved from assessments therefor from the time of said contribution.

In the opinion of the Treasurer neither Mr. Wm. R. Griffiths or the Vestry of Zion Church, Little Neck, has presented any valid reason why the relief prayed for should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

A. E. ORR,
Treasurer.”

May 19, 1902.

The First Day.

DOUGLASTON, L. I., May 17, 1902.

MR. ALEXANDER E. ORR,

Treasurer of the Diocese of Long Island:

MY DEAR SIR:

You probably know the contention of our Vestry in regard to the Bishop's salary. Some years ago Zion Church availed itself of an offer, officially made by the Diocese, to contribute a stated sum for Episcopal Endowment, and to thereby secure release from annual payments. I regret that there should be any misconception or misjudgment of our position; but, in so far as I am acquainted with the facts, I am bound to defend the motive and attitude of our Vestry.

Very truly yours,

R. M. W. BLACK,

Rector of Zion Church.

Rev. Dr. Alsop reported the following recommendations of the Committee on Canons, and gave notice of intention to move their adoption on the second day's session:

We recommend that Subdivision 12, of Section 2 of Canon 3, Article I be amended to read as follows:

12. Three Lay Delegates to the Convention from the Cathedral one of whom shall be a member of the Cathedral Chapter, shall be chosen by the Lay Members of the Congregation acting under by-laws made by the Chapter, and the evidence of their appointment shall be a certificate signed by the Dean, or the Precentor if the Dean is absent, and by the recording officer.

We recommend that Subdivision I of Section I of Canon 8, Article II., be amended to read as follows:

SECTION I. (1) In cases of controversy between any Rector or Assistant Minister of any Church or Parish, and the Vestry or Trustees thereof, which cannot be settled by the parties themselves, and is such as to injure the peace and prosperity of the Parish or the Church, the said parties, or either of them, may make a written application to the Ecclesiastical Authority for decision thereupon.

We recommend that Canon 9, Article 1, be amended so that it shall read as follows:

SECTION I. The Corporation organized by Special Act of the Legislature in 1902 under the name of "The Diocesan Missions of Long Island" is hereby recognized as a diocesan institution, for which provision is recommended to be made.

It shall present at each annual convention a report of its financial condition, showing its receipts and expenditures of money for the preceding year, and all property received or accepted by it in trust, or otherwise, and giving an account of all work done by it.

SECTION II. The Diocese shall be divided into four districts, to be called Archdeaconries, as follows, to wit:

1. The Northern Archdeaconry of the Borough of Brooklyn, including all that part of Kings County lying north of a line running from the river up the middle of Montague Street to Fulton Street, to Flatbush Avenue, to Atlantic Avenue, to Franklin Avenue, south to Flatbush Avenue, to Jamaica Bay.

2. The Southern Archdeaconry of the Borough of Brooklyn including all that part of Kings County lying south of said line.

3. The Archdeaconry of Queens and Nassau, comprising Queens County and Nassau County.

4. The Archdeaconry of Suffolk, comprising Suffolk County

SECTION III. Each Archdeaconry shall be composed of the Clergy resident within its limits, together with three Laymen from each Parish, appointed annually by the Rector, or Minister-in-Charge, or in his absence by the Vestry, to serve until the sitting of the next Convention, and one Lay Delegate from each Chapel or Mission station not represented in the Convention and having fifteen or more regular communicants, to be appointed by the Minister of said Chapel from among its Laity.

The First Day.

For the purposes of this Canon, Clergymen shall be considered to be resident in that Archdeaconry where their work is located. But this Canon shall not be construed so as to exclude from membership Clergymen resident within the limits of the Archdeaconry and canonically resident in the Diocese who are officers of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and those engaged as professors or instructors of youth in any College, Academy or General Seminary of learning duly incorporated.

At its first regular meeting, and every fourth year thereafter, each Archdeaconry as constituted above shall nominate to the Bishop, for his approval or rejection, a Clergyman to fill the office of Archdeacon, whose duty shall be, in the absence of the Bishop, to preside at all meetings and to perform the other functions of the office as hereinafter provided. His term of office shall be for four years from the time of his appointment, and until his successor shall be nominated and approved. In case the office should become vacant by death or resignation, a special meeting of the Archdeaconry shall be convened by the Bishop, and the said Archdeaconry shall proceed at once to the filling of the office in the manner provided above.

SECTION IV. The Convention shall annually elect one layman from each of the said Archdeaconries as a Trustee of "The Diocesan Missions of Long Island," and shall further elect, as Trustees of that corporation, two Clergymen and two laymen at large. The persons so elected as Trustees of the Diocesan Missions of Long Island shall, together with those Trustees of the corporation who hold office ex officio, constitute the Missionary Committee of the Diocese, of which Committee the Bishop shall ex officio be the head.

SECTION V. The Missionary Committee thus constituted and created shall have the management of the missionary operations of the Diocese, and the control of the funds raised for Missionaries. It shall have for its officers the corresponding officers of "The Diocesan Missions of Long Island." It shall receive annually from the several Archdeaonries full reports of their work, and with the aid of said reports it shall make a full annual report to the Diocesan Convention, giving an account of all the work done by it, and moneys raised and expended by it within the limits of the Diocese. It shall meet as soon as convenient after the adjournment of the Diocesan Convention, at which meeting, after completing its organization, it shall designate the amounts desired from each Archdeaonry and allot the amount to be expended in each Archdeaonry, and shall at once notify the secretaries of the several Archdeaonries of its action; such designation and allotment to be based in a general way upon the reports of the previous year. The fiscal year shall end at the meeting of the Missionary Committee next preceding the Diocesan Convention, said meeting to be not less than five days before the Convention.

SECTION VI. It shall be the duty of the Archdeacon to take the oversight of the missionary work in the Archdeaonry, with the exception of cathedral and parochial chapels. He shall confer with the Bishop as to plans and details, and with the Clergy within the limits of whose parishes missionary work may be proposed, or is being conducted. He shall survey the ground and propose, as occasion offers, plans of operation, and in case such plans be adopted by the Archdeaonry, awaken, as far as opportunity can be found, an interest therein on the part of the congregations.

Each Archdeaonry shall annually present a report of the condition and progress of the missionary work within its limits to the Missionary Committee of the Diocese, in time for said Committee to make its report to the Convention. It shall be the duty of the treasurer of each Archdeaonry to receive contributions from the parishes and to forward the same to the treasurer of the Missionary Committee, and to keep and account for the money of the Archdeaonry, paying out any such sums as he shall be authorized to pay by a regular meeting.

The First Day.

SECTION VII. Each Archdeaconry shall, in open meeting, under the advice of the Bishop and with the consent of the Clergy within the limit of whose parishes missionary work may be proposed, conduct the missionary work within its own limits; shall have control of the distribution of the money allotted to it by the Missionary Committee in aid of mission stations and feeble parishes; shall apportion for collection among its parishes and missions the sums from time to time so allotted, and may, at its discretion, with the approval of the Bishop, undertake special missionary work within its limits, and raise funds for such purposes, provided it shall first have met the assessments made upon it by the Missionary Committee.

SECTION VIII. Each Archdeaconry shall hold, at least twice annually, stated meetings for the transaction of its business, and no apportionments or appropriations shall be made except at those meetings. The time and place of such meetings shall be fixed by the vote or by-laws of each Archdeaconry.

It shall be the duty of each Clergyman, unless prevented by grave and reasonable causes, to attend the regular meetings of the Archdeaconry, and to report all missionary work done in his cure. It shall be competent for each Archdeaconry to arrange, by by-laws or otherwise, such a programme for devotional, business and social exercises as shall in their judgment tend to the profit and pleasure of the meetings.

SECTION IX. No missionary station shall be established or missionary appointed except with the concurrence of the Bishop. The Bishop, together with the Archdeacon, shall have the power to remove any missionary for causes touching his moral character or efficiency.

No appropriation shall be made by the Missionary Committee, or by any Archdeaconry, in aid of any organized parish, except upon application of the Wardens and Vestrymen of said parish, with the written consent and approval of the Minister, if there be one.

The Rev. Dr. McCONNELL gave notice of intention to move the amendment of Canon 10, Section I, so as to read as follows: "It is hereby declared to be the duty of every congregation in this Diocese to make an annual collection, to be paid to the Trustees of said fund, who shall hold and apply the same to the relief of widows and children of deceased Clergymen of this Diocese. It is recommended that such collection be taken on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or the Sunday next before or next following."

Also, to amend Section II of the same Canon by inserting before the word "Fund" in the sixth line the words "interest of said," so that the line shall read "receive applications for relief and apply the interest of said, etc."

Also, to transpose the two amended sections so that Section II shall become Section I.

This was referred to the Committee on Canons for report.

The Rev. Dr. ROGERS gave notice of intention to move the amendment of Article III of the Constitution as follows:

ARTICLE 3. CONSTITUTION.

To be added to Section 2:

"No Clergyman, however, shall have a right to a seat in the Convention unless he has been canonically resident in this Diocese for the period of six months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention."

This was referred to the Committee on Canons for report.

Mr. MYNDERSE gave notice of intention to introduce the following resolution at the second day's session:

Resolved: That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of Long Island be, and that they hereby are authorized and instructed to convey the premises commonly known as No. 170 Remsen Street, Brooklyn, unto the Diocesan Missions of Long Island, for the uses and purposes of such corporation, by instrument of conveyance in due form under the corporate seal of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of Long Island and under the hand of its appropriate officers, to the end that a full and complete title to the said premises may be vested in the Diocesan Missions of Long Island.

The Rev. ST. CLAIR HESTER read the report of the Committee on The General Theological Seminary.

Rev ROBERT WEEKS,

Hon. JOHN A. NICHOLS,

Rev. ST. CLAIR HESTER,

Mr. WILLIAM MULLIGAN,

Mr. J. F. HALSTEAD.

Your Committee are impressed with the fact that every year marks a steady growth in the financial strength, increased facilities for effective work, and greater usefulness of this institution. An examination of the Annual Report of the Standing Committee to the recent meeting (May 13, 1902) of the Board of Trustees of the Seminary shows some of the following encouraging features: The endowment funds now in the custody of the Finance Committee for the support of scholarships and to pay the salaries of professors and lectureships amounts to the substantial sum of $1,376,872.68. Extensive alterations have been made in Jarvis Hall during the past year to provide for a fire-proof extension to the library. The cornerstone has been laid of a new dormitory, to be called White Hall, which will accommodate forty additional students, and when two others, which the Committee on Real Estate has been authorized to proceed with, have been completed, accommodations will be provided for two hundred students. The Rev. Charles H. Hayes, a graduate of the Seminary and associate professor of philosophy at Trinity College, Hartford, has accepted his election as professor of evidences, and will enter on the duties of his chair next September. The chair of Pastoral Theology, for some time vacant, has also been filled by the election of the Rev. Herbert M. Denslow, Rector of St. John's Church, Lafayette, Ind. During the session of the late meeting of the Board of Trustees a committee from the Alumni Association appeared and tendered to them for use, without any restrictions, the fund which they had raised for the maintenance of a lectureship in the Seminary. As this fund has been in litigation for some years, this seemed a happy solution of a controversy which had occasioned irritation, and which to some appeared to involve a matter rather of interpretation than of principle. Finally, it is a gratifying and encouraging fact to record that the senior class recently graduated had a membership of thirty-eight students, and of these four have offered themselves for service in the foreign field.

Respectfully submitted.

ROBERT WEEKS.

The Rev. Mr. SCUDDER moved that the report of the Standing Committee be now read. Motion lost.

Upon motion, the Convention adjourned to Wednesday morning.

The Second Day.

WEDNESDAY, May 21st.

Morning Prayer was read by the Rt. Rev., the Bishop, the Rev. SAMUEL COX, D. D., and the Rev. R. L. BRYDGES.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment, the Rt. Rev. the Bishop presiding. The minutes and proceedings of the first day were read and approved.

The Clerical and Lay Delegates not present on the first day were requested to send their names to the Secretary's desk.

The President announced a change in the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, Mr. H. PUTNAM being appointed in place of Mr. WILHELMUS MYNDERSE.

The Convention then proceeded to elect members to fill vacancies in the Standing Committee. The Rev. J. T. RUSSELL, who had been appointed one of the Inspectors of Election for the Clerical vote, being absent, the President appointed the Rev. HENRY D. WALLER in his place.

While the Inspectors were counting the ballots the Convention proceeded with the transaction of business, as follows:

Upon motion of Rev. Mr. MCGUFFEY (there being no rival candidates for the positions on the Missionary Committee), the balloting was dispensed with, and, there being no objection, the Secretary was instructed to cast one ballot for the nominees. The Secretary then cast a ballot, as follows:

For Clerical Members of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese:

Rev. ALBERT C. BUNN, M. D. Rev. LINDSAY PARKER, Ph. D.

For Lay Members of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese:

Mr. LYMAN R. GREENE. Mr. A. AUGUSTUS LOW.

THE TRUSTEES.

Of the Episcopal Fund:

Mr. ALEXANDER E. ORR.	Mr. WILLIAM H. WALLACE.
Mr. JAMES R. COWING.	Mr. A. AUGUSTUS LOW.
Mr. FREDERICK A. PARSONS.

Rt. Rev. FREDERICK BURGESS, D.D.	Hon. TOWNSEND SCUDDER.
Rev. REESE F. ALSOP, D.D.	Mr. HENRY E. PIERREPONT.
Mr. ALEXANDER E. ORR.

Of the General Theological Seminary:

Rev. ROBERT WEEKS.	Mr. HENRY E. PIERREPONT.
Rev. ST. CLAIR HESTER.	Mr. JOHN F. HALSTEAD.

Upon motion of the Rev. Dr. ALSOP, the above nominations were confirmed.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

On the Salary of the Bishop:

Rev. GEORGE F. BREED, Ph.B.	Mr. FREDERICK A. PARSONS.
Rev. E. M. MCGUFFEY.	Mr. LYMAN R. GREENE.
Rev. J. H. DARLINGTON, D.D.	FRANCIS H. MILLER, M.D.
Mr. ALEXANDER E. ORR.

On Christian Education:

Rev. SPENCER S. ROCHE, D.D.	Mr. A. AUGUSTUS LOW.
Rev. H. H. WASHBURN.	Mr. GEORGE POPE.
Rev. PAUL F. SWETT.	Mr. A. H. MAN.

The Second Day.

On the American Church Building Fund:

Rev. ARTHUR B. KINSOLVING. }
Mr. HENRY E. PIERREPONT. } Commissioners for Long Island.

Rev. JAMES H. DARLINGTON, D.D. Mr. A. AUGUSTUS LOW.

Rev. GEORGE F. BREED, Ph.D. Mr. SPENCER ALDRICH.

Rev. HENRY MESIER. Mr. A. H. MAN.

Rev. JAMES FLEY AITKINS. O. F. HIBBARD.

Sunday School Commission:

Rev. WILLIAM WILEY. Mr. A. AUGUSTUS LOW.

Rev. JAMES H. DARLINGTON, D.D. Mr. CHASE MELLEN.

Rev. RALPH L. BRYDGES. Mr. CHARLES H. FULLER.

Rev. GEORGE W. DAVENPORT.

The Rev. T. G. JACKSON and Mr. P. R. JENNINGS were nominated for the Deputies to the Missionary Council.

Upon motion of the Rev. Mr. MCGUFFEY, the balloting for Deputies to the Missionary Council was dispensed with, and, no objection being offered, the Secretary was instructed to cast one ballot for the gentlemen nominated. The ballot was cast, and the Rev. T. G. JACKSON and Mr. P. R. JENNINGS declared elected.

The Rev. Dr. ALSOP then read the following report from the Committee on Canons:

The Committee on Canons, to whom was referred the motion of Dr. Rogers amending Article 3 of the Constitution, by adding to Section 2 the words, "No Clergyman, however, shall have a right to a seat in the Convention unless he has been canonically resident in this Diocese for the period of six months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention," have had the same under consideration, and respectfully report:

That in their judgment the purpose of the mover would be secured by a shorter period. They therefore offer the following resolution:

Resolved: That Article 3, Section 2, of the Constitution be amended by adding to it the following words:

"No Clergyman, however, shall be a member of this Convention unless he has been canonically resident in this Diocese for the period of three months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention."

The Rev. Dr. ROGERS accepted the amended resolution as offered by the Rev. Dr. ALSOP, which being duly seconded, the motion was carried and held over for final action at the next Convention.

The Rev. Dr. ALSOP then presented the following recommendation from the Committee on Canons:

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the motion made by Rev. Robert Kimber at the last Convention, that Article III, Section 2, of the Constitution be amended by striking out the words "two committees of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society," and inserting instead "Board of Managers," respectfully report:

That they have had the same under consideration, and recommend that it be approved and lie over for further action at the next Convention.

This recommendation was seconded by the Rev. Dr. ROGERS and approved by the Convention.

The Rev. Dr. ALSOP, in accordance with the notice given on the first day of the Convention, moved as follows: That Sub-division 1 of Section I of Canon 8, Article II, be amended to read as follows:

SECTION I [1]. "In cases of controversy between any Rector or Assistant Minister of any Church or Parish and the Vestry or Trustees thereof, which cannot be settled by the parties themselves, and is such as to injure the peace and prosperity of the Parish or the Church, the said parties, or either of them, may make a written application to the Ecclesiastical Authority for decision thereupon."

After some discussion, upon motion of Rev. Mr. MCGUFFEY, the matter was recommitted to the Committee on Canons.

The Rev. Dr. McCONNELL then presented and read the following report and recommendations of the Special Committee on the General Clergy Relief Fund, appointed at the last Convention. The Committee on Canons reported favorably these recommendations.)

The Second Day.

Report

OF COMMITTEE ON THE GENERAL CLERGY RELIEF FUND, AND UPON A PLAN TO PROVIDE RELIEF FOR THE WIDOWS AND ORPHANS OF THE CLERGY OF THE DIOCESE.

Your Committee beg leave to report and recommend as follows:

There are in existence three sources from which relief for aged and infirm Clergy may be secured:

First.—The “General Relief Fund.” This is the general and official society for clerical relief covering the whole Church. Its income is derived from royalties on the publication of the Hymnal, and also from collections taken generally in churches. Its benefactions are distributed by a board of managers at their discretion, and apply to needy Clergy and also to their widows and orphans.

Second.—“The Corporation for the Relief of Widows and Children of Clergymen in the State of New York.” This is an insurance company, which pays annuities and pays fixed sums to the children of deceased clergymen upon the payment of an annual premium of $8. It also distributes its surplus income among the children of its policyholders at the discretion of the managers. Its benefits are open to any clergyman canonically resident in any diocese in the State of New York.

Third.—The “Fund for the Aged and Infirm Clergy” of the Diocese of Long Island. This fund is a trust administered at their discretion by a Board of Trustees. It is fed from offerings in churches, and from the income of its endowment. It is available only for the relief of aged and infirm Clergy, and not for their widows and orphans.

The widows and orphans of Clergymen of this Diocese are the persons in whose interest your Committee has been formed. The income from the General Clergy Relief Fund is altogether inadequate to supply their needs. The income from the Diocesan Relief Fund is not available for them.

The last Convention Journal shows that this fund possesses an endowment of $205,000. It receives, in round numbers, from donations, $3,000; from interest on endowment, $5,000. It pays to beneficiaries, in round numbers, $3,000 annually. It adds to its endowment from income $3,000 to $5,000 annually. It also appears that it satisfies all the claims made upon it. The Diocese provides by canon that a collection shall be taken annually in each parish for this fund. It is evident, therefore, that the proceeds of this collection are added annually to the endowment of the fund, and that there is no need of this collection to enable the fund to fulfil its purpose, which can well be done out of income from investments. Your Committee therefore recommends that for the present, and until further action be taken by this Convention, a collection shall be taken annually in each parish and placed in the hands of the Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund specifically for the relief of the widows and children of needy Clergymen of this Diocese.

For this purpose they recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved: To amend Canon 10, Section I, Article 1, so as to read as follows: "It is hereby declared to be the duty of every congregation in this Diocese to make an annual collection, to be paid to the Trustees of said fund, who shall hold and apply the same to the relief of widows and children of deceased Clergymen of this Diocese. It is recommended that such collection be taken on the Annual Thanksgiving Day, or the Sunday next before or next following."

Also, to amend Section II of the same canon by inserting before the word "Fund" in the sixth line the words "interest of said," so that the line shall read "receive applications for relief and apply the interest of said," etc.; also, to transpose the two amended sections, so that Section II shall become Section I.

Respectfully submitted,

S. D. McCONNELL,
FRED C. COCHEU,
A. A. LOW.

The Second Day.

Pursuant to notice given on the first day of the Convention, the Rev. Dr. McCONNELL moved the adoption of the above-mentioned amendments. The motion was carried.

Pursuant to notice given on the first day of the Convention, the Rev. Dr. ALSOP offered a resolution to amend Canon 9, Article I, so that it shall read as follows:

(These amendments will be found among the proceedings of the first day.)

The resolution was carried.

The Inspectors made their report on the balloting for members of the Standing Committee, and the Secretary announced the result:

The President declared the Rev. Dr. BACCHUS and Mr. —A. C. HUMPHREYS elected members of the Standing Committee for four years.

The Rev. A. B. KINSOLVING presented and read the report of the Standing Committee:

Report

OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESE OF LONG ISLAND, MAY 20, 1902.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Long Island begs to present the following report:

The Secretary of the Convention certified to the Secretary of the Standing Committee the election of the following gentlemen on May 22, 1901: Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving and Mr. Wilhelmus Mynderse to serve four years each.

June 10, 1901.—The Committee organized by the election of the Rev. Dr. Swentzel as President and Rev. Mr. Kinsolving as Secretary. Consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Frederick William Taylor, D.D., as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Quincy. Consent was given the Church of the Epiphany, Brooklyn, to place an additional mortgage of $3,200 on their property. Mr. M. Clifford Pardee was recommended to the Bishop as a candidate for Holy Orders, his candidateship to date from May 16, 1901.

August 28, 1901.—A special meeting of the Committee was held on this date. Mr. Mynderse was appointed Secretary pro tem. The President made formal announcement of the death of Bishop Littlejohn, and the Rev. Dr. Bacchus and Mr. Orr were appointed a Committee to prepare memorial resolutions for submission at the next meeting of this Committee. It was further resolved that the Diocese assume the funeral expenses of Bishop Littlejohn, and the Treasurer, Mr. Orr, was authorized to adjust and pay all bills and charges connected therewith, and to borrow funds for such purpose if necessary. Mr. Orr reported that the the Cathedral Chapter had requested Mrs. Bird to remain in the See House until further arrangements should be made, and that in the meantime the Maintenance Fund for the See House was placed at Mrs. Bird's disposal.

The President of the Committee was authorized to arrange Episcopal visitations to such Parishes as should call upon him for such ministrations. The President was further authorized to issue in the name of the Standing Committee, as the ecclesiastical authority, suitable prayers to be used during the vacancy of the Episcopate.

Mr. Arthur Searing Peck was received as a Postulant. Rev. Elvin Honeyman was received as a Presbyterian of this Diocese, having been duly transferred from the Diocese of Rhode Island.

The Rev. Robert P. Kreidler was granted Letters Dimissory from the Diocese of Massachusetts. Mr. William Stanley Edge, a Postulant of this Diocese, was transferred to the Diocese of Milwaukee. Credentials were signed for Mrs. E. B. Parker as a delegate from the Diocese of Long Island to the Meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to be held in San Francisco. Mr. George Foster Peabody announced by letter his inability to attend the General Convention and the Committee designated from the list of Provisional Deputies, in order, Mr. P. R. Jennings, Dr. J. Elmer Langstaff, Col. Peter Mallet and the Hon. Townsend Scudder, to supply the deficiency in the representation of the Diocese. The Vestry, Wardens and Vestrymen of Trinity Church, Northport, were granted leave to convey by warranty deed the property used by them as a rectory to Edward Thompson in consideration of the release by him of the mortgage now held by him.

An application for Ella A. Bartow to the Trustees of the Fund for the Relief of Orphans of Deceased Clergymen was granted. Letters Dimissory of the Rev. William Satterlee Packer, Rector, from the Diocese of Massachusetts to that of Long Island were accepted.

Consent was given to the transfer of the Rt. Rev. Samuel Cook Edsall, D.D., Missionary Bishop of North Dakota, to be Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Minnesota.

The Second Day.

It was determined to take no action at this meeting respecting the call of a special Convention.

September 18, 1901.—The Standing Committee, acting as the ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese, by reason of a vacancy in the Episcopate, resolved: First, to call a special Convention for the election of a Bishop in the place of the Rt. Rev. Abram Newkirk Littlejohn, D.D., LL.D., deceased; second, that such Convention is hereby called, to be held in the Cathedral at Garden City on Wednesday, November 20, 1901, at half-past 10 A. M.; and, third, that the Secretary of the Convention be instructed to issue notices of this call in the usual manner, and to call upon the parishes and congregations to elect lay delegates to the Convention.

The Committee signed testimonials of Arthur Searing Peck as a candidate for Holy Orders, and further, acting as the ecclesiastical authority, accepted him as a candidate.

The President of the Committee was authorized to issue a license as Lay Reader to Arthur S. Peck, R. Clifford Pardee, M.D., and Walter Nicholas Clapp.

Permission was given the Rector, Churchwardens and Vestrymen of the Church of the Nativity, Vanderveer Park, Brooklyn, to mortgage its real property in an amount not exceeding $4,500. Mr. Henry E. Pierrepont sent a communication announcing that he would be unable to attend the approaching General Convention, and Col. Peter Mallet was designated in his stead.

It was further announced that Mr. John A. Nichols would be unable to attend the same Convention, and Mr. Townsend Scudder was designated to fill the vacancy.

The Rev. Dr. Bacchus presented memorial resolutions upon the death of Bishop Littlejohn, and it was ordered that they be printed in the Churchman and an engrossed copy presented to the family of Bishop Littlejohn.

Notice from the Bishop of North Carolina was presented to the Committee, acting as the ecclesiastical authority, announcing the deposition from the Ministry of Edward Phillip Green, for causes not affecting his moral character; that Gaston Battle and Wm. P. Crittenden had been removed from the list of candidates for Priest's Orders, and the name of Wm. Thos. Bost had been removed from the list of candidates for Deacon's Orders in that Diocese.

November 4, 1901.—Rev. George Albert Cain, formerly a Methodist Minister, was recommended as a candidate for Priest's Orders, and the Standing Committee, duly acting as the ecclesiastical authority, accepted him as such. Mr. Cain's papers having been forwarded to the Secretary over sea, and hence delayed, his admission was dated back to August 1.

Rev. Wm. D. Perry, formerly a Dutch Reformed Minister, was recommended for ordination to the Diaconate in December.

It was resolved that all Letters Dimissory presented at this meeting be laid on the table for action after the coming Convention.

The Rev. R. W. Cochrane was given a Letter Dimissory to the Diocese of New York. A license as Lay Reader was authorized to be given by the President to Mr. Wm. E. Sager and Franklin John Bohannan.

The President of the Committee was further authorized to arrange for the December ordinations.

The Standing Committee, acting as the ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese, and with the aid of the Rev. Robt. Rogers, Ph.D., Secretary of the Convention, prepared a list of Clergy entitled to seats at the approaching Convention.

Announcement was received that the Rev. Thos. Percy Swift had been appointed Assistant to the Rector of St. Paul's Church, Flatbush, and the Rev. Edwin G. Weed in the same capacity at St. Paul's, Brooklyn.

The Committee approved the action of the Vestry of Zion Church, Little Neck, in calling the Rev. R. M. Black to be Rector, such action on the part of this Committee being required under a certain charter of that Parish.

Mr. Orr and Drs. Swentzel and Rogers were appointed a Committee on further arrangements for the special Diocesan Convention.

November 25, 1901. The Secretary presented for action canonical papers relative to the election of the Rev. Frederick Burgess, D.D., to be Bishop of Long Island, and on motion he was authorized on behalf of the Committee to proceed at once to send these papers to the Standing Committees of the several Dioceses, requesting consent to the consecration of Dr. Burgess as Bishop of Long Island.

Letters Dimissory were given the Rev. Wilmer P. Bird to the Diocese of New York and the Rev. Paul Rogers Fish to the Diocese of Vermont.

A request was received from the Mission of the Transfiguration, Brooklyn, to be allowed to move their church to a point several blocks from its present location, and on motion it was resolved that the three nearest Churches be notified to appear before the Committee at its next meeting for a conference upon the matter.

A communication from the Diocese of New York, drawing the attention of this Committee, as the ecclesiastical authority, to the religious needs of certain inmates of an institution for the care of the insane at Central Islip, was referred to the Archdeacon of Suffolk.

Mr. Orr was deputized to thank Bishop Potter for his memorial sermon at the late Convention.

December 16, 1901.—The Bishop-elect attended the meeting to consult with the Committee as to the Consecration Services. These were left entirely in his hands.

The application of David T. Weidner to be admitted a Postulant was referred to the Bishop-elect.

Rev. Henry Clay Briggs, M.A., was recommended for ordination to the Diaconate.

The Second Day.

Provision was made for certain ordinations on St. Thomas' Day.

A communication in reference to the apportionment scheme of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society was referred to the Bishop-elect, as was also a petition from the Rev. Chas. Henry Webb for the shortening of his term as Deacon.

A Lay Reader's license was granted to Chas. F. Lemy.

Certain papers were signed recommending the widow of the late Rev. Pallam Williams as a proper beneficiary of a relief fund.

The Committee gave a hearing to the representatives of the Cathedral Mission of the Transfiguration, who desired to move from its present site to Ridgewood and Euclid Avenue, and to representatives of the three nearest parishes. After a full hearing of the case, it was resolved that the consent be denied.

February 17, 1902.—Consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Alex. Hamilton Vinton, D.D., to be Bishop of Western Massachusetts, and the Rev. Chas. S. Olmsted, D.D., to be Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Colorado.

David T. Weidner was recommended to be received as a Candidate for Priest's Orders.

The corporation of St. Luke's Church, Sea Cliff, were given permission to place a mortgage of $2,565 on their new Rectory.

An application from the Mission Church of the Holy Comforter, Brooklyn, to assume the responsibility of the insurance upon their church property was declined.

A plan was laid before the Committee by which the house 170 Remsen Street, formerly the residence of the late Bishop, can be converted into a Diocesan Mission House; and the draft of a bill to be presented to the State Legislature looking to the incorporation of a Diocesan Mission Society, was read and approved.

A communication was received from the Standing Committee of the Diocese of New York, asking the concurrence of the Committee in securing the repeal of the Act of 1901, amending the then existing religious corporations law, which law had been passed after long consideration and deliberate approval by each of the Dioceses within the State of New York. It was resolved:

That the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Long Island do hereby express their hearty concurrence with the application made to the Legislature of this State by the Standing Committee of the Diocese of New York for the repeal of the Act of 1901 amending the religious corporations law in respect to the sale or mortgage of the real property of an incorporated Episcopal parish, to the end that the law may be restored to the form it had prior to the Act of 1901, and

Resolved: That the Secretary send a certified copy of this resolution to the Secretary of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of New York.

May 19, 1902.—Consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. James Heartt Van Buren as Missionary Bishop of the District of Porto Rico, and the Rev. Henry Bond Resterick to be Bishop of the Missionary District of Honolulu.

The following were recommended to the Bishop for admission to the sacred order of priests: The Revs. Henry Rutgers Remsen, Charles Henry Webb, Henry Clay Briggs and Wm. Satterlee Packer. The following were recommended to the Bishop for admission to the sacred order of Deacons: Duncan McPherson Genns and Roelif Hasbrouck Brooks.

ARTHUR B. KINSOLVING,
Secretary.

Pursuant to notice given on the first day of the Convention, the Rev. Dr. ALSOP offered a resolution to amend Subdivision 12 of Section II of Canon 3, Article I, to read as follows:

[12]. "Three Lay Delegates to the Convention from the Cathedral, one of whom shall be a member of the Cathedral Chapter, shall be chosen by the lay members of the congregation, acting under by-laws made by the Chapter, and the evidence of their appointment shall be a certificate signed by the Dean, or the Precentor if the Dean is absent, and by the recording officer."

The Second Day.

The motion was carried.

Pursuant to notice given on the first day of the Convention, Mr. MYNDERSE offered the following resolution:

"Resolved: That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of Long Island be, and that they hereby are, authorized and instructed to convey the premises commonly known as No. 170 Remsen Street, Brooklyn, unto the Diocesan Missions of Long Island, for the use and purposes of such corporation, by instrument of conveyance in due form, under the corporate seal of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of Long Island and under the hand of its appropriate officers, to the end that a full and complete title to the said premises may be vested in the Diocesan Missions of Long Island."

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

The Rev. A. B. KINSOLVING read the report of the Committee on the American Church Building Fund.

The Commissioners of the American Church Building Fund and the Diocesan Committee appointed by the Bishop beg leave to make the following report:

During the last year twenty-nine parishes in this Diocese have made contributions to this fund, amounting to $763.44, as against $657.82 last year, a gain of more than $100. Besides this, a legacy of $5,000 was received from the late Augustus Rapelye, of St. James' Church, Newtown, to found a memorial fund. This brings the total for the year from Long Island up to $5,763.44. The following have been placed in red during the year as having completed their quota: the Church of the Holy Spirit, Bath Beach; St. James', Newtown; St. Thomas', Ravenswood; Christ Church, Bellport; and Christ Church, Sag Harbor.

The principal sum of this fund has grown during the year from $360,000 to $371,000. It was created for a large and important purpose, and more and more as the fund increases, the Trustees are making gifts towards the erection of churches out of the interest account rather than loans from the principal sum. This betokens a healthier condition of things in the management of church planting. It is getting to be the policy of the Bishops and others to erect such church building as can be speedily paid for, instead of more costly structures destined for a term of years to be burdened with debt. No worthy application for a gift of money to complete a new Church is refused. The Trustees have made this year the largest individual gift that they have ever made to a Church, viz., to the colored congregation in Galveston, Texas, whose Church was swept away by a cyclone. This gift was $500, the extreme limit under the Constitution. The Trustees, even at the cost of being considered severe, have endeavored in all cases to safeguard the principal sum of this fund, and the General Convention last October strongly approved of the course the Commission has pursued. Long Island, we learn from the headquarters in New York, is the banner Diocese in the matter of systematic offerings, and many of our circulars have been sent out to the Commissioners of other Dioceses commending to them the system in use in this Diocese. Partly through a discernment of the wisdom and value of endowments, fostered in this Diocese under the statesmanlike leadership of the first Bishop of Long Island, and partly through the unflagging zeal of the Lay Commissioner, Long Island has been the steadfast friend of this movement. Your Committee would respectfully urge the great value of such a fund as this, administered by a competent and painstaking central board, as contrasted with much of the well-meant but ill-considered help bestowed in this quarter and that, now worthily and again mistakenly, and would ask that either on or near the second Sunday in November or at some other time, an offering be sent to its treasury.

ARTHUR B. KINSOLVING,
HENRY E. PIERREPONT, Commissioners.

AMERICAN CHURCH BUILDING FUND COMMISSION

"Therefore we his servants will arise and build."—Neh. ii :20.

Brooklyn, May 12, 1902.

The Diocesan Commissioners again ask the clergy and laity of Long Island to increase their efforts for the Fund, that our Diocese may complete its quota. Last year four parishes completed their proportion, and twenty-nine parishes contributed to the Fund.

Attention is invited to the founding of memorial, named, funds.

The Fund now amounts to $370,868.43.

1. This Fund is permanent, and will continue doing its work.

2. The object is necessary to Church extension, and to the establishment of religious influences in sparsely settled portions of the land.

3. The plan is no experiment. In England the Church Building Society has done splendid work. And our own Commission can show a record of twenty years of faithful and efficient service.

4. The business affairs of the Commission are managed by experienced business men, elected by the Commission at large, and having the confidence of the entire community.

5. BEQUESTS ARE ASKED. FORM: I GIVE, DEVISE AND BEQUEATH TO THE "AMERICAN CHURCH BUILDING FUND COMMISSION," OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, FOR THE USES OF SAID COMMISSION, ETC.

6. PLEASE SEND CONTRIBUTIONS TO GEORGE C. THOMAS, TREASURER, CHURCH MISSIONS HOUSE, 281 FOURTH AVE., N. Y., WHO WILL RETURN RECEIPT, AND ACKNOWLEDGE IN THE SPIRIT OF MISSIONS.

The Rev. Mr. LADD requested that the assessment on Grace Church, Jamaica, for the American Church Building Fund be reduced to the amount already paid in by said Church.

This request was referred to the Committee on the American Church Building Fund.

The Rev. Dr. BACCHUS read the report of the Committee on the Church Charity Foundation and other Benevolent Institutions.

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CHURCH CHARITY FOUNDATION, AND OTHER BENEVOLENT INSTITUTIONS.

"Art is long and time is fleeting; then, be brief;" "be concise, but graphic;" "omit details, but be lucid;" "avoid appeals, but still be pathetic;" "say little, but what you say make it strike and stick." Such are some of the luminous suggestions offered, in effect, by certain persons of light and learning anent the preparation of the annual report of the Standing Committee on the Church Charity Foundation and Other Benevolent Institutions of the Diocese. Your Committee cannot oblige them by adopting these hints, for, however ready to acknowledge their excellence, it finds itself in a rut, cut deep and smooth by a quarter century's tracking, and must, perforce, go on telling its story in the same trite, stale manner as aforetime. Of course, something of variety might attach to our report, a novelty which would not "disturb our peace," perhaps, if it were presented unread and committed for preservation to the ceremonies of that ornate and admirable bit of Diocesan sepulture commonly called "The Journal of the Convention."

Inasmuch, however, as no one has moved such a disposal of its report, your Committee begs to give by word of mouth some account of the condition and work of the past year of the following institutions:

The Second Day.

The Sheltering Arms Nursery, 157 Dean Street, Brooklyn, a home for young children, orphaned, half-orphaned, or the offspring of parents unable to care for them, admitted 84 beneficiaries, discharged 53 and retained 71. It received by way of sustentation $5,343.95, and expended in maintenance of its household $5,385.75. Its most pressing need is a hospital, as it has no proper room for the isolation of cases demanding quarantine. A fund has been inaugurated for the purpose and invites your generous contributions.

St. Phebe's Mission, 125 De Kalb Avenue, Brooklyn, ministers to the sick, the worthy poor, destitute children and the inmates of asylums and prisons. Its statistics for the year are quite bewildering, by reason of their complexity and prodigality. They record manifold visits to public institutions and multifold errands of mercy run throughout the borough, the holding of frequent religious services at the Almshouse, many administrations of Holy Baptism, of the Holy Communion, wide distribution of Bibles and Prayer Books, the multitudinous giving to the needy of lodgings and meals at the Mission House, the bestowal of numberless medical prescriptions and garments, the procuring admission of persons to homes and hospitals, the securing of work for the unemployed, the providing fresh air outings and vacations for no less than four hundred persons. In doing this many-sided work St. Phebe's expended $4,223.04. It received during the year the same amount, so that it owes no man anything but to love him, a debt which it discharges to the full.

The House of Saint Giles the Cripple, 419 Clinton Street, a home and hospital for destitute crippled children, received from all sources $11,013.19, and disbursed for all purposes $11,262.55; reduced its debt $800, maintained 97 beneficiaries, with an average of about 70, gave 23,061 days of support, increased its Summer Home Fund $118.51, performed 111 surgical operations and treated 209 cases of disease. The capacity of this house was doubled but three years ago, yet it had outgrown itself after a few months. The Diocese has indeed a unique charity of its own in the House of St. Giles the Cripple, for it stands alone in Greater

The Second Day.

New York in its special objects. Its administration is loyal to the Church and faithful and just to its wards. Strange to say, however, the largest portion of its support has come all along from those of other religious bodies. Never before has this Home needed help more than at the present time, and it appeals to the faithful in every parish to bestow a larger share of their benefactions on its tender, sweet and patient work.

The Church Charity Foundation: The work done in the several departments of our great Diocesan charity during the year ending May 1, 1902, has been in quantity and quality about the same as in the year next preceding it. The Church Charity Foundation could, and doubtless would, do twice as much work as it is now doing if the means were at hand with which to do it. It was found necessary some two or more years ago to adopt a policy of retrenchment in view of an increasing crippling debt and the withdrawal, in part, of excise moneys which it had received hitherto. Considering the resources at our command, our work has been creditable, even generous. The financial condition of our charity has improved, and the outlook for betterment in this regard is heartening. Still, there are features of our financial situation which, though not alarming, bid us pause and consider them. It is very gratifying, of course, to be able to report that during the year ending May 1, 1902, our endowment fund has been increased in the amount of $16,950.00—a net excess over last year's gifts to the endowment fund of $15,435, making our total endowment something over $280,000. It is also cheering to find our great debt, which on May 1, 1900, amounted to $98,603.40, and which on May 1, 1901, had decreased to $86,107.75, but which had swollen again on May 1, 1902, to $96,000, will be reduced by returns from the "Debt Fund" and the proceeds of the Midwinter Fête to about $55,000. The generous increase of endowment and the large reduction of our huge indebtedness make most decidedly for the financial betterment of the Foundation, and it is to be devoutly hoped that both increase of endowment and decrease of debt will characterize the future of our noble charity. Once free from debt and adequately endowed, our beloved Foundation will be able to dispense with all methods of increasing its resources that savor of "peanut finance," and resume the larger activities of its near past. It ought to be noted, however, that gratifying as are the increase of endowment and decrease of debt, that the support of the general fund—that is to say, the sustentation fund of our charity—has greatly fallen off during the past year. For the year ending December 31, 1900, the receipts for current expenditures were $66,304.81 and the disbursements were $64,859.09, showing a surplus of $1,445.72. For the year ending December 31, 1901, the receipts for current expenditures were $54,367.87, and the disbursements were $55,200.33, showing a deficit of $832.46. Thus it will be seen that the shrinkage of receipts of the general fund for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1901, as compared with the amount received for the general fund for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1900, was $11,936.94!

On the whole, however, your committee bids you regard with grateful satisfaction the career of our Foundation the past year. The cloud of debt which shrouded its financial horizon begins to lift and swim off, disclosing a clearing sky of freedom from monetary embarrassment and opening up bright vistas of widening service.

On March 5, 1901, the Board of Associates resolved, in view of the oppressive burden of debt which lay upon the Foundation "with a weight heavy as frost and deep almost as life," to inaugurate and achieve an entertainment to be known as "A Mid-winter Fête," the earnings of which they would devote to its "Debt Fund." Securing the Board of Managers' approval of their resolve, the Board of Associates appointed Mrs. J. Elliott Langstaff directress-in-chief of the proposed fête. Accepting the appointment, this devout churchwoman, in invention fertile, in administration resourceful, in affairs tactful, in action tireless, in persuasiveness irresistible, in energy indomitable, aglow with love for the Church Charity Foundation, and aflame with a burning resolve to discharge a sacred vow, led to triumphant success the most ingenious, artistic, instructive and delightful entertainment ever given in the city of Brooklyn. The amount of work involved in carrying to successful completion so novel and varied an undertaking simply staggers computation. Its indefatigable leader devoted two hundred and fifty days to its preparation, visited and explained its scope and purpose to one hundred and twenty-six parishes and missions, enlisted the co-operation of three thousand men and women, the latter, be it said to the praise, under the masterful guidance of their chief and in obedience to the Pauline injunction that "Euodias and Syntyche be of the same mind in the Lord," working in perfect harmony with each other, and as the bright consummate reward of her stupendous effort, reaped the goodly sum of $32,000 in aid of the "Debt Fund" of the Church Charity Foundation! Your Committee fondly hopes that the contagion of her enthusiastic devotion to the C. C. F. will breathe its inspiration upon the churchmen and churchwomen of our Diocese in such fullness of power as to move them to complete her work of freeing forever our Foundation from its entire debt. While speaking of the distinguished services rendered by individuals to the C. C. F., we must not omit mention of the large and loving service to our Foundation of the Rev. Albert Carrier Bunn, M.D., who for ten years was its Rector, during which period he worked at the top of his strength, with singular fidelity to duty and with love unfeigned on behalf of its weal and enlarged usefulness.

As a last word, your Committee would invoke your attention to the following resolution, adopted at our last annual Convention: "Resolved: That the third Thursday in November and the fourth Thursday in May be and are hereby set apart as Receptio and Donation Days at the Church Charity Foundation, and that the Clergy of the Diocese are earnestly requested so to arrange as far as possible, their engagements for these days as to enable them to be present, and as far as may be, to further the observance of the said days by their parishioners."

We must not allow our sustentation fund to shrink. The faithful observance of the above resolution would greatly reinforce it. Brethren, hear the Church.

The Second Day.

Your Committee has said much, perhaps too much, about money in its present report. Figures cannot tell the whole story of our work, for the reason that spiritual forces can never be fully expressed by statistics. There are things in the life of a great charity like ours which cannot be added up on a slate, or computed by any system of logarithms. The patience, gentleness, tenderness, sweetness, sympathy, which lie back of the work and shine through it while it is being done elude our search among tables of receipts and disbursements, as the aroma of flowers escapes when packed in showcases as botanical specimens. The skeletons are there, but the bloom is shed. Still, facts and figures do help us to form some idea of what has been done in the past year in our charities. May the work grow, for the love of Christ and in His name!

On motion of Mr. BARR, the Convention took a recess until 2.30 P. M.

On the reassembling of the Convention, the Rev. Dr. DARLINGTON offered the following resolution: "Resolved: That this Convention endorse the work of the Trained Christian Helpers, and wish them God speed in their work for the sick and the poor; and that the Committee on the Church Charity Foundation and Other Benevolent Institutions include this work in their annual report."

The resolution was adopted.

The Rev. ST. CLAIR HESTER read the report of the Missionary Committee:

Report

OF THE MISSIONARY COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESE.

The Missionary Committee respectfully submits a synopsis of the reports of the four Archdeacons.

I.—THE NORTHERN ARCHDEACONRY OF BROOKLYN.

The Northern Archdeaconry is the largest and most needful inviting Church extension in the Diocese, and at the same time it is the most neglected and least worked. It includes the greater part of Kings County, and within its boundaries reside the majority of the inhabitants of the Borough of Brooklyn, more than six hundred thousand people, and, what is of special import from a missionary standpoint, the homes of the great number of these people are located in the tenements. It is an admitted fact that in Greater New York the foreign element exceeds numerically the native element. This mixture of races, nationalities and creeds infuses manifold and multiform complications into the religious and social situation. The Church is duty-bound to take in hand this difficult problem, which so far remains unsolved. One fact, however, is already apparent—something must be done for the moral and spiritual uplifting and amelioration of our major population of the tenement house and of foreign extraction, else it will drag down the educated and well-to-do minority to its lower level. The Christian leaven must permeate the municipal mass or the mass will dry-rot the leaven. These general observations serve to emphasize the importance and necessity of Church extension, which in this particular field must be conducted strictly along the lines of city mission work.

When what might be done and what ought to be done within this territory is compared with what is done, there is small cause for congratulation, or even satisfaction. To say that the Northern Archdeaconry has not risen to its splendid opportunity, has scarcely touched its field white for the harvest, is to tell the simple truth. At the same time, it is a truth that does not reflect upon any one in particular, but upon every one in particular in any way connected with it, which is but just. There are several good and sufficient reasons to account for the stationary character, if not retrogressive trend, of its work. One is a faulty organization. It is unfortunately the case that the only materi-available for the office of Archdeacon is some parish Rector already sufficiently burdened and constantly driven. A man so obligated and occupied cannot afford the time and patience and labor and endurance demanded by such a responsible position. Another reason, partly the result of the causes just mentioned, is the rapid succession of Archdeacons. There have been six Archdeacons within a period of ten years, one only serving out his full term of office. In other words, the incumbent has hardly gotten acquainted with his field, formed his plans, organized his forces, entered upon his campaign, before he is discouraged or made to feel that he is wasting time and energy, and thereupon offers his resignation and leaves everything where and as he found it.

Other reasons which virtually compel the course just described are want of confidence in the missionary endeavor being made, lack of interest in Church extension in general, and, above all else, failure to support the work and to pay the workers.

The case, though serious, is not beyond hope or remedy. The remedy appears in the form of a report submitted by the Finance Committee at the May meeting of the Archdeaconry. Some of the noteworthy facts brought out in this report are as follows: The appropriation made for the past year amounted to $2,250, while the total receipts from churches were $1,751. The missionaries are not and cannot be paid promptly, in some instances the meager stipends being three months overdue. There are thirty-two parishes within the jurisdiction, ten of which contribute nothing to the mission work of same. In view of these things, and in view of the fact that the Archdeaconry treasury stands obligated for only $1,325 for the year ahead, a decrease in appropriations of $935, it is hoped and believed that every Church will respond favorably to the following resolution, adopted April 29, 1902: Resolved: That every parish in the Northern Archdeaconry be urged to contribute generously to the missionary work in this jurisdiction, and that the following apportionment be recommended to the consideration of each parish:

The adoption of this plan will insure the payment of every stipend when due, leave a small surplus at the end of the year and carry the Church and Sunday School into new districts where both are sadly needed. The following statistics show that the work justifies all expenditures: Baptisms, 105; confirmations 90; marriages, 40; funerals, 70; children in Sunday School, 515

One cheering circumstance, which in all probability contains the promise of better things to come, is the volunteer reinforcements to the Archdeaconry from the ranks of St. Andrew's Brotherhood. Members of this order, under the leadership of Mr Herbert B. Delapierre, have been intrusted with the management of Holy Cross Mission, and will carry on the work at this important point without expense to our treasury. The Rev. Henry wentzel, D.D., was succeeded as Archdeacon at the January ing by the Rev. St. Clair Hester. The Rev. Gilbert V. Rus- ended his resignation as Minister-in-charge of Holy Cross ion to take effect April 1, 1902.

An unusual opportunity to build up a Church for Oriental stians presents itself within this territory. A start has been : by Mr. Hovaghim S. Hagopian, who conducts service every lay afternoon in the chapel of the Church of the Messiah Armenians. In addition to his own countrymen, Syrians, ians, Turks and Greeks attend these services. There are hun- s of these exiles in Brooklyn who are Christians, or were in native land. Here they are scattered and in danger of re- ng to practical heathenism. Mr. Hagopian is a graduate of rt College, Constantinople, studied for three years in the ral Theological Seminary, and is admirably qualified for this . He preaches and conducts service in Armenian, Turkish English. It is very much to be desired that the Archdeaconry e his services. A monthly stipend of $25 will enable him to te his whole time to this work.

The Rev. Cornelius L. Twing, Chaplain at Kings County shouse and Chapel, reports that weekly services are held in shouse Chapel, and in the various wards of the Hospital as sion calls for them. Number of baptisms, 57; communion nistered 24 times; burials, 2. Mr. Twing has been Chaplain ore than twenty years.

Detailed reports from the several missionaries laboring with- is field will appear in the Convention Journal.

ST. CLAIR HESTER.

SOUTHERN ARCHDEACONRY, BROOKLYN, N. Y.

During the past year steady and healthful growth can be ted in the missionary work of the Diocese lying within the of the Southern Archdeaconry of Brooklyn. One new h edifice has been erected; one mission organized into a parish; two Churches have been supplied with resident Rectors in place of a locum tenens; a debt of $654 upon lots purchased heretofore for a future Church has been wiped out; ground has been broken for a Parish House to cost $3,500, of which more than two-thirds is in hand, and a new impetus given a movement started a year ago for a Rectory.

All financial obligations have been promptly met, including the levy upon us by the Missionary Committee of $590 towards the work elsewhere, and there is about $1,200 in hand to meet our fixed charges for the next six months. The contributions from parishes and missions for the general fund amount to $2,200, which is $308 more than last year. The entire sum raised within the Archdeaconry for general fund, new work, lots, etc., is $10,583.43.

The number of persons baptized in parishes and missions aided by the Archdeaconry is 46; the number of persons confirmed or awaiting confirmation in such parishes and missions is 87.

St. John's, Fort Hamilton, which has been faithfully served the greater part of the year by the Rev. William Hyde, who won the respect of all, welcomed on Palm Sunday, as resident Rector, the Rev. E. T. Evans, D.D. There is already discernible an increase in the Church attendance, in receipts and in general interest. The Sunday School still flourishes under the superintendency of Dr. Thorne, and an earnest movement is on foot to secure money to build a Rectory on the Church lot, if additional ground cannot be secured, to cost about $2,500. Of this sum, between $400 and $500 is already in hand.

St. John's Church, Parkville, has during the past year shared with the Church of the Nativity, Vanderveer Park, in the services of a resident Priest. It has received no aid from the Archdeaconry, paid $500 towards the salary of the clergyman, and met all its other expenses. Services have been maintained twice each Sunday, and there is an excellent Sunday School. Representatives of the parish report an excellent spirit among the parishioners. A committee from the Archdeaconry recently had

The Second Day.

Conference with the Vestry of the Church in reference to moving the location of this Church from its present site, with a small, obscure-looking Church building, several blocks to the west, in the center of the Kensington region, so rapidly filling up with new homes, and steps are already being taken to accomplish this end. The lot on which the Church stands is 113 by 160 feet, and contains a commodious Rectory as well. There is no incumbrance at present upon the property.

At St. Matthias, Sheepshead Bay, the services and the Sunday School have been kept up, with a fair attendance, and, in the latter, substantial encouragement; $500 received from a legacy has been applied to the debt on the Church, which now stands at $2,000. The interest on this mortgage has been met. The debt on the organ has been further reduced, being now $220, and the building fund of the Parish House increased about $250.

On Sunday afternoon, the 11th of May, ground was broken for a Parish House to cost $3,500 and stand immediately in the rear of the Church. It will contain, besides the Sunday School room and main auditorium, a ladies' parlor, and on the second floor rooms for the Rector of the parish. This building has been greatly needed, and it is believed will materially strengthen the parish when it is completed.

When the present incumbent of this difficult field took charge, there was a mortgage upon the Church building of $2,500. Under the contract recently signed, when the Parish House, just begun, is completed, there will rest upon the entire property, costing $6,000, plus the land, a mortgage of $2,900—$400 more than that which rested originally upon the Church alone.

The Church of the Nativity, Vanderveer Park.—The congregation worshipping theretofore in a storehouse on Flatbush Avenue got into the part of the new Church of the Nativity which is completed during the month of October. Not unnaturally, the months following the opening were a season of excitement and anxiety. Happily, the period of friction and criticism has been followed by an era of good feeling and work. And while less, perhaps, has been accomplished during the past winter than might reasonably have been expected, there is every promise of a good, healthy parish life in the future. Threatening differences have been healed, and all appear to be devoting themselves with a good will to the spiritual and temporal welfare of the new parish. Helpful Lenten services were held, and the attendance at the three hours' service on Good Friday and the early service on Easter day were specially gratifying. The offering at Easter was $357. On the 2d of April the Bishop confirmed a class of twenty-three persons—fourteen adults and nine children. The Sunday School of the Church of the Nativity is one of the most flourishing of the Archdeaconry. It is under the able care of Mr. Arthur R. Doble, and has nearly doubled within the year, having 160 scholars. It is self-supporting, and has raised in all about $200 for the equipment of the Church and various branches of the Parish and Diocesan charities. This success in the newest mission of the Archdeaconry is cited as a telling illustration of the importance of laying such foundations.

The lot on which the present structure stands is fully paid for. A loan of $3,500 upon the building and ground has been reduced during the year. The envelopes at the regular services have yielded about $350 and the two women's guilds have raised about $1,000. The parish has paid its Minister during the year $300.

At St. Jude's, Blythebourne, there has been a quiet and substantial development. The good seed so patiently sown by the late Mr. Snowdon is coming to fruitage under the intelligent, purposeful rectorship of the Rev. Mr. Dunham, who took charge. The congregations have steadily increased, and there is vitality in every part of the work. People have been drawn into the Church who had not been Church-goers for many years, and there is every reason to believe that St. Jude's, Blythebourne, which stayed at one stature for so many years, is destined to become one of the stronger parishes of the region lying between Prospect Park and the ocean. Thirty-two persons were confirmed at the visitation of the Bishop. The last payment upon the new lots, $654, has recently been made. There remains now upon the Church and Parish House an incumbrance of $1,700, which will rapidly be paid off. After this the congregation will address itself to the erection of a new and worthier Church upon the site secured.

ARTHUR B. KINSOLVING,
Archdeacon of Southern Brooklyn.

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ARCHDEACON OF QUEENS AND NASSAU TO THE ARCHDEA-CONRY AT ITS MEETING ON WEDNESDAY,
APRIL 23, 1902.

During the year past, and since our last annual meeting, this Archdeaconry has held two quarterly meetings. This meeting to-day, therefore, being annual in character, brings us together that we may take counsel one with another, and to sum up and gather into a whole the work done during the year past. In this annual report of your Archdeacon a review of the whole field committed to this Archdeaconry should be given. The work of Church Extension within the Archdeaconry of Queens and Nassau falls under three general heads or divisions:

I.—The Mission Work of the Cathedral.

II.—The Mission Work of Parishes.

III.—The Mission Work of the Archdeaconry.

I.—The mission work of the Cathedral has gone steadily forward and grows larger and more permanent in its results each year. Some of its eleven missions are to-day considering the advisability of becoming self-supporting and organized parishes in the near future. In addition to these established missions, a new work was undertaken at Coe's Neck last summer by the Rev. Dr. Lowndes, Priest-in-charge of the Mission of the Transfiguration, Freeport. Coe's Neck is a neglected community between Freeport and Baldwins.

II.—Missions Parochial have also increased and developed during the past year. The three missions of St. George's Parish, Flushing, keep pace in their growth and development with the other aggressive work of the Archdeaconry. St. Paul's Chapel, College Point, under the faithful ministrations of the Rev. F. W. Church as Priest-in-charge, deepens its material and spiritual life year by year. St. John's Chapel, Murray Hill, under the care of the Rector and his Curate, has been enlarged and beautified. An unknown friend has generously given land at the Town Farm whereon to erect a chapel for that mission. The mission at North Massapequa, under the admirable management of the Rector of Grace Church, Massapequa, continues to exert a far-reaching influence for good on the surrounding community. St. Mary's Chapel, Laurel Hill, receives the care and ministrations of the Rector of St. Saviour's Church, Maspeth. There were thirty-nine communicants at the early celebration of the Holy Communion on Easter Day in this chapel. Recently the interior of the chapel has been improved by new pews, a new ceiling and frescoing the walls. The exterior of the chapel is now being painted. The other missions parochial—St. Stephen's, Port Washington, and Grace Chapel, Springfield—are doing their work under their respective Rectors. A new mission, as yet unnamed, has been undertaken by the Rector of the Church of the Redeemer, Astoria, in a neglected part of his parish. He is assisted in the Sunday School and the services by the Curate and the members of the local chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. This new mission parochial suggests the inquiry, Are there not many other points within the boundaries of existing parishes where the Rectors might establish missions, and thus help on the work of Church Extension and greatly strengthen their own parish Churches?

The Second Day.

III.—The work of the Archdeaconry proper falls under two divisions:

- 1.—Church Extension.
- 2.—Rescue work as carried on in the public institutions of the two counties.

The Second Day.

Under the head of Church Extension the Archdeaconry has eight well-established missions :

St. Michael' and All Angels, Seaford.

All Saints', Morris Park.

Holy Trinity, Hicksville.

St. Matthew's, Brooklyn Manor.

St. Mark's, Steinway.

St. Paul's, Roosevelt.

Grace Chapel, Long Beach.

St. Matthias', Smithville South.

These missions are firmly and well established in their separate fields. We may confidently expect them to develop into self-supporting parishes along with the growth and development of this section of Long Island. The Archdeaconry at its last meeting gratefully acknowledged the gift of $1,500, which gift was accompanied with the promise of $500 more if needed, to build a Parish House for the Smithville South Mission. The Archdeacon, the general missionary among the colored people, and Mr. H. H. Cammann have been appointed a committee with power to build such a Parish House this spring. In the early summer it will be our pleasure to invite the Archdeaconry to attend the laying of the cornerstone, and very soon afterwards its dedication.

The work at Roosevelt was never in a better or more promising condition than at the present time, notwithstanding the adverse decision of the Supreme Court of Nassau County in reference to the title to the property. The sympathy and good will of the community is with us, as the large congregations at the services on Sunday evenings plainly show. I am of the decided opinion that the work there should go on, even though we eventually may have to relinquish the Church building. It will be encouraging to you to learn that there is a possibility of our coming to some kind of an agreement with our opposers whereby we may eventually obtain a clear title to the property. If we fail in this the present condition and prospects of the work there justify us building a chapel of our own. Already I have received several assurances of financial assistance, one subscription being $300, with the promise of more. A suitable building could be erected for $2,000. The most aggressive step taken by the Archdeaconry the past year was the determination to take up special work among the 7,000 colored people in these two counties, and for whom the Church was doing absolutely nothing. In response to our call, the Rev. Henry Stephen McDuffey, rector of St. Matthias' Church, Asheville, N. C., a well-tried and well-trained colored Priest of the Church, took up this special work on January 1. He has established regular services at Smithville South, Jamaica and Astoria. He has a class of colored people to present for confirmation when the Bishop visits Jamaica. On March 12, 1902, the Archdeacon, in accordance with the resolution of the Executive Committee, took title to the property corner of Grand Street and North First Street, Jamaica. The house on the property will serve as a desirable residence for the Rev. Mr. McDuffey and his family, while the land alongside will be sufficient to erect a Church thereon in the future for the colored people. With the continued and sustained support of the friends of this work among the colored people, we have reason to look for some fruit as the result of the work of our brother in this new and special field of Archdeaconry work. A mission at Creedmoor was undertaken a few months ago by Mr. William Braddon, of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and priestly and pastoral care is given it by the Rev. Mr. McMullin. It is thought in time that the effort now being made to establish the Church in Creedmoor will warrant the efforts now being made there. I believe the Laymen's League of St. Andrew's Brotherhood will assist Mr. Braddon in the work. We welcome the laymen of the Brotherhood as co-workers with us in the great and good work of home missions.

The second branch of the Archdeaconry work I designate as Rescue Work, because of its Christlike character. To me there is no work of the Church so sacred or Christly as that of comforting the poor, ministering to the unfortunate, saving the erring, and bringing back the sinner. This blessed work we are doing by our ministrations in the public institutions of the two counties of Queens and Nassau. There was a time, not far back, when we frightfully neglected these institutions. Here several hundred souls are gathered together. They were without any religious ministrations whatever. Now, through the co-operation of our co-operative body, the Parish Missionary Committees,

The Town Poorhouse, of Hempstead,

The Nassau Hospital, at Mineola,

The Queens County Jail, at Long Island City,

have the regular visits of the Bible Reader, who does much to make the unfortunates feel that they have not been forsaken by the love of God or deprived of the sweet ministrations of His Church. There was a time when they could not be sure of Christian burial. This they now have. For the past year the Rev. A. W. Snyder has been the missionary of the Archdeaconry to the Queens County Jail, and I believe that his ministrations there have been the means of rescuing some erring and wandering soul, turning it back to God and the paths of righteousness. It was once my pleasure to go with the Rev. Mr. Snyder on one occasion of his visit to this jail, and I never had a more attentive and interested congregation than the prisoners confined therein. Who can doubt but that some erring souls have been rescued "through the foolishness of preaching." It was our Lord who said: "I was sick, and ye visited me; I was in prison and ye came unto me. Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me." This blessed work this Archdeaconry should continue.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

HENRY B. BRYAN,

Archdeacon of Queens and Nassau.

THE ARCHDEACONRY OF SUFFOLK.

The mission stations are eight in number that receive apportionment from the Archdeaconry, and are located as follows :

Brentwood, Christ Church,	}	The Rev. John Manning.
Central Islip, Messiah, Ronkonkoma, St. Mary's,
Mattituck, Redeemer, Rev. G. W. West.
Port Jefferson, Christ, Rev. A. K. Fenton.
Centre Moriches, St. John's, Rev. H. W. R. Stafford.

The Archdeaconry did contribute to the Parish of Greenport, but a recent resolution of the Vestry directed the same discontinued.

Caroline Church, Setauket, by reason of the lack of occupation in the community, continues to receive aid.

Ronkonkoma has discontinued $25 of the apportionment, and hopes later to care for itself.

Shelter Island, St. Mary's Church, Rev. W. T. Watson, while under the Archdeacon, does not receive assistance from the Archdeaconry. Services are carried on in all the above places the year round, and are in no sense summer Churches.

The work generally has been so well carried on that to do justice to the congregations and clergy would necessitate a report in detail from each congregation. This will be found elsewhere in the Journal. But as there are needs that may be of interest to the reader, we will enumerate a few.

St. John's Church, Centre Moriches, has a heavy burden in the form of a mortgage and note amounting to $1,035 that should be canceled this coming Church year. In addition to the above, a Rectory, with sufficient room for a guild room, can be had for $3,000. This is needed, as there is a lack of places to hold parish meetings. Any one sufficiently interested can address Rev. H. W. R. Stafford.

This is a particularly useful field of labor, as Centre Moriches is an outpost on that side of the island.

The Second Day.

Christ Church congregation, at Port Jefferson, has hired a house for the Rector, and any contribution toward a Rectory fund can be sent to Rev. A. K. Fenton.

At a meeting of the Archdeaconry recently held at St. John-land, King's Park, the various reports of treasurers showed a balance in hand, and the pleasant fact that each congregation had contributed something to Diocesan Missions. A gentleman present at that meeting offered to give annually the sum of $250 if a like sum was raised for an endowment fund for work in Suffolk.

The Church Endowment Society has issued a policy (twenty years) upon the life of Archdeacon Holden, and the first year's premium has been paid—$395.80.

It is expected that services will be held part of this summer at Amagansett.

We beg to acknowledge our appreciation of the contributions made to our work by Quogue and South Hampton during the summer, and invite other summer churches so to do. As mis-sions are at best but weaker households, it should be our pleas-ure to strengthen them.

The coming year will find Suffolk Archdeaconry ready to decrease their demand upon the Missionary Committee of the Diocese, and yet lengthen her cords.

Respectfully submitted.

The Rev. ST. CLAIR HESTER offered the following resolution:

Resolved: That it is the sense of this Convention that the appropriations for Diocesan Missions be increased by at least $3,000 during the coming year.

The resolution was adopted.

The Rev. H. H. WASHBURN read the report of the Committee on Christian Education:

Report

THE COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION.

May 20, 1902.

The Standing Committee on Christian Education would respectfully present the following facts regarding the three schools conducted under the authority of the diocese:

St. Paul's School, Garden City, Frederick L. Gamage, L., Head Master, reports one hundred and fifty-five boys entering this year. Twenty-two at the completion of this school year will go up to college—eleven to Yale, three to Princeton, three to Trinity, two to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and one each to Columbia, Harvard and Cornell. Sixteen present themselves for preliminary examination intending to enter college in a year.

While the main reliance is on the scholastic work and the training of men, due attention is given to athletics. The Head Master believes that athletics serve to develop and hold a school together and to bring the institution before the public, and also that the sport is honest and of good report, even defeats its well-kept part. The school, in all manly exercises, has maintained its high grade. We hold the championship in the games of the Long Island League for the eighth year.

While there have been no gifts to the school equal to those offered in the erection of the new gymnasium, two years ago, proposed to improve on a large scale, St. Paul's athletic field, making it an ideal place, not alone for interscholastic, but for intercollegiate games, so lifting the school into genial prominence among the higher institutions of the country.

The Second Day.

Ten boys were confirmed on Whitsunday.

The Cathedral School of St. Mary, Garden City, Miss Annie F. Gibson, Principal, has also had a memorable year. The object of the school is the combination of religious with intellectual training, in the belief that the separation of the two defeats the great ends of education. It has been the endeavor to teach the responsibility of the educated woman to the Church, the home and the State.

The curriculum includes four grades each in primary, intermediate and academic departments and contemplates fitting girls for college or for special work in music and art. Throughout instructors of acknowledged excellence are employed. French and German are spoken at different tables in the dining room. The class singing, under Albert Ross Parsons, has been specially commended.

For various charitable objects the girls have contributed nearly two hundred dollars during the year. The ample, well-shaded grounds, with neighboring tennis court and golf links, afford every inducement to open-air exercise, and the health of the school has never been better.

With the completion at Easter of the new wing, the school possesses one of the most imposing and best equipped institutions for girls in the country. Ten years ago, members of this Convention will recall, the Chapter erected the West building. Recognizing the need of further accommodations the North wing was commenced about a year ago. At an expenditure of about seventy-five thousand dollars we now have a massive structure, the architectural design conforming to the English scholastic style adopted in the original building; the architects being Edward D. Harris and Charles Granville Jones, the former having designed both the original structure of St. Mary's and also the larger and earlier edifice of St. Paul's School.

Our new building is thoroughly warmed by steam heat and

The Second Day.

The principal rooms are ventilated by means of a plenum fan mechanical system supplying thirty cubic feet of fresh air per minute to each pupil. The plumbing is in conformity with the requirements of the Board of Health of New York City, having every sanitary adjustment. The staircases are all iron between brick walls, and are placed at such points to afford easy egress in case of fire or panic. The halls are direct, ample and well lighted. Cloak rooms for day pupils have individual compartments for clothing.

In the West building we have the reception rooms, gymnasium and apartments for the older girls arranged in suites of three rooms, each suite accommodating two girls and comprising two sleeping rooms and a parlor. In the new building will be added a large dining room facing the Cathedral precincts, a spacious assembly hall and admirably designed class rooms. On the upper floors are single dormitories for the younger girls. A small but very tasteful chapel has been completed and awaits finishing, the suggestion having been made that its fittings shall perpetuate the memory of the first Bishop of Long Island with whom the project of the building originated.

It only remains to be added that the year now closing has been the most prosperous in St. Mary's history, fifty boarding girls having been registered and forty-nine day pupils, leaving scarcely any vacancies even with the new addition.

Six girls were confirmed on Easter Day.

St. Catharine's Hall, a diocesan day and boarding school for girls, at 286-292 Washington Avenue, Brooklyn, Miss Emma O. Schroeder, Principal. Seventy persons have been enrolled, an increase of fifteen over 1901. The senior class numbers seven, five of whom will receive diplomas at the approaching commencement. Of these, one will enter Wellesley College in the fall.

Since the last report, a number of the rooms have been renovated and refurnished. The various buildings now bear the names Littlejohn Hall, Drake House, called after the donor, Morley House, after the Chaplain, Martha Washington House and Abury House.

The Second Day.

Much has been done to improve the social side of the school and the Alumnæ Association is in a flourishing condition. The charities of the students have amounted to about one hundred dollars. One of the pupils received Holy Baptism on Whitsunday.

St. Catharine's is making an effort to mark the first quarter century of its existence by the founding of a number of scholarships. Several have been already established, and those holding these privileges have during the past year made noble records in study.

Under the chaperonage of the Principal, a number of the graduating class and of the other pupils are proposing to make a European trip this summer.

In the last annual address of the late Bishop of Long Island, delivered before this Convention a year ago, two hundred pupils were claimed for the two schools at Garden City. During the year now closing, two hundred and fifty-four pupils have been registered. The total number under instruction in the three institutions a year ago was two hundred and fifty-nine. We have this year reached the unprecedented mark of three hundred and twenty-four.

Respectfully submitted,

S. S. ROCHE,

Chairman.

The Rev. Dr. ROGERS presented the following message from Secretary of the General Convention to the Diocese:

the Convention of the Diocese of Long Island:

In compliance with the requirements of Article XI of the Constitution, I would hereby make known that the following alterations of the Constitution of the Church are proposed: to those comprised in the resolutions printed herewith, said resolutions having been constitutionally adopted by a General Convention held in the city of San Francisco, in October, A.D. 1901.

CHARLES L. HUTCHINS,

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI of the Constitution, as follows:

The Second Day.

Amend Article I. Section 2, of the Constitution by striking out the word "and" at the end of the second line and inserting in place thereof the word "or," and also by striking out the words "arising therefrom" in the third line, so that the section shall read as follows:

SECTION 2. Every Bishop of this Church having jurisdiction, every Bishop Coadjutor, and every Bishop who by reason of advanced age or bodily infirmity has resigned his jurisdiction, shall have a seat and a vote in the House of Bishops. A majority of all Bishops entitled to vote, exclusive of Foreign Missionary Bishops and of Bishops who have resigned their jurisdictions, shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI of the Constitution, as follows:

Substitute for Article I. Section 3, of the Constitution, as finally agreed to and ratified at this Convention, the following:

SECTION 3. The House of Bishops, by vote of a majority of all the Bishops entitled to a seat in the said House, shall elect one of the Bishops having jurisdiction within the United States to be nominated for confirmation by the House of Deputies to be the Presiding Bishop of the Church. The Presiding Bishop shall hold office for three years. He shall discharge such duties as may be prescribed by the Constitution and the Canons of the General Convention. But if the Presiding Bishop shall resign his office as such, or if he shall resign his episcopal jurisdiction, or if in the judgment of the House he shall become disabled by reason of infirmity, or if for any other reason a vacancy in the office shall occur, the senior Bishop by consecration having jurisdiction within the United States shall thereupon become the Presiding Bishop until the House of Bishops shall elect an acting Presiding Bishop, who shall hold office until the next meeting of the General Convention, at which the Presiding Bishop shall be elected.

The Second Day.

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI of the Constitution, as follows:

That Article I of the Constitution be amended by adding thereto the following as Section 6, and changing the number of the present Section 6 to Section 7.

SECTION 6. One Clerical and one Lay Deputy chosen by each Missionary District of the Church within the boundaries of the United States shall have seats in the House of Deputies, subject to all the qualifications and with all the rights of Deputies except the right to vote when the vote shall be taken by orders.

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI of the Constitution, as follows:

Add to the first sentence of Article II, Section 1, after the words "Convention of the Diocese" the words:

Provided, however, that when a Diocese shall be formed out of a Missionary District, the Missionary Bishop in charge of said District shall become the Bishop of said Diocese, if he shall so elect.

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI of the Constitution, as follows:

Strike out Article 5 of the Constitution and insert the following as Article V of the Constitution, viz.:

ARTICLE VI.

SECTION 1. A new Diocese may be formed, with the consent of the General Convention and under such conditions as the General Convention shall prescribe by general Canon or Canons, (1) by the erection into a Diocese of the whole or of any part of one or more Missionary Districts; (2) by the division of an existing Diocese; (3) by the junction of two or more Dioceses or of parts of two or more Dioceses; or (4) by the junction of the whole or part of a Missionary District with a Diocese, or with any part of one or more Dioceses. The proceedings shall originate in a Convention of the Clergy and Laity of the Missionary District called by the Bishop for that purpose; or, with the approval of the Bishop, in the Convention of the Diocese to be divided; or when it is proposed to form a new Diocese by the junction of two or more Dioceses or of parts of two or more Dioceses) by mutual agreements of the Conventions of the Dioceses concerned, with the approval of the Bishop or the Ecclesiastical Authority of each Diocese. In case the Episcopate of a Diocese be vacant, no proceedings toward its division shall be taken until the vacancy be filled. During a vacancy in a Missionary District, the consent of a Presiding Bishop must be had before proceedings to erect it into a Diocese are taken. When it shall appear to the satisfaction of the General Convention, by a certified copy of the proceedings and other documents and papers laid before it, that all the conditions for the formation of the new Diocese have been complied with and that it has acceded to the Constitutions and Canons of the Church, such new Diocese shall thereupon be admitted to union with the General Convention.

SECTION 2. In case one Diocese shall be divided into two or more Dioceses, the Bishop of the Diocese divided may elect the one to which he will be attached, and he shall thereupon become the Bishop thereof; and the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, may elect the one to which he will be attached, and (if it be not the one elected by the Bishop) he shall be the Bishop thereof.

The Second Day.

SECTION 3. In case a Diocese shall be formed out of parts of two or more Dioceses, each of the Bishops and Bishops Co-adjutor of the several Dioceses out of which the new Diocese has been formed shall be entitled, in order of seniority of consecration, to the choice between his own Diocese and the new Diocese so formed. In case the new Diocese shall not be so chosen, it shall have the right to choose its own Bishop.

SECTION 4. Whenever a new Diocese is formed and erected out of an existing Diocese, it shall be subject to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese, out of which it was formed, except in local circumstances may prevent, until the same be altered in accordance with such Constitution and Canons by the Convention of the new Diocese. Whenever a Diocese is formed out of two or more existing Dioceses, it shall be subject to the Constitution and Canons of that one of the said existing Dioceses to which the greater number of clergymen shall have belonged prior to the erection of such new Diocese, except as local circumstances may prevent, until the same be altered in accordance with such Constitutions and Canons by the Convention of the new Diocese.

SECTION 5. A Diocese formed out of a Missionary District shall be subject to the Constitution and Canons to which such Missionary District was subject, until the same be altered in accordance with such Constitution and Canons by the Convention of the new Diocese.

SECTION 6. No new Diocese shall be formed which shall contain fewer than six Parishes, or fewer than six Presbyters who have been for at least one year canonically resident within the bounds of such new Diocese, regularly settled in a Parish or Congregation and qualified to vote for a Bishop. Nor shall such new Diocese be formed if thereby any existing Diocese shall be so reduced as to contain fewer than twelve Parishes and twelve Presbyters who have been residing therein and settled and qualified as above provided.

SECTION 7. The consent of the General Convention to the erection of a new Diocese shall not be given until it has satisfactory assurance of a suitable provision for the support of the episcopate.

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed addition be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI of the Constitution, as follows:

Add to Article X of the Constitution the following:

And provided, further, that nothing in this Article shall be construed as restricting the authority of the Bishops of this Church to take such order as may be permitted by the Rubrics of the Book of Common Prayer or by the Canons of the General Convention for the use of special forms of worship.

The Rev. Mr. WALLER moved that these resolutions of the General Convention be printed in the Journal.

The motion was carried.

The Rev. Dr. ROGERS moved that the minutes of the Special Convention held at Garden City, November 20 and 21, 1901, be printed in the next issue of the Journal.

The motion was carried.

The Rev. Dr. DARLINGTON read the report of the Committee on Clerical Support:

May 20, 1902.

The Committee on Clerical Support would most respectfully report that they have met during the Convention year, but have had no applications for assistance or relief during the twelve months last past.

Committee.

The Rev. Mr. WILEY read the report of the Sunday School Commission:

Report

OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMISSION.

The Sunday School Commission was appointed four years ago. At that time a resolution was adopted instructing the Commission to work toward securing a uniform course of instruction for our Sunday Schools. It is clear that a Church that provides one authorized Book for the worship of her congregations could also provide one authorized course of instruction for her children.

Acting on your instructions as expressed in the resolution passed at the beginning of our work, the Commission has ventured to suggest a course of study for our schools. In doing so we have kept these several things in mind.

1. That the aim of Sunday School instruction is to fit the child to take his place in the privileges, worship and work of the Church—to make him an intelligent, devout and zealous Churchman.

2. That the course of instruction must be strictly in harmony with the Church's duty to the child as expressed in the Book of Common Prayer.

3. That the lessons must lead by easy steps to a definite result.

4. That they must be workable with such lay assistance as found in the average congregation.

5. That they must be such that helps to their use and study can be easily and cheaply obtained.

The course outlined by the Commission, we believe, conforms to these tests. It consists of five grades:

1. The Lord's Prayer, the Creed and the Ten Commandments.

2. The Catechism.

3. The Church year.

4. The Book of Common Prayer.

5. The Collects, Epistles and Gospels.

The Second Day.

We named also certain books as aids to the teacher, and especially commended the "Trinity Course of Church Instruction," as covering the course of study recommended by the Commission.

Many schools are following the course, with the most gratifying results. The course has been adopted in about half our schools, and we are confident that its use will extend when its merits as a churchly and definite system of religious instruction are examined. Doubtless it will need to be modified and improved, but we believe that it is along some such lines as are here suggested that the Sunday School work of the future will move, if it is to do a definite and much needed work.

Through the kindness of the New York Bible and Communion Prayer Book Society, we have endeavored to place a copy of the Prayer Book in the hands of all Sunday School scholars old enough to use it. We distributed nearly 2,000 copies. We have held two Sunday School Conventions during the year: one in the Church of the Messiah, Brooklyn, and another in St. Mark's Church, Islip. In both Conventions we endeavored to give definite help to those who were using or who desired to introduce the Prayer Book course of instruction proposed by the Commission.

In accordance with a resolution passed at the Convention which met in the Church of the Messiah, a form of certificate has been designed, and will soon be issued, to be given to such children as pass satisfactory examinations in the several subjects of the course.

It is recommended to change the name of the above Commission so that it should henceforth be known as "The New York Commission."

The Second Day.

Dr. F. H. MILLER moved an amendment to this motion, inserting the word "Sunday" before "School," so that the name should read "The Church Sunday School Commission."

The amendment was carried.

The original motion as amended was then carried.

After an explanation, by Mr. A. A. Low, of the reasons leading the members of the Commission to desire to drop the word "Sunday" from the title of the Commission, the Rev. OSWALD KIMBER moved that the question be reconsidered.

The motion was carried.

Dr. F. H. MILLER then moved that the body now known as "The Sunday School Commission" be henceforth known as "The Church Sunday School Commission."

This motion being seconded, Mr. A. A. Low moved to amend the motion by striking out the word "Sunday."

Upon motion of the Rev. Dr. ROGERS, the question was laid on the table.

The Rev. Mr. WILEY offered the following resolution:

Resolved: That the name of the Treasurer of the General Emergency Relief Fund be printed on the last page of the Journal.

This resolution was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. PARKER offered the following resolution:

Resolved: That the Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Church Charity Foundation shall hereafter review the financial features of the Annual Report, and that the report of the Foundation as read at this Convention be corrected in accordance with the financial facts.

The resolution was adopted.

The Rev. Mr. MCGUFFEY moved that 1,500 copies of the Journal of this Convention be printed.

The motion was carried.

The Rev. Mr. MCGUFFEY offered the following resolution:

Resolved: That twelve hundred copies of the Bishop's Convention address be printed for Diocesan distribution.

The resolution was adopted.

The Rev. R. L. BRYDGES offered the following resolution:

Resolved: That it is the desire of this Convention that a memorial of our late Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Abram Newkirk Littlejohn, D.D., LL.D., should be erected in this Cathedral; and that the Standing Committee and the Cathedral Chapter be hereby requested to report upon the matter at the next Convention.

The resolution was adopted.

The Rev. Mr. WALLER offered the following resolution:

Resolved: That a committee of three be appointed to revise Canon 10, Article I (entitled "Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen"), in such a manner as to change what is now essentially a charity into an impartially administered pension fund; and that the said committee report to the next annual Convention.

The Rev. Dr. ROGERS moved to amend this resolution by substituting for the words "a committee of three be appointed" the words "the Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund be requested."

The Rev. Mr. WALLER accepting this amendment, the resolution was adopted.

Mr. S. R. HAXTUN offered the following resolution:

Resolved: That the question of printing in the Journal of the Convention the amendments to the Religious Incorporation Act relating to the mortgaging of Church property be referred to the Committee on Canons, with power.

The resolution was adopted.

The Rev. Mr. WALLER offered the following resolution:

APPENDIX A.

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS
OF
THE BISHOP OF LONG ISLAND.

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

The Convention year which has just closed has been an event-one in the history of the Diocese. On Saturday, August 3, Rt. Rev. Abram Newkirk Littlejohn, D.D., LL.D., died suddenly at Williamstown, Mass. His funeral took place in this Cathedral on Wednesday, August 7, and he was buried, according to his desire, in All Saints' Churchyard, Great Neck. The Stand-Committee appointed November 20 as the date of the Special Convention for the election of a Bishop, and early in the morning November 21 I was chosen to that office. The consent of the Clergy and Standing Committees having been obtained, I was consecrated on January 15, in Grace Church, Brooklyn Heights, by the Bishops of New York, Albany and Michigan. The Clergy and the Laity of the Special Convention were invited to be present and to share in that most beautiful and solemn service of the Prayer Book—the Office of Consecration. This service was accompanied by a simple but stately ritual, worthy of the lofty and commanding language with which the Church commissions her servants to be a shepherd, not a wolf, in her Master's Kingdom. With the music there will be blended in my memory the thoughts of those who, by their deeds and words, made the day one of thanksgiving and hope, and drove away the sadness which clings unsought around such an occasion. It is not possible for me to tell them here of my personal gratitude; but I think I may, as on behalf of the Diocese, express our appreciation of the good offices of the Committee of Arrangements, the Vestry of Grace Church, the Choir Master and Choir, who gave freely of their time and effort so that the service might be worthy of the occasion.

It is not my purpose to enter upon any formal eulogy of our first Bishop of the Diocese. At the Special Convention in November we listened to a worthy estimate of his character by his friend, the Bishop of New York, and any attempt on my part to supplement that sermon would be a work of supererogation.

I turn rather to the institutions which were founded by him, and ask you to consider with me their relation to the Diocese. First and foremost among these is the Cathedral of the Incarnation. Its history is interesting and instructive. Early in the seventies Mr. A. T. Stewart, the wealthy New York merchant, had purchased large tracts of land on Hempstead Plains. Just what was in his mind is not now known or ascertainable, as he died on April 10, 1876, before he had time to formulate his plans. It is probable that the purchase was not made simply as an investment. It is, at any rate, possible that he intended to found a great educational center for the American people, and to devote the bulk of his fortune (about $40,000,000) to this purpose. In the center of this educational settlement he proposed to have a mausoleum and what he would, no doubt, have called a non-sectarian Church. But his death took place suddenly, and he left to his wife the bulk of his fortune and the fulfilling of his plans. It accordingly became Mrs. Stewart's life work to carry out the designs of her husband, and to her was suggested the idea of incorporating a Church as the Cathedral of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Long Island. At the instance of Bishop Littlejohn, a Cathedral Chapter was incorporated under the laws of the State of New York, and on April 20, 1885, Mrs. Stewart deeded to this corporation the Cathedral, the See House and stable, and the school building known as St. Paul's Cathedral School. After specifying the boundaries of the land and the details of the gift, the deed goes on to say that the lands and premises, with the buildings and improvements thereon, are conveyed to the Chapter for the "uses and purposes of a Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Long Island, to be maintained, managed and used as the Cathedral Church of said Diocese in accordance with the doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. The school building to be used for school purposes and as a school attached to such Cathedral. The See House to be used as the residence of the Bishop of said Diocese, and not otherwise, and the lands and premises to be forever held, occupied and enjoyed by the party of the second part; but without power, right, or authority to grant, convey, lease or mortgage the same in any way or manner whatsoever." The indenture goes on to say that it is "expressly covenanted by the party of the second part that said Cathedral Church, See House and school building shall be kept and maintained in their present form without material alteration, and that the memorial and other tablets shall be kept in their present position and in proper order, that the octagonal mausoleum or crypt room under the chancel shall be preserved with its contents in its present form, with free access to and control thereof by the party of the first part and her representatives, and also that any reparation made to the said buildings, or either of them, shall be to restore and maintain them, and each of them, in their present form and condition."

The Cathedral was consecrated on June 2, 1885, but Mrs. Stewart died before she could complete her plans of endowment. Now these plans were finally carried out by her executors, and in the history of those few years, it is needless to relate at the present time. The exact figures will be given by the Treasurer of the Chapter in his report. Suffice it to say that the Diocese finds itself now in possession of buildings representing at least $2,000,000 expenditure, of endowments a little over a million, and of lands which, as an investment, are of no value, inasmuch as they can be used only for purposes connected with the work of the Chapter and not for revenue. The consequence is that, while the Cathedral corporation can be taxed fully for all improvements as they go on in Garden City, yet unlike that of other taxpayers, their land does not appreciate in value. The financial outlook for the Cathedral is one, perhaps not of alarm, but certainly of anxiety. Stretching out as Greater New York is every year, it will very probably, within twenty years, seize upon Garden City as one of the most desirable sites for growth. Schools, streets, lights, sewers, and all the so-called city improvements will come into the neighborhood, and our income will accordingly be strained to meet the taxation. Meanwhile our expensive buildings will need constant care; already our Cathedral should have many thousands spent upon it, and the time has not yet come when a congregation can be developed in Garden City, taking pride in the structure, and of sufficient strength to contribute largely to its maintenance. I mention these things, not because I am a Cassandra, but because I see the rocks ahead; I hear the waves beating over them, and, if my Episcopate should last twenty years, I am certain at the end of that time the fate of this great work here in Garden City will be decided for good or for evil.

Nor can the Convention stand back and say that it is not interested, that the Cathedral must take care of itself. On the contrary, the Diocese has committed itself irrevocably to the Garden City idea. In the Convention of 1878, when Mrs. Stewart's letter offering the buildings was presented, the following minute was entered in the report: "After mature deliberation upon the whole subject involved in these important communications, and especially two points—I. Whether it is desirable to inaugurate the Cathedral system in the Diocese; and II. Whether Garden City is a desirable locality for a future Cathedral center—it was Resolved: That this committee advise the Bishop to comply with the request of Mrs. Cornelia M. Stewart, communicated to us at this time, to perform the ceremony of laying the cornerstone of the Cathedral of the Incarnation at Garden City."

And later, at the Special Convention held April 16, 1885, the Rev. Dr. Hall read a report, in which this preamble and these resolutions were incorporated:

And WHEREAS, The said donor has required the assent of this Convention to the following conditions previous to the making of said conveyance, namely:

1. That the Diocesan Convention of this Diocese shall adopt the said Church as the Cathedral Church of this Diocese.
2. That the said Convention shall adopt the See House, aforesaid, as the official residence of the Bishop of said Diocese.
3. That said Convention shall adopt the school aforesaid as the Diocesan or Cathedral School of said Diocese.
4. That the said Diocese shall engage to forever maintain the buildings, with the appurtenances thereof, respectively, as a Cathedral Church, a See House, or residence of the Bishop, and a Cathedral School.

Therefore, this Convention, gratefully acknowledging the pious munificence of the said donor, does hereby in behalf of said Diocese of Long Island, resolve as follows, namely:

1. That this Convention hereby requests that the conveyance aforesaid be made to the corporation of "The Cathedral of the Incarnation of the Diocese of Long Island," a body politic and corporate, created by an act of the Legislature of the State of New York, passed May 10, 1877.

2. That each and every one of the conditions hereinbefore expressed be, and the same are, hereby assented to and confirmed, and this Convention does hereby, in the like behalf, engage that upon the taking effect of said conveyance, the said conditions, and each and every part thereof, shall be fully and faithfully kept, observed and performed, forever, to the extent of the power and authority for that purpose now or hereafter vested in this Convention, or its successor or successors, or in the said Diocese, or in any representative of said Diocese; and that, for that purpose, all the means which may from time to time be in any way provided for the accomplishment of the beneficent objects of the said donor shall be faithfully applied to the uses and purposes expressed in said conditions, and in her conveyance aforesaid.

Resolved: That the Secretary of the Convention transmit a copy of these resolutions, duly authenticated, to the Hon. Henry Hilton, as the representative of Mrs. Cornelia M. Stewart.

BROOKLYN, April 16, 1885.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Hall, the report and resolutions contained therein were unanimously adopted.

The Bishop then addressed the Convention upon the importance of the action then taken upon the future history of the Diocese, and congratulated the members upon the entire unanimity of their proceedings."

It is plain, therefore, that the question of adopting the Cathedral system is not an open one in this Diocese. It has long ago been decided for us by our predecessors, and we have to congratulate ourselves on the fact that in the main it has been wisely decided. The gigantic medieval Cathedral, with its Lady Chapel and its other chapels, and with its costly and elaborate surroundings, is out of place in our American cities. It grew up naturally enough in countries where monks were the rich gentlemen and where the state assumed much of the expense and responsibility, but here, in our country and in our modern cities, where parish churches have been multiplied, such a structure would do harm. Beautiful as, for instance, Canterbury Cathedral or York Minster is, I should not care to see either of them magically transplanted and placed in the heart of Brooklyn. They would be out of place in our American surroundings. But a Cathedral in the sense of a Bishop's Church is fully in harmony with our system. It is right that the Bishop should have such a Church, where he can feel at home, where he can pronounce certain official decisions and judgments, and whither he can flee for spiritual refreshment when wearied by the complexity of the ritual which confronts him in some of his wanderings. Such a Church we have here, a building which, as a piece of architecture, has many points in its favor, a Church whose services are uplifting and strengthening, and whose influence in the Diocese need be only beneficent. I can only say that it is my hope that the Cathedral of the Incarnation may be fully recognized to be, as it actually is, the Cathedral of the Diocese; and, as a step in this direction, the Chapter has decided to give to the Convention each year a full statement of its finances, so that the Convention may have that knowledge to which it is entitled.

But while it is both necessary and desirable that the Bishop's official residence should be in Garden City, yet there is need also of a Bishop's office in Brooklyn. Fully half the parishes of the Diocese are situated in Greater New York, on this side of the East River, the Clergy and the Laity continuously ask for interviews in the city, and the Bishop needs some suitable place where he can meet the numerous demands upon his time. The former Episcopal residence, at 170 Remsen Street, now in the hands of the Episcopal Fund, is excellently situated for such an office. It is, however, altogether too large for this purpose alone, and it has accordingly been proposed to use it for Diocesan purposes in general, the second floor being reserved for the exclusive use of the Bishop. Here we can have a Diocesan library room, a suitable gathering place for the Clergy and for the Woman's Auxiliary, and, above all, a meeting place for Laymen. It is also proposed to ask the Convention to change the title of the house, and put it into the hands of a society to be known as the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Long Island. An Act has already been passed by the Legislature and signed by the Governor incorporating such a society; and, if this action is ratified by you, a great step towards Diocesan unity will have been taken. What Brooklyn itself lacks to make it altogether the finest and most desirable place of residence in Greater New York is unity of purpose and interest on the part of its citizens, and I cannot help hoping that our Diocese itself may by just such an example help forward the cause of civic unity.

Another Diocesan institution I wish to speak of is the Church Charity Foundation. In looking over Bishop Littlejohn's earlier addresses, one sees how important a part the Foundation played in his life and in the life of the Diocese. It, too, has gone through an important year in its history. Four years ago the future of the Foundation looked very dark. The buildings were found to be sadly out of repair; for years little or nothing had been done, and now, when the work of renovation was begun, it was found impossible for the Committee to stop until a debt of $40,000 was incurred. That this debt was injudiciously incurred every one is willing to grant; but that the repairs and changes were needed and wisely done will also be granted by all. The Board of Managers, however, found itself obliged to put a second mortgage of $40,000 upon its property. Immediately the receipts and contributions began to fall off. With that instinctive feeling characteristic of the public, men turned away from helping an institution which was, as they felt, mismanaged. Offerings decreased steadily, and the following year another $15,000, springing entirely from arrears, was added to the debt. In May, 1900, the Board found that receipts were still falling off, and that another deficit of $10,000 must be faced in December, if something was not done to check the downward tendency. Appeal after appeal had been made to the public, but in vain. The public naturally lacked confidence. At that time a motion was introduced into the Board asking for a Committee of three to be appointed, with full power of retrenchment. This Committee felt like the surgeons in the hospital when they have an amputation to perform. The work was accomplished, and the following December, if there was any deficit at all, it was a small one. From that time on the public confidence has been returning. Through the lady associates and others, a Midwinter Fête was carried through last January, and cleared, in round numbers, the large sum of $30,000. It was the desire of the promoter of this scheme to have every parish in Long Island represented at the fête, and that idea was almost fully reached. With this large reduction to its debt, with a reorganized and united Board, with the public interested and aroused, certainly a brighter future awaits the Church Charity Foundation. The Board of Managers is, however, fully alive to the fact that it must show each year a true and encouraging financial statement, and that the most pathetic or poetic appeals will be of no avail, if year after year there is a steady increase in deficit and continuous encroachment upon the endowment funds. This year on account of the large donations to the debt, our receipts for current expenses have naturally fallen off, and we must appeal once more to the generosity of the parishes of the Diocese and the friends of the Foundation to help us, so that our statement on December 31, 1902, may compare favorably with that of the last two years. After this year I hope that the public will help us to enlarge our work, to care for more and more of God's poor; but, if my influence counts at all on the Board, we shall not again try to do a greater work than our income will legitimately warrant.

The same principle must apply to Diocesan Missions. Few subjects are of greater importance to the Diocese. If mission work is not actively pursued, then we may well take alarm. But I do not believe in stimulating the body of the Diocese by large injections of mortgages and debts. The growth must be natural, steady and strong. The methods of raising money must be legitimate, and the chance must be given for spontaneous offerings on the part of the Laity. On the whole, the year has been one of advance, as we shall see by the reports of the Archdeacons. But in one or two parts of the field pruning has taken place, with a view to a subsequent stronger growth of the Church's vines. Two things, however, will be necessary before this Diocese can do its proper work. One is the lifting of the mortgages and debts which hang around the neck of many of the finest of our Brooklyn parishes, and the other is the extension of that true Catholic spirit which leads one to give to the body corporate without expecting from all the members a uniform ritual. The possession of large wealth, either by parishes or individuals, makes them, no doubt, responsible for their gifts, but it does not give either to individuals or Churches the right to usurp the authority which has been placed in the officers of the Diocese. For this reason it is not wise for the Diocese to assume such heavy obligations as to expose itself to either the captiousness or tyranny of wealth. Whenever the Diocesan gives his word or publicly favors such and such a movement, he ought to feel morally certain that the Clergy and Laity will unanimously support him. Let us hope that this spirit will prevail, and that each year may see an extension of Church work on this Island commensurate with the faith and ability of the Diocese. The field lies before us. It is white for the harvest. But at present the laborers are few.

The Cathedral has, ever since its incorporation, carried out its missionary obligations to the Diocese; not only has it given the services of the Canon Missioner, who now holds the position of Archdeacon of Queens and Nassau as well, but it has also established missions, which number eleven at the present time. Some of these will, I trust, be self-supporting. It is my intention, with the concurrence of the Chapter, to establish no more Cathedral Missions, but to give the money rather to further the missionary work throughout the whole Diocese. Of course, our obligations to the present Cathedral Missions, must be kept, and this change therefore must be gradual. The necessity of a fund for the purchase of suitable sites for Churches and chapels, before the prices rise to exorbitant sums, has long been before my mind. Many thousands of dollars could have been saved for the missionary work of the Diocese if such a fund had existed during the past four years. It has seemed to me that what the Cathedral can give might eventually be made into such a fund, and in this way we could have here in our own Diocese a lever which would raise and strengthen many a now weak portion of our Diocesan structure. It may be that in a year or two I shall ask for some Committee of the Convention to co-operate with the Chapter in the furtherance of such a scheme.

If I have devoted myself in this first Convention address to practical matters, it is not because I undervalue the great truths which make the Church life worth living, but because I have found myself for the past three months confronted with concrete problems.

I wish I had time to speak of other institutions, of the great work of the Women's Auxiliary in this Diocese, of the Sheltering Arms Nursery, of the House of St. Giles the Cripple, and of St. Phebe's Mission; but I must not prolong this address when important measures are awaiting our attention. A detailed report of my official acts will be printed in the Journal. During these three months I have made sixty-nine visitations and confirmed over 1,600 persons. I do not expect ever again to crowd so much of this kind of work into so short a time. The consideration and courtesy of the Clergy and Laity have served to lighten the burden of visitation. In one sense it is true I ask for no man's allegiance, and yet, in another sense, the Bishop's life would be lonely without the cordial friendship of his people. I have been surprised, if I may be permitted a personal allusion, at the extent of authority conferred upon the Bishop. He has the tremendous power of veto, and while, perhaps, he may not have as strong an initiative influence as he could wish, yet his word at certain critical periods must be final in the action of a parish or the Diocese. Whether men give their allegiance to me or not is, comparatively speaking, of small consequence, but it is of supreme moment to that I never use my authority save in the cause of justice and truth. I pray God that the Clergy of this Diocese may find in me one who will stand by them officially when their reputation is endangered or their position imperiled, and that the Laity will grow to respect me as one whom they can count on in every honorable and judicious action. As I have gone around in the Diocese I have been impressed as never before by the faithful, able and self-sacrificing work which the Clergy, as a whole, are carrying on in "Dominion in the Sea." May it be mine to command the ship by storm or sunshine, not with any attempted tyranny, but in the Master's spirit of sincerity and truth.

During the past year the mortgage has been reduced by the sum of $1,000, and we are almost ready to make another payment of the same amount. The total indebtedness seven years ago was some $52,000. After next payment it will stand at $46,500. The interest has been reduced from 6 to 4 per cent. During those years about $5,000 has been spent in Church furnishing, etc. The Church is now completely equipped.

Nearly $8,000 has been raised on the mortgage debt. It is hoped to pay the latter off by January 1, 1903.

It is a fact (1) that the Church of the Epiphany was purchased, with the mortgage debt on it, by Diocesan authority, and has therefore the right of Diocesan and General Appeal; (2) that it has paid about $25,000 in interest, and over $6,000 in improvements, and within the thirty months of the present administration has received in subscriptions, $7,106 70, and has paid in interest and on principal besides this, $6,611; that the past year from all sources it raised $13,747 23; that it has 715 Communicants and has gained 40 Communicants the past year and 265 Communicants the preceding year; (3) that the value of Church property is $100,000 and cost more than that sum to build it; (4) that by its large institutional work, its uplift on the neighborhood, its growth and influence, and large membership, it not only justifies fully its existence in its present location, but the general appeal to all churchmen to assist it in lifting its debt, especially as that debt was not put upon it by its own people, but by the Diocesan authorities.

The work of the Church has been hindered greatly during the past year through the inability of the Rector to attend to his regular duties for over seven months; he having sustained an injury through the falling of a scaffold in the Church. The Rector wishes, however, to thank his Assistant, the Rev. Mr. Fitch, for the able way in which he administered the affairs of the Church under most trying circumstances.

We purchased for a very low figure a small Pipe Organ.

We have a Vested Choir of 26 voices. The Vestments were presented by the Women's Guild.

During the year the Parish House has been built. The whole building is heated with steam and lighted with electricity.

We have a class of 30 Candidates for Confirmation awaiting the visitation of the Bishop.

During the year we have received the following Memorials: A Rector's Box, 2 Oak Hymn Boards, Brass Receiving Basin, 2 Oak Collection Plates, 2 Brass Vases, 2 Imported Glass Cruets, Solid Silver Chalice, Brass Lectern, Brass Processional Cross, Oak Prayer Desk. A fine Bell has been ordered for us, which will be used for the first time on St. Alban's day, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Smith in memory of their son, Arthur.

In addition to the above, the following articles have been presented: A large Clock, Brass Pulpit Light, White Silk Altar Hangings, White Dossal, Brass Communion Rail, Desk for the Sunday School and one dozen Hymnals.

Of the above balance, $434 20 was raised towards the liquidation of the mortgage debt, but is retained in bank till it shall be increased to the sum of $1,000 00, when it will be applied on the mortgage.

The sum of $135 75, which is not included in the above financial exhibit was raised by St. Andrew's Church at the Fête for the Church Charity Foundation. This includes the proceeds of the Alaska Boot together with the amount realized from the sale of tickets, badges and calendars in St. Andrew's Parish.

The Girls' Friendly Society donated to St. Phebe's Mission a goodly amount of clothing for poor children.

The Junior Branch of the G. F. S. made and presented a box of clothing to the Charity Foundation for the Children's Home.

The corner lot adjoining the Church, and which is the property of the Parish, has just been graded and seeded and a substantial fence has been built around the lot. A concrete sidewalk has also been laid around the lot. These improvements have added very materially to the appearance of the Church grounds.

The St. Ann's League has for "its object to secure from each parishoner at least one cent per week toward the Endowment Fund of the Parish."

It has on its Board of Workers a representative (or collector) for each branch of the Church work. The League desires to include in its membership all the parishioners.

Besides the $585 75 annual collection for the Church Charity Foundation (see "Diocesan Objects" in "Expenditures" column), contributions from St. Ann's Church, through the "Mid-winter Fête," amounted to $1,719 93. In addition to this sum, there was a check for $250 00 for the Church Charity Foundation debt.

The Parish has lately secured a resident Rector, who entered upon his charge on Palm Sunday. Prospects for the Parish are encouraging. Efforts are being made to increase the Rectory Fund. The Easter Offering of $120 02 was added to that Fund. With a Rectory it would be much easier to carry on the work of the Parish. The Parish is an old one, one of the oldest in Brooklyn, but it has always been financially weak owing to the fact that its membership is more or less unstable, consisting partly of officers' families of the Army who come and go; but the influence the Church exerts is all the greater for this very state of things and makes it one of the most important in the Diocese. It is, in fact, in some respects a National Parish and exerts a National influence, as has been demonstrated.

The Vestry, cooperating with a Committee from the Southern Archdeaconry of Brooklyn, are taking steps to secure a new site for the future St. John's Church building. This, it is hoped, will provide for the spiritual wants of a rapidly growing section which cannot be efficiently reached while the buildings remain in their present obscure and disadvantageous location.

The Parish House, on the new site of the Church of St. Mark, was completed in September, 1901, and the opening services were held in the Chapel in the building on September 8th. In spite of the comparative isolation of the Parish House the services there have been well attended and the future prosperity of the Parish seems assured.

No settlement has been effected with the city as yet in the matter of the old church property on Bedford Avenue, and it has seemed best to the Rector to omit statement of assets and liabilities from the report until it can be made a proper and correct one.

The Parish has received a number of new members and workers though it has lost some old ones. The progress is evident from increased attendance, especially on the Sunday evening service. A Vested Choir has been organized, the first in the history of the Church; $500 00 has been removed from the debt on the Church Building and the large Organ, costing $850 00, has been cleared all but $220 00. The last two years has given proof of the advantage of a resident Clergyman. Our Rector, by his personal efforts, has now made it possible to build the much needed Parish House. It is now being built rapidly and will cost $3,700 00. We need about $1,200 00 of this sum to finish. The money is raised mainly by personal solicitation of the Rector. The Parish Hall is a necessity and will add greatly to the success of the Church's work.

During the past year, through the kindness of two friends, the Rectory has been thoroughly renovated inside. The outside of the Rectory is sadly in need of repairs. The Church building, which was in very bad condition, is now being repaired, and it will take from five to six weeks before same is completed. In the meantime services are being held in the Sunday School room.

An organization known as St. Michael's Cadets has been organized during the past year, which now has a membership of nearly 30.

The work at St. Michael's is most encouraging, and a bright future is before us. The work has grown steadily during the past year.

The Rev. Dr. McConnell contributed generously to this work the past year, assuring the completion of necessary repairs. The Rev. Dr. Townsend has gratuitously officiated at the Chapel, thus providing a Celebration of the Holy Communion each month. Other services and the routine work of the Chapel have been carefully cared for by Mr. J. Alva Christianson, Lay Reader, who has given his services to this work without remuneration. The work continues to improve, and exhibits evidence of gaining influence among the people of this vicinity. The Chapel owes much to the kindly interest of Miss Mary Benson.

The Parish register and lists of families, communicants and baptized persons have been thoroughly revised. The number of persons connected with the parish dependent upon the ministrations of the Clergy of St. Thomas' increases rapidly every year. The Parish House, to be built the present summer, to cost $30,000, will meet the wants of the Sunday School. The much needed new Church will follow as soon as required funds are secured. It is expected that the two gifts of $10,000 each for the Parish House will be supplemented by equally generous donations for the new Church from other friends and by the cordial cooperation of the members of the parish.

Although the Parish has suffered unusual losses through deaths and removals, it has this year ministered to a larger number of people than ever before, and, in spite of inadequate accommodations, the services have been well attended. The fund for rebuilding the Church has nearly reached completion, and it is expected that ground will be broken this summer, and that the work of construction will be begun. The present Rector will resign his charge July 1st, after fifteen years' Rectorship of a faithful and united Parish.

This income exhibit does not include receipts by various Guilds except so far as they contributed to Rent Fund or Rectory Building Fund.

The organizations of the Chapel are: The Ladies' Aid Society; The Daughters of the King; The Junior Daughters; The Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew; The S. P. Literary and Social Guild; and The S. P. Athletic Club. Several members from each of these organizations form the mixed Chorus, consisting of 20 voices. A Boys' and a Girls' Club are maintained by the Junior Societies.

The age of the building necessitates constant repairs. The exterior has been painted and interior repaired and improved.

The Rectory Building Fund has been increased 80 per cent. during the past three months, amounting now to nearly $1,500.

The sum for next to the Church was paid for last year, and we have $21 25 on hand towards the payment of the Rectory lot.

A School for Choir Boys was instituted on June 5, 1901.

A Sunday School Mission was started in the early summer of 1901 at Jones Neck and while it was well attended at the beginning, it had to be discontinued owing to the difficulty of getting teachers. This difficulty was great this year, and it would not be wise to reopen this Sunday School Mission unless the permanent services of at least two teachers can be secured. The Archbishop made a grant of $100 towards the Mission.

The Church has been greatly improved since last year by the introduction of gas in place of the lamps formerly used.

A very handsome set of Memorial Service Books (Altar Service Book, and Hymnal), have been presented by Mrs. John G. Adams, also a very handsome Memorial Litany Book by Mrs. M. T. Clark.

The present incumbent having been in charge only since September 1901, the report for the time previous is not complete.

A fund has been started for the purpose of erecting a Parish Hall, and amounts at the present time to a little over $400.

This Mission is a summer Chapel for the cottagers and guests of the Long Beach Hotel. It has been undertaken by the Archdeaconry of Queens and Nassau, looking to the near future, when it is said Long Beach will be developed and become an important "city by the sea." At present it is tentative, holding the ground for the future permanent establishing of the Church. Ground has been promised us by the Long Beach Association

The exodus which has been going on for several years is complete. The Parish is now being inundated with a population of a heterogenous character.

A friend in London, England, sent a cheque for £20. The Rev. Samuel D. McConnell, D.D., D.C.L., also presented $150 00. These two sums enabled the Vestry to paint the Church and surround it with a substantial fence, for which they are extremely grateful.

St. Peter's Day, 1901, the late Bishop of the Diocese consecrated rch. A mortgage of $5,000 had rested upon the Parish for a num-years. During the past seven years this had been gradually re-until, in the late summer of 1900, measures were taken to pay the remaining debt, which was done by December, 1900.

In addition to the mortgage on the Church Building for $700, there is a note held by Dr. W. Carr ($335 00) for money advanced for interior furnishing when the Mission was started in 1899. There are no other debts, all current bills are paid in full to end of the financial year, and a balance of $130 60 has been carried over to the new year. Seven additional stained glass windows have been added to the Church and the remaining four to complete the set are ordered and will soon be placed in the Church.

APPENDIX D.

CLERICAL REPORTS.

The Rev. WILLIAM HYDE respectfully reports:

That the greater part of the year he has been in charge of St. John's, Fort Hamilton.

The Rev. HENRY B. CORNWELL, D.D., Rector-Emeritus of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Brooklyn, N. Y., respectfully reports:

That during the past year he has, on several occasions, taken part in the services and preached in the above-named Church; and that he has, in like manner—as his health and strength permitted—assisted his brethren in the churches at Newburgh and in neighboring towns.

May 20, 1902.

The Rev. ROBERT WEEKS, Riverhead, L. I., respectfully reports:

That during the past year he has celebrated the Holy Communion thirty-two times (two being in the Visitation of the Sick); officiated and preached at forty-nine other services; read service of the Burial of the Dead at four funerals; solemnized marriages, and baptized two children. These services have been rendered at various times in Yaphank, Catskill, Hudson, Canac Lake and Riverhead, N. Y.

The Rev. JOSHUA KIMBER respectfully reports:

That during the Conventional year he has continued duties as Associate Secretary of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, besides which he has officiated in these Diocese and Missionary Districts: East Carolina, California, Sacramento, New Mexico, Newark, New York and Long Island.

His official acts have been as follows:

Said Morning Prayer eighteen times and assisted eleven times; said Evening Prayer nine times and assisted twenty times; said the Litany thirteen times; celebrated the Holy Communion thirty-three times, assisted five times, and said portions of Office sixteen times; solemnized one burial and assisted at ten other funerals; delivered forty-two sermons and addresses.

Mr. Kimber has moreover been present at a number of occasional services—including the opening and closing services and the Missionary meetings at the time and place of the General Convention, the consecration of two Bishops, the consecration of Grace Church Chancel, Jamaica, and the tower of the Church of the Holy Apostles, Philadelphia.

May 19, 1902.

APPENDIX E.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY.

DIOCESE OF LONG ISLAND.

The Long Island Diocesan Organization of the Girls' Friendly Society was formed under the sanction of the Bishop of the Diocese, April 22, 1887.

OBJECTS.

1. To bind together in one Society, Churchwomen as Associates, and girls and young women as Members, for mutual help—religious and secular—for sympathy and prayer.
2. To encourage purity of life, dutifulness to parents, faithfulness to employers, and thrift.
3. To provide the privileges of the Society for its Members, wherever they may be, by giving them an introduction from one Branch to another.

The Parochial Branches are as follows: Brooklyn, St. Ann's, St. Mary's, St. Paul's, Grace, St. Michael's, E. D., St. Andrew's, Holy Trinity, Christ Chapel, St. Michael's, High Street; St. Luke's Mission Chapel; Church of the Redeemer; St. Clement's; Flatbush, St. Paul's; Astoria, Church of the Redeemer, St. George's Church; Flushing, St. George's; Patchogue, St. Paul's.

Branches.	17
Working Associates.	78
Honorary Associates.	75
Members.	421
Probationers.	155
Candidates.	161

President of the Diocesan Council—Mrs. A. H. FORD, 61 Second Place.

Secretary and Treasurer—Miss JANE A. S. SCHAPPS, 148 Clifton Place.

Associate for Commended Members—Mrs. JONATHAN WRIGHT, 73 Remsen Street.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

The Long Island Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions was formed by the Bishop of the Diocese in 1872. It has 281 Delegates, representing 85 parishes, and 7 Honorary Members. Its purposes are:

1. To increase the number of women and children interested in Missions.
2. To form Branches of the Woman's Auxiliary in every Parish and Mission.
3. To cultivate the habit of daily prayer for Missions, by placing in the hands of every member a copy of the Missionary Prayers, and to increase the spirit of devotion and intercession, by means of corporate Communion, Special Services, Quiet Days, etc.
4. To increase the knowledge of Missions by gaining new subscribers to the Spirit of Missions and the Young Christian Soldier by forming Study Classes and Missionary Reading Circles among both the women and young people; by arranging for Missionary meetings and exhibits.
5. To increase gifts for Missions, by so impressing the need upon the minds of the people of the Diocese as to incite them to give; by placing large undertakings before the Branches and members, especially:
 - a. That the Auxiliary is to aid the Board of Missions in meeting its appropriations to the Mission fields.
 - b. That it give each third year a united offering, in thankfulness for all the blessings of its work, the object of this offering being decided upon by the Auxiliary at its triennial meeting.
 - c. And lastly, that the Auxiliary shall endeavor in all these ways to cultivate such a spirit in its members, that an increasing number of young women shall offer themselves for personal service in the Mission field.

The Long Island Branch carries on its work through five Departments, i. e., Foreign, Domestic, Indian, Freedmen and Diocesan. Its meetings are held in Brooklyn on the second Thursday of each month, from October until May.

President—Mrs. SAMUEL COX, The Deanery, Garden City, L. I.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. J. ELIOTT LANGSTAFF, 19 Seventh Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. ROBERTS S. FANNING, 140 Franklin Avenue, Astoria, L. I.

Treasurer—Miss MARY HUNTER, The Margaret, Columbia Heights, Brooklyn, N. Y.

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW

LONG ISLAND DIOCESE.

The Long Island Assembly of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew is composed of 23 Chapters, having an aggregate membership of about 240. These Chapters form the Local Assembly, which meets monthly from October to July in various parishes for conference, instruction and corporate worship. Once a year, on Passion Sunday, the Assembly gathers at a corporate Celebration of the Holy Communion.

The sole object of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew is the spread of Christ's Kingdom among men, through daily prayer for that object and the making of an earnest effort each week to bring at least one man within the hearing of the Gospel of Jesus Christ as set forth in the services of the Church and men's Bible classes.

Active Chapters of the Brotherhood exist in the following parishes: St. Ann's; Incarnation; Epiphany; St. Thomas; Grace-on-the-Heights; Christ Church, Clinton Street; Stephen's; St. Mark's, Adelphi Street; St. Timothy's; Christ Church, Bedford Avenue; Holy Comforter; St. James'; Paul's; St. Luke's, Brooklyn; Epiphany, Ozone Park; Trinity, Roslyn; Redeemer, Astoria; Resurrection, Richmond Hill; St. Gabriel's, Hollis; Trinity, Northport; St. Joseph's, Queens; St. Mark's, Islip, and Grace, Whitestone.

The officers of the Assembly are:

President—WILLIAM BRADDON, St. Joseph's, Queens, William Street, New York.

Vice-President—HERBERT B. DELAPIERRE, St. Luke's,
First Street, Brooklyn.

Secretary—FRANK F. WOOD, St. Thomas', 588 Decatur Street; Brooklyn.

Treasurer—WILLIAM HARISON, Redeemer, Astoria, 62 William Street, New ork.

Chaplain—Rev. JAMES H. DARLINGTON, D.D., Christ Church, 481 Bedford Avenue, Brooklyn.

Executive Committee—The OFFICERS and: L. V. SANFORD, Christ Church; WILLIAM B. DALL, Grace; WILLIAM MACBETH, Incarnation; A. C. INNISS, Resurrection, Richmond Hill; DAVID W. KETCHAM, St. Gabriel's, Hollis; H. ST. JOHN HARVEY, St. Ann's; A. E. MEEKER, St. Thomas'; ALBERT W. LINDSAY, Incarnation.

DAUGHTERS OF THE KING.

The Long Island Local Assembly of the Daughters of the King was organized June 5, 1895, with the sanction of the Bishop of the Diocese.

The sole object of the order is the spread of Christ's Kingdom among women, and the strengthening of parish life.

Every woman who becomes a member is pledged to the observance of Prayer, the Rule of Service, and loyalty to the Rector of her parish.

At present there are twenty-one Chapters enrolled, with a membership of about three hundred, including full members and those on probation. They are distributed among the following parishes, viz.: Brooklyn, St. Luke's, St. Ann's, St. Thomas, St. Clement's, St. Barnabas, Christ Church, Transfiguration, Comforter, St. George's; Flatbush, St. Paul's; Long Island City, St. John's; College Point, St. Paul's; Ozone Park, St. Anthony's; Jamaica, Grace; Dunton, St. Mary's; Hollis, St. Gabriel's; Oyster Bay, Christ Church; Sea Cliff, St. Lawrence; Freeport, Transfiguration; Riverhead, Grace; Greenport, St. Trinity.

The officers of the Assembly are:

Vice-President—Mrs. J. F. SHIRLEY, 1192 Halsey Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Treasurer—Mrs. JAY LEISER, 701 Chauncey Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

THE TRAINED CHRISTIAN HELPERS.

This is a Sisterhood started in 1896 by Rev. Dr. DARLINGTON, while Archdeacon of Northern Brooklyn, to nurse the sick and poor. It is carried on under Rules and By-Laws approved by the late Bishop LITTLEJOHN.

The Constitution requires that Sisters must be Communicant members of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Since then the Rev. Drs. JOHN G. BACCHUS and LINDSAY PARKER have been added to the Spiritual Directors.

Dr. ARNOLD W. CATLIN, of the Medical Staff of St. John's Hospital, is Medical Director, assisted by other competent surgeons and physicians. The work was given the approval of the Bishop and the Diocesan Convention this year.

The Sister-in-Charge is Sister PHEBE T. WOOLLEY. The Home is located at 1304 Pacific Street.

RELATING TO

Protestant Episcopal Churches.

CHAPTER XLII OF THE GENERAL LAWS.

The Religious Corporations Law.

ARTICLE I. Provisions Applicable to Religious Corporations Generally:

§ 11. Sale, Mortgage and Lease of Real Property of Religious Corporations.—A religious corporation shall not sell, or mortgage any of its real property without applying for and obtaining leave of the court therefor pursuant to the provisions of the code of civil procedure. The trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church shall not vote upon any resolution or proposition for the sale, mortgage or lease of its real property unless the rector of said church, if it then has a rector, shall be present, and shall not make application to the court for leave to sell or mortgage any of its real property without the consent of the bishop and standing committee of the diocese to which such church belongs; but in case the See be vacant, or the bishop be absent or unable to act, the consent of the standing committee with their certificate of the vacancy of the See or of the absence or disability of the bishop shall suffice. The trustees of an incorporated Roman Catholic Church shall not make conveyance to the court for leave to mortgage, lease or sell its real property without the consent of the archbishop or of the diocese to which such church belongs, or in case of absence or inability to act, without the consent of the general or administrator of such diocese. The petition of the trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church or of a Roman Catholic Church shall, in addition to the matters required by the code of civil procedure to be set forth therein, set forth that the section has also been complied with. But lots, plots or permits in a cemetery owned by a religious corporation not sold without applying for or obtaining leave of the court. The lands of a religious corporation shall be mortgaged while used for cemetery purposes.

ARTICLE II. Special Provisions for the Incorporation and Government of Protestant Episcopal Parishes or Churches.

SECTION 30. The meeting for incorporation.

31. The certificate of incorporation.
32. Corporate Trustees; Vestry; power and thereof.
33. Annual Elections of incorporated Protestant Episcopal parishes.
34. Changing the number of vestrymen of Protestant Episcopal parishes hereafter incorporated.
35. Changing date of annual election, number and terms of office of vestrymen and terms of office of wardens of Protestant Episcopal Churches heretofore incorporated.
36. Changing the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of wardens and vestrymen.

§ 30. The Meeting for Incorporation.—Notice of a meeting for the purpose of incorporating an unincorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or congregation, and of electing the first clerk, wardens and vestrymen thereof, shall specify the object and place of such meeting, and shall be made public for at least two weeks prior to such meeting, either by open reading of such notice in time of divine service, at the usual place of worship of such parish or congregation, or by posting the same conspicuously on the outer door of such place of worship.

Only men of full age who have been regular attendants at the worship of such parish or congregation and contributors to the support thereof for one year next prior to such meeting, or since the establishment of such parish or congregation, shall be qualified to vote at such meeting.

The presence of at least six persons qualified to vote thereat shall be necessary to constitute a quorum of such meeting. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon, a quorum being present.

The officiating minister, or, if there be none, or he shall be necessarily absent, any other person qualified to vote at the meeting, who is called to the chair, shall preside thereat. Such presiding officer shall receive the votes, be the judge of the qualifications of the voters, and declare the result of the votes cast at such meeting.

The polls of the meeting shall remain open for one hour or longer in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the voters present.

The meeting shall decide whether such unincorporated parish or congregation shall become incorporated. If such decision be in favor of incorporation, such meeting shall decide upon the name of the proposed incorporation; what secular day of the week, beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, shall be the date of the regular annual election; whether the vestrymen thereof shall be three, six or nine; and shall elect by ballot from the persons qualified to be voters thereat, who have been baptized, one-third of the number of vestrymen so decided upon to hold office until the first annual election to be held thereafter, one-third of such number to hold office until one year after such annual election, and one-third of such number to hold office until two years after such annual election; and shall elect from such qualified voters who are communicants in the Protestant Episcopal Church, two persons to be churchwardens thereof, one to hold office until such annual election, and one to hold office until one year after such annual election.

§ 31. The Certificate of Incorporation.—If such meeting shall decide in favor of incorporation and comply with the next preceding section, the presiding officer of such meeting and at least two other persons present and voting thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate of incorporation setting forth:

1. The fact of the calling and holding of such meeting;
2. The name of the corporation as decided upon thereat;
3. The county, and the town, city or village, in which its principal place of worship is, or is intended to be located;
4. The day of the week, commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, upon which the annual election shall be held;
5. The number of vestrymen decided upon at such meeting;
6. The names of the vestrymen elected at such meeting and the term of office of each;
7. The names of the churchwardens elected at such meeting and the term of office of each.

On filing such certificate in the office of the clerk of the county, so specified therein, the churchwardens and vestrymen so elected and their successors in office, together with the rector, when there is one, shall form a vestry, and shall be the trustees of such church or congregation; and they and their successors shall thereupon, by virtue of this act, be a body corporate by the name or title expressed in such certificate, and shall have power, from time to time, to adopt by-laws for its *governance.

Such corporation shall be an incorporated church, and may be termed also an incorporated parish.

§ 32. Corporate Trustees; Vestry; powers and duties thereof.—The churchwardens and vestrymen of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church, together with the rector thereof, if any, shall be the trustees of the corporation and shall also constitute the vestry of the parish.

*So in the original.

No meeting of the vestry or trustees of any incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church shall be held unless either all the members thereof are present, or three days' notice thereof shall be given to each member thereof, by the rector in writing either personally or by mail, or, if there be no rector or he be incapable of acting, by one of the churchwardens; except that twenty-four hours' notice of the first meeting of the vestry or trustees after an annual election, shall be sufficient; provided such meeting be held within three days after the election.

To constitute a quorum of the vestry or board of trustees there must be present either:

1. The rector, at least one of the churchwardens and a majority of vestrymen; or,
2. The rector, both churchwardens and one less than a majority of vestrymen; or,
3. If the rector be absent from the diocese and shall have been so absent for over four calendar months, or if the meeting be called by the rector and he be absent therefrom, or be incapable of acting, one churchwarden and a majority of the vestrymen, or both churchwardens and one less than a majority of the vestrymen.

But if there be a rector of the parish, no measure shall be taken, in his absence, in any case, for effecting the sale or disposition of the real property of the corporation, nor for the sale or disposition of the capital or principal of the personal property of the corporation, nor shall any act be done which shall impair the rights of such rector.

The presiding officer of the vestry or trustees shall be the rector, or if there be none, or he be absent, the churchwarden, who shall be called to the chair by a majority of the votes, if both the churchwardens be present; or the churchwarden present, if but one be present.

At each meeting of the vestry or trustees each member thereof shall be entitled to one vote.

The vestry shall have power to fill a vacancy occurring in the office of a churchwarden or vestryman by death, resignation or otherwise than by expiration of term, until the next annual election, at which, if such vacancy would continue thereafter, it shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term.

The vestry may, subject to the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and of the diocese in which the parish or church is situated, by a majority vote, elect a rector to fill a vacancy occurring in the rectorship of the parish, and may fix the salary or compensation of the rector.

§ 33. Annual Elections of Incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parishes.—The annual election of a Protestant Episcopal parish, hereafter incorporated, shall be held on the secular day in the week commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, designated in its certificate of incorporation. The annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church heretofore incorporated shall be held on the day fixed for such annual election, by or in pursuance of law, or if no such date be so fixed, then on the Monday next after the first Sunday in Advent.

Notice of such annual election shall be read by the rector of the parish, or if there be none, or he be absent, by the officiating minister or by the churchwarden thereof, on each of the two Sundays next preceding such election, in the time of divine service, or if, for any reason, the usual place of worship of the parish be not open for the divine service, the notice shall be posted conspicuously on the outer door of the place of worship for two weeks next preceding the election.

Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of holding the election, the name and term of office of each churchwarden and vestryman whose term of office shall then expire, or whose office shall then be vacant for any cause, and the office for which each such officer is to be then elected. The meeting for such annual election shall be held immediately after morning service.

The presiding officer of such meeting shall be the rector thereof, if there be one, or if there be none, or he be absent, one of the churchwardens elected for the purpose by a majority of the duly qualified voters present, or if no churchwarden be present, vestryman elected in like manner. Such presiding officer shall be the judge of the qualifications of the voters; shall receive the votes cast; and shall declare the result of the votes cast at such election. The presiding officer of such meeting shall enter the proceedings of the meeting in the book of the minutes of the meeting, sign his name thereto, and offer the same to as many qualified voters present as he shall think fit, to be also signed by them.

Only men of full age belonging to the parish, who have been regular attendants at its worship and contributors to its support at least twelve months prior to such election, or since the establishment of such parish, shall be qualified voters at any such election. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon. The polls of the election shall continue open for one year, and longer in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the qualified voters present at voting.

The churchwardens and vestrymen shall be elected by ballot from persons qualified to vote at such election, and no person shall be eligible for election as churchwarden, unless he be also a communicant in the Protestant Episcopal Church, nor be eligible for election as vestryman, unless he shall have been baptized.

At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish hereafter incorporated, one churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years; and one-third of the total number of the vestrymen of the parish shall be elected to hold office for three years. At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church heretofore incorporated, one churchwarden and the total number of its vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, unless the term of office of but one churchwarden or of but one-third of its vestrymen shall then expire, in which case one churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years, and one-third of the total number of its vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years. The churchwarden and vestryman shall hold office after the expiration of his term until his successor shall be chosen.

§ 34. Changing the number of Vestrymen of Protestant Episcopal Parishes hereafter incorporated.—If the vestry of a Protestant Episcopal parish, hereafter incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the number of vestrymen of such parish be changed to either three, six or nine vestrymen, notice of such recommendation shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such parish, and be submitted to the meeting at which such recommendation be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof, and at least two qualified voters present at such meeting shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth the resolution of the vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election, that the meeting had ratified the same; and the number of vestrymen so determined. Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the original certificate of incorporation was filed and recorded, and such change in the number of vestrymen shall take effect at the time of the next annual election thereafter.

If the number of vestrymen be thereby increased, then, in addition to the number of vestrymen to be elected at such annual election, one-third of such increased number of vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter; one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for two years thereafter, and one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for three years thereafter.

If the number of vestrymen by such change be reduced, such reduction shall not affect the term of office of any vestrymen duly elected, and at such next annual election, and at each annual election thereafter, one-third of such reduced number of vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years.

§ 35. Changing date of Annual Election, number of terms of office of Vestrymen and terms of office of Clergymen in Protestant Episcopal Churches heretofore incorporated.—If the vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Church heretofore incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the date of the annual election be changed to a secular day of the week beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, or the number of vestrymen be changed to three, six, or nine, and that the terms of office of the churchwardens be changed so that one warden shall be elected annually, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry; the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election; that such meeting had ratified the same; the date determined upon for the annual election of the parish; the number of vestrymen so decided on; and the fact that the meeting determined to thereafter elect churchwardens, so that the term of one warden shall expire annually.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded. If the meeting determine to change the date of the annual election, the next annual election shall be held on the day in the week beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, determined on by such meeting, and the terms of the vestrymen and churchwardens which, pursuant to law, would expire at the next annual election shall expire, and their successors shall be elected on such day.

If the meeting determine to change the number of vestrymen and manner of electing wardens and vestrymen, there shall be elected at the first annual election thereafter, one-third of the number of vestrymen so determined on, to hold office for three years; one-third thereof to hold office for two years; and one-third thereof to hold office for one year; and one churchwarden to hold office for one year, and one to hold for two years; and thereafter at the annual election there shall be elected one-third of the number of vestrymen determined on at such meeting and one churchwarden.

§36. Changing the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of Wardens and Vestrymen.—If the vestry of a Protestant Episcopal parish, heretofore incorporated, shall by resolution recommend that the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of wardens and vestrymen be changed to conform in both cases to the requirement of section thirty-three of this statute, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election, and that the meeting had ratified the same.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded.

OF THE

Protestant Episcopal Church

WITH THE

RULES OF ORDER OF THE CONVENTION.

BROOKLYN, N. Y.

THE CONSTITUTION
OF THE

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1.—There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese on the third Tuesday of May in each year, provided that when such day falls in Rogation Week it shall be on the fourth Tuesday of May, in such place as shall be determined by the Bishop for the time being; or, in case of his inability to act, or a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

SEC. 2.—In the event of the prevalence of any epidemic disease, or for other sufficient cause, occurring after the designation of the place of meeting, the Bishop, or, in the cases above mentioned, the Standing Committee, may appoint another place for the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop may call Special Conventions when he shall judge it conducive to the good of the Church.

In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to do so, the Standing Committee may call such Conventions.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1.—The Convention shall be composed of the Bishop, the Assistant Bishop, the Archdeacons, the officiating Ministers, regularly admitted and settled in some Church within this Diocese, which is in union with the Convention, and of Lay Members, not exceeding three Delegates from each Parish.

SEC. 2.—Clergymen employed as Missionaries under the direction of this Convention, Chaplains in the Army or Navy of the United States, who shall be canonically connected with the Diocese, and on duty at some station within its limits, and Clergymen, officers of the two Committees of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and those engaged as professors or instructors of youth, in any College, Academy or General Seminary of learning, duly incorporated, may be members of this Convention.

SEC. 3.—The Lay Delegates shall be chosen by the Vestry, when one is in legal existence. When the Vestry is, from vacancy, or otherwise, incompetent to act, they shall be chosen by the Congregation.

SEC. 4.—But in cases of Churches or Congregations, organized or incorporated without a Vestry, Delegates may be chosen by the Church or Congregation, unless the Convention shall otherwise prescribe.

SEC. 5.—The mode of admitting new Churches or Congregations into union with the Convention may be prescribed by Canon.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with the prayers of the Church. On the first morning of the Convention there shall be a sermon, address or charge by the Bishop, or a sermon by some Presbyterian, to be appointed by him, and the Holy Communion shall always be celebrated. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the sermon shall be provided for by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop, by virtue of his office, shall preside in the Convention, but in case of a vacancy, inability to act or absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Presbyters.

ARTICLE VI.

SECTION 1.—A Secretary shall be chosen upon the assembling of the Convention, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention, and until a successor be chosen. His duty shall be to take minutes of the proceedings, to preserve the journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers, relating to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession.

SEC. 2.—It shall be also his duty to give due notice of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

SECTION 1.—In all matters which come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate, and except as herein-after provided, shall vote in one body; but, if in any case it shall be required by five votes, either wholly or in part of Clergymen, or of Lay Delegates, or shall be demanded by Canon, the two Orders shall vote separately, the Clergy by individuals and the Laity by congregations; and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision.

SEC. 2.—In case of the election of a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately, and according to the mode above prescribed.

ARTICLE VIII.

The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows: A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced, in writing, and considered in the Convention; and, if approved of, shall lie over to the next Convention; and, if again approved of in such next Convention, by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

in describing or referring to any matters, parties or persons, any single matter, party or person shall be deemed to be included, although distributive words may not be used.

ARTICLE I.

CANON I.

Record or List of Ministers in the Diocese.

SECTION I.—The Ecclesiastical Authority shall prepare, or cause to be prepared and kept, a list of all the Ministers of the Church canonically resident in the Diocese, designating those regularly admitted and settled in the Cathedral, or in some Church within the Diocese in union with this Convention, by the names of their respective Offices, Churches, Cures, or Parishes; those employed as Missionaries under the direction of this Convention, by their respective stations; those who are Chaplains in the Army or Navy, by their post of duty; and those employed as instructors of youth in any college, academy or seminary of learning, duly incorporated, by the colleges, academies, or other seminaries of learning in which they are engaged; or, in regard to those not so engaged, their places of residence only.

SEC. II.—Such list shall be recorded in a book by the Secretary of the Convention, under the supervision of the Ecclesiastical Authority.

SEC. III.—The Secretary of the Convention shall record in such book all certificates that shall be delivered to the Ecclesiastical Authority under Section I, of Canon 18, Title I, of the Digest, provided that the same be accompanied in such case with the certificate of the Ecclesiastical Authority, that the person so chosen to any Church or Parish in this Diocese is a qualified Minister of this Church; and such certificates are to be transmitted to him by the Ecclesiastical Authority for record.

SEC. IV.—[1.] When Letters Dimissory, mentioned in Section VII, Canon 12, Title I, of the Digest, shall have been accepted, the Clergyman received shall procure from the Ecclesiastical Authority a certificate that he has been received into the Diocese, in compliance with such Section and Canon. He shall cause such certificate to be delivered to the Secretary of the Convention, who shall record such transfer. The canonical residence of such Clergyman shall be deemed to be established upon the record being thus made, and not before.

[2.] The Ecclesiastical Authority shall also certify, in writing, to such Secretary the names of the Ministers who shall, by ordination or in any other mode than as above specified, become canonically resident within this Diocese, together with their proper designation, as specified in Section 1 of this Canon, to be in like manner recorded.

[3.] And such Authority shall also certify to the Secretary the name of every Minister deceased, transferred, deposed or suspended, in order that such names may, in the first three cases, be stricken from the record, and in the last, that a minute of the sentence may be made.

[4.] A copy of such record or list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of its meeting, and shall be prefixed to the Journal.

[5.] Such record or a transcript thereof, or of such part thereof as may relate to the matter in question, shall be admitted in evidence upon all proceedings or trials, under any law or Canon in force in this Diocese.

CANON 2.

On Parish Boundaries.

SECTION I.—The Parish boundaries, as defined by the Laws of the State of New York, of the four parishes of St. George's, Flushing; Grace, Jamaica; St. James', Newtown; and St. George's, Hempstead, are limited and established by the terms of their several charters.

SEC. II.—All other parish boundaries in this Diocese are and shall be the limits as now fixed by law, of any village, town, township, incorporated borough, city, ward of a city, or the limits of some division thereof, which may have been recognized or which shall hereafter be recognized by the Bishop, acting with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee.

SEC. III.—The ascertainment and defining other boundaries of the existing parishes or parochial cures, in all cases where any question or conflict of jurisdiction may arise, the formation of new parishes, or the establishment of new churches, congregations or missions, within the limits of other parishes, and the changing the location of any church or congregation, and the transferring of the same beyond the vicinage in which it is now or may be hereafter established, shall be vested in the Bishop of the Diocese, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, after an opportunity to be heard, on ten days' notice thereof, served by mail on the Rector and Clerk of the Vestry of each of the three nearest parishes. And in case of there being no Bishop, in the Ecclesiastical Authority: Provided, that in all cases where the Standing Committee shall act alone, there may be an appeal made to the next Diocesan Convention.

SEC. IV.—Nothing contained in this Canon shall affect any legal rights of property of any parish.

CANON 3.

Of the Convention.

SECTION I.—The Clerical Members and Evidence of Right to Seats.

[1.] Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of the Diocese, the Ecclesiastical Authority shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of Ministers entitled to a seat in the tion, pursuant to the third Article of the Constitution. No ed Minister shall have a place on such list. Such list, or a authenticated by the Ecclesiastical Authority, shall be laid he Convention on the first day of the meeting, and filed Secretary.

| Any correction of such list may be made by the Convening its session, and the right to make such correction beclusively to the Convention. The list shall be recorded ecretary in a book kept for the purpose.

| The right of any Minister to a seat in the Convention disputed, be determined according to the provisions of d Article of the Constitution, by the Convention itself, his name be inserted in such list or omitted. Such list however, be taken as presumptive evidence of the right whose names appear thereon, and that none others have ht.

| In case of a contested right to a seat of any Clergyman,
y be elected to any Church or Parish in this Diocese, ence of settlement shall consist in the Record required in , Section III, of this Article, or in the production of the te, specified therein, which certificate, if not previously l, shall thereupon be recorded in the book kept under said
I.

| In case of a contested right to a seat of a Minister,
; such right by virtue of his being employed as a Mis-under the direction of this Convention, the evidence employment shall consist in the written certificate of the stical Authority.

| In case of a contested right to a seat of a Clergyman,
; such right as Chaplain in the Army or Navy of the States, under the provisions of the Constitution, the evi-his employment upon any station shall be a certificate of manding officer of that station.

[7.] In case of a contested right to a seat of a Clergyman, claiming such right by virtue of his being engaged as a professor or instructor of youth in a college, academy or general seminary of learning, duly incorporated, the evidence of his connection with such shall consist of the written certificate of the President or Secretary of such Corporation.

[8.] And in the case of a contested right to a seat of any Clergyman, who may claim to have been received into this Diocese, the production of the Record kept under Canon 1 of "The Canons," or of the Certificate of Acceptance, given under Section II, Clause 1 thereof, shall be presumptive evidence of a regular admission, which certificate, if not previously recorded, shall thereupon be recorded by the Secretary.

[9.] A Minister is settled for all the purposes mentioned in the Canons, who has been engaged permanently by any Parish, according to the rules of this Diocese, or for any term not less than one year.

SEC. II.—Of Lay Delegates and Evidence of Rights.

[1.] The appointment of Lay Delegates to the Convention, in Churches organized or incorporated with a Vestry, if they be chosen by the Vestry, shall be made at a regular meeting of such Vestry, held according to law; if they be chosen by the Congregation, the like notice of the time and place of holding the election shall be given, and the electors must have the like legal qualifications, and the election shall be conducted in the like manner, as prescribed by law for the election of Wardens and Vestrymen of the Parishes respectively in which they are held.

[2.] The evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate, if made by the Vestry, shall be a written certificate signed by the Rector of the Church, if there be one, or if there be no Rector, by the Warden who presides at the meeting at which such Delegate is appointed; and also, in each case, by the Clerk of the Vestry.

[3.] If the appointment be made by the Congregation, the evidence shall be a certificate signed by the same persons who are required by law to certify or attest the election of Wardens and Vestrymen in the respective Parishes.

[4.] Every certificate of the appointment of a Lay Delegate shall show upon its face, that the appointment has been made in pursuance of the requirements of this Section, and shall certify that the Delegate has the qualifications required by the next succeeding clause of this Section.

[5.] No Lay Delegate shall be entitled to a seat in the Congregation unless he be entitled to vote for the Wardens and Vestry of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

[6.] Every Church or Congregation incorporated since April, 1813, or hereafter to be incorporated under any law of the State of New York, other than the General Act for the Incorporation of Churches, passed April, 1813, and its amendments, shall be entitled to appoint Lay Delegates to the Convention, not exceeding three in number.

They must have been connected with the said Church or Congregation for at least twelve months previous to their appointment.

[7.] They shall be chosen by the male members of full legal age who have habitually for twelve months preceding such election attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

[8.] The time, place and manner of holding such election, the notice for holding the same (which shall be ten days at least), shall be fixed by rules or by-laws made by the Trustees of the Churches or Congregations, or by the Lay Members of the same, qualified as aforesaid, at a meeting duly convened.

[9.] A written certificate of the appointment of such Delegates, signed by the Minister, if there be one, or by the officer presiding at a meeting of the Congregation by which they were appointed, and by the Clerk or Secretary, is to be presented to the Convention, which certificate shall declare that such persons have been duly chosen Lay Delegates by such Church or Congregation, are members of the same, and have been such members for two months preceding.

[10.] A copy of this Section shall be transmitted by the Secretary of the Convention, to the Vestry or Trustees of every Church in union with this Convention, with blank printed form of proceedings under it, to be entered upon their book of minutes. All alterations shall be similarly transmitted.

[11.] No other certificate or evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate than such as is required by this section shall be required, and the right of any Layman to a seat in the Convention in cases of doubt or dispute, shall be determined by the Convention itself.

[12.] Three Lay Delegates to the Convention from the Cathedral, one of whom shall be a member of the Cathedral Chapter, shall be chosen by the Lay Members of the Congregation acting under by-laws made by the Chapter; the evidence of their appointment shall be a certificate signed by the Dean, the Precentor if the Dean is absent, and by the recording officer.

SEC. III.—Of the Call of the Convention.

[1.] Unless it be otherwise directed by the Convention, the mode of giving notice of the meeting shall be by printed or written notice, naming the time and place thereof, with the signature of the Secretary, sent by mail to each Clergyman having a right to a seat, and to the Vestry or Trustees of each Parish in the Diocese.

[2.] Whenever, under the provisions of the Constitution a special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, in the notice thereof, to specify such purpose.

SEC. IV.—Of a Quorum.

The presence of at least fifteen Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least fifteen Congregations, shall be necessary for the transaction of business; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. V.—Of Organizing the Convention.

[1.] If the Bishop is not present at its opening, the Secretary shall call the members who present themselves to order; when the senior Presbyter present, entitled to a seat in the Convention, shall take the Chair, and shall preside until a President be elected, as provided by Article V of the Constitution.

[2.] The Secretary shall call over the names of the Clergymen entitled to seats, from the list filed with him as directed in Clause 1, of Section I, of Canon 2.

[3.] He shall call over the Churches entitled to representation, when the Lay Delegates shall present their certificates, which certificates shall be examined by the Secretary and a committee of two members, appointed by the presiding officer. Irregular or defective certificates, and certificates and documents referring to contested seats, shall be temporarily laid aside. The names of the Lay Delegates, duly appointed, shall then be called; after which, the certificates and documents laid aside shall be reported to the Convention, which shall decide on the admission of the Delegates named therein.

[4.] A canonical quorum of Fifteen Clergymen and Delegates from fifteen Congregations being present, the Bishop, if present, shall declare the Convention duly organized. If the Bishop be not present, or unable to act, the temporary President shall direct that the members proceed to vote for a President, as provided for in Article V of the Constitution, which election shall be by ballot. The President elected shall declare the Convention organized for business.

[5.] The Convention shall then proceed to the election, ballot, of a Secretary. He may nominate an Assistant Secretary for choice by the Convention.

[6.] The rules of order in force at the preceding Convention, so far as they are applicable to the preliminary proceeding for the organization of the Convention, shall be deemed in force for that purpose; and the said rules of order shall regulate the proceedings, after the organization, until altered by the Convention.

SEC. VI.—The Secretary.

[1.] In addition to the offices and duties elsewhere declared the Secretary shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of this Church, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal of the Convention, and shall request the Secretaries of the Diocesan Conventions to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange.

[2.] He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in Section IV, of Canon I, Title I, of the Digest, a certificate, to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid, or secured to be paid (distinguishing them), to the General Theological Seminary, together with the nominations of Trustees of that Seminary; and also, a like certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

[3.] Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, or he shall be unable to act, the duties shall devolve upon the Assistant Secretary, if there be one; not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

SEC. VII.—The Treasurer.

[1.] At every stated Convention there shall be chosen by ballot a Treasurer, who shall remain in office until the next stated

Convention, and until a successor is appointed. It shall be his duty to receive all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, and to disburse them by the same authority; and where no disbursement has been ordered by the Convention, under the direction of the Standing Committee.

[2.] His accounts shall be rendered annually to the Convention, and shall be examined by a Committee appointed by it.

[3.] In case of a vacancy in the office of Treasurer, it shall be supplied by the Standing Committee; and the person appointed by such Committee shall continue to act until an appointment is made by the Convention.

SEC. VIII.—Of Elections.

Elections by ballot, when required by the Canons, may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the Convention; and when the election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order, upon concurrent ballot, shall be necessary to a valid election.

SEC. IX.—Of the Admission of a Church into union, and of maintaining such union.

[1.] To entitle a Church to admission into union with the Church in this Diocese, the Vestry or Trustees respectively shall submit to the Convention or to a Committee appointed by it, the Certificate or Act of Incorporation or a copy thereof, certified by the officer whose duty it is, or may be, to record or file certificates of incorporation of Religious Societies.

[2.] There shall also be submitted a certificate of the Ecclesiastical Authority, that the incorporation of such Church was approved before such act of incorporation, and that such Church is duly and satisfactorily established.

[3.] Satisfactory testimony, by certificate of the Rector or Churchwarden, or the principal officer of a Board of Trustees, or otherwise, shall also be given, that not less than twenty-five persons of legal age, members of such Church, have habitually, at least six months preceding such application, attended div service in such Church or Congregation.

[4.] The application for admission shall be in writing : shall be accompanied with a copy of a resolution adopted by Vestry, Congregation or Trustees respectively, that such Church agrees to abide by and conform to the Constitutions, Canons, Rules and Orders in force within this Diocese. Such copy shall be certified by the Secretary or Clerk, and be authenticated with the seal of the Corporation. This application, with the documents required as above, shall be sent to the Secretary of the Convention that they may be communicated to the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches at least thirty days before the meeting of the Convention.

[5.] Whenever any Church in union shall neglect, for three years in succession, to make a parochial report (no mission report being made in its behalf), or shall not, during the same period, have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, or requested of the Ecclesiastical Authority the services of a Missionary, such Church shall be regarded as having forfeited connection with the Convention, and shall no longer have a right to send Delegates to the same. The Bishop shall report such Church to the Convention in his annual address, stating what in his judgment, after legal advice of the Lay Assessor of Ecclesiastical Court and the Church Advocate, such Church has or has not for any cause become extinct in fact.

[6.] Such Church, however, upon proof satisfactory to Ecclesiastical Authority that it has continued its corporate existence, may be re-admitted upon an application to the Convention accompanied with a report of its condition, and on such terms shall appear just ; such re-admission to take place from and after the rising of the Convention consenting to it.

[7.] Whenever any Church shall be thus reported as ext

the death or removal of its members, or by ceasing to act in its corporate capacity and to keep up the services of the Protestant Episcopal Church, the Convention shall declare the same to be extinct, and may instruct the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese of Long Island, to apply to the proper authorities for an order and decree of the dissolution of the same.

CANON 4.

Of the Standing Committee.

Whereas, by Canon 2, of Title III, of the Digest, it is required that there shall be a Standing Committee, to be appointed by the Convention in each Diocese, whose duties, except so far as provided for by the Canons of the General Convention, may be prescribed by the Canons of the respective Dioceses; therefore it is, in addition to the Canons of the General Convention, declared and prescribed as follows:

SECTION I.—[1.] At this stated Convention of 1880, a Standing Committee shall be elected, to consist of four of the Clergy and four of the Laity, to be chosen by ballot, and by the concurrent vote of the members of each order. The Standing Committee, thus elected, shall immediately after divide themselves by lot, into four classes at the first election, so that one of the Clergy and one of the Laity shall go out of office annually thereafter, and the two vacancies thus made shall be filled by a new election by ballot, as before provided, at every stated meeting of the Convention, of one of each order to serve for four years.

[2.] Vacancies in said Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical and Lay members of the Committee until the meeting of the next convention, when they shall be filled by an election by ballot.

In all other cases they shall act as one body, without distinction of orders, except when otherwise directed by the Canons of the General Convention.

SEC. II.—The Bishop of the Diocese and the Standing Committee are the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese of Long Island; and they and their successors in office are hereby elected and constituted by the said title, Trustees, under the Act, Chapter 110, of the Laws of the State of New York, passed April 11, 1876, which is hereby adopted, with all powers conferred by the said act.

Until otherwise ordered, the said Trustees are restrained from the exercise of such powers, properties and trusts as are committed to the officers and committees of this Convention, already appointed and existing.

SEC. III.—In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or of the inability or disability of the Bishop, the powers and duties to be performed by him, in matters of discipline, shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to or enjoined upon the Clerical members of such Committee, in which case they shall be exercised by such Clerical members alone; provided, that no sentence shall be pronounced on a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

CANON 5.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

SECTION I.—The Convention shall, at each regular annual meeting next preceding a stated meeting of the General Convention, elect, by the concurrent ballot of the Clerical and Lay members, four Clergymen and four Laymen as deputies to the General Convention from this Diocese. It shall, also, in like manner, elect four Clergymen and four Laymen as provisional deputies, to act in the cases hereafter mentioned. Such deputies and provisional deputies shall hold their respective stations until successors are appointed, and shall be deputies or provisional deputies for any General Convention which may be held during their continuance in office.

SEC. II.—Upon any vacancy occurring, by resignation, removal from the Diocese, death, or otherwise, among the deputies, or provisional deputies, between the stated times of election, the vacancy shall be supplied by any Convention during which or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

SEC. III.—It shall be the duty of the deputies elect to signify to the Bishop, at least ten days before the meeting of the General Convention, their acceptance of the appointment, and their intention to discharge its duties; in default of which, the Bishop shall designate, from the list of provisional deputies, so many as may be necessary to insure, as far as practicable, a full representation of the Diocese. The Bishop shall, in like manner, designate from the same list of provisional deputies, one or more, as the case may be, to supply any deficiency in the representation of the Diocese, which may in any way occur. The person or persons so designated, being furnished with a certificate of appointment, shall have all the power and authority of deputies duly elected by the Convention.

CANON 6.

Of the Registrar and Historiographer.

SECTION I.—The journals, files, papers, reports and other documents, which, under the Canons or otherwise, shall become the property of this Convention, shall be committed to the keeping of a Presbyter to be elected by it, and who shall be known as the Registrar and Historiographer of the Diocese of Long Island.

SEC. II.—It shall be his duty to procure all such journals, files, papers, reports, copies of charters and acts of incorporation of Churches and other documents, which may be of value in the history of this Diocese, to arrange, label, file, index and otherwise put in order, and provide for the safe keeping of the same, and all such others as may hereafter come into his possession, in some safe and accessible place of deposit, and to hold the same, under such regulations and restrictions as this Convention may from time to time provide.

SEC. III.—It shall be his duty, also, to procure a proper and sufficient Book of Record, and enter therein a record of the consecration of all the Bishops of this Diocese, designating accurately the time and place of the same, with the names of the consecrating Bishops, and of others present and assisting; to record a list of all the Presbyters and Deacons, and the dates of their connection with this Diocese, and copies of the charters and acts of incorporation of Churches in the same, with such additional facts as may be worthy of safe keeping in the archives of this Diocese.

CANON 7.

Of the Episcopal Fund.

SECTION I.—[1.] The Fund for the support of the Episcopate in this Diocese now provided, together with what may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation from the investment thereof, shall be intrusted to the Trustees of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate.

[2.] Such Trustees shall be five in number, and shall be appointed by and hold their offices during the pleasure of the Convention, which shall fill up all vacancies. Vacancies, however, occurring during a recess of the Convention, may be filled by the remaining Trustees, to be reported to and approved by the Convention.

SEC. II.—[1.] It shall be the duty of every Rector or Minister having charge of a Parish or Congregation in this Diocese, to cause an annual collection or contribution to be made in aid of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate, and in case of a vacant Parish, the duty shall devolve upon the Wardens and Vestrymen.

[2.] The amount received shall be paid to the Treasurer of aid Trustees, and shall be reported by them to the next Convention, at a stated meeting, and shall be entered on its Journal.

[3.] The moneys thus raised shall be kept by the Trustees in regular course of accumulation without diminution, until by such accumulation it shall amount to at least one hundred thousand dollars, or until the Convention shall otherwise direct.

[4.] The interest or income of the Fund shall be subject to the order of the Convention.

SEC. III.—[1.] All moneys belonging to such Fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security of real estate, or stock in stock of the United States, or of the State of New York, or of the cities of New York or Brooklyn, or in Railroad bonds, approved by the unanimous vote of the Trustees. All investments, when practicable, shall be taken in the corporate name. The Trustees may, from time to time, change such investments.

[2.] A statement exhibiting the condition of the said Fund and securities, together with all receipts and disbursements, shall be reported to the Convention at every stated meeting thereof, and signed by the Trustees, or a majority of them.

CANON 8.

Of the Diocesan Fund.

SECTION I.—Whereas it is indispensable to provide a fund for defraying the necessary expenses of the Convention, it is therefore required of every Congregation in this Diocese to pay to the Treasurer of the Convention, on or before the day of its Annual Meeting, a contribution of not less than 1 per cent. on the amount of salary of its Clergyman, which fund shall be appropriated in part by a Committee of the Convention to said expenses.

SEC. II.—And whereas, by Section V, of Canon 1, of Title 1 of the Digest, it is made the duty of the several Diocesan Conventions to forward to the Treasurer of the General Convention, at each meeting of the same, three dollars for each Clergyman within the Diocese, for the purpose of paying the contingent expenses of the said Convention: therefore it shall be the duty of the Committee upon the Diocesan Fund to retain annually, out of the moneys received by them, one dollar for each Clergyman in this Diocese. The amount thus retained shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Convention to the Treasurer of the General Convention, at each meeting of the same.

CANON 9.

Of the Missionary Operations of the Diocese.

SECTION I.—The corporation organized by Special Act of the Legislature in 1902 under the name of "The Diocesan Missions of Long Island" is hereby recognized as a Diocesan institution, for which provision is recommended to be made. It shall present at each annual Convention a report of its financial condition, showing its receipts and expenditures of money for the preceding year, and all property received or accepted by it in trust, or otherwise, and giving an account of all work done by it.

SEC. II.—The Diocese shall be divided into four districts to be called "Archdeaconries," as follows, viz.:

[1.] The Northern Archdeaconry of the Borough of Brooklyn, including all that part of Kings County lying north of a line running from the river up the middle of Montague Street, to Fulton, to Flatbush Avenue, to Atlantic Avenue, to Franklin Avenue, south to Flatbush Avenue, to Jamaica Bay.

[2.] The Southern Archdeaconry of the Borough of Brooklyn, including all that part of the city and suburbs lying south of said line.

[3.] The Archdeaconry of Queens and Nassau, comprising Queens County and Nassau County.

[4.] The Archdeaconry of Suffolk, comprising Suffolk County.

SEC. III.—Each Archdeaconry shall be composed of the clergy resident within its limits, together with three Laymen in each Parish, appointed annually by the Rector, or Minister-in-charge, or in his absence by the Vestry, to serve until the sitting of the next Convention, and one Lay Delegate from each Chapel or Mission Station not represented in the Convention having fifteen or more regular communicants, to be appointed by the Minister of said Chapel from among its Laity.

For the purposes of this Canon, Clergymen shall be considered as resident in that Archdeaconry where their work is located. This Canon shall not be construed so as to exclude from membership Clergymen resident within the limits of the Archdeaconry canonically resident in the Diocese, who are officers of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and those engaged as professors or instructors of youth in any College, Academy or General Seminary of learning duly incorporated.

At its first regular meeting and every fourth year thereafter each Archdeaconry as constituted above shall nominate to the Bishop for his approval or rejection a Clergyman to fill the office of Archdeacon, whose duty shall be, in the absence of the Bishop, to preside at all meetings and to perform the other functions of the office as hereinafter provided. His term of office shall be four years from the time of his appointment, and until his successor shall be nominated and approved. In case the office should become vacant by death or resignation, a special meeting of the Archdeaconry shall be convened by the Bishop, and the Archdeaconry shall proceed at once to the filling of the office in the manner provided above.

SEC. IV.—The Convention shall annually elect one Layman from each of said Archdeacons, as a Trustee of "The Diocesan Missions of Long Island," and shall further elect, as Trustees of that corporation, two Clergymen and two Laymen at large. The persons so elected as Trustees of The Diocesan Missions of Long Island shall, together with the Trustees of the corporation who hold office ex officio, constitute the Missionary Committee of the Diocese, of which Committee the Bishop shall, ex officio, be the head.

SEC. V.—The Missionary Committee thus constituted and created shall have the management of Missionary operations of the Diocese and the control of the funds raised for Missionaries.

It shall have for its officers the corresponding officers of "The Diocesan Missions of Long Island."

It shall receive annually from the several Archdeaconries full reports of their work, and with the aid of said reports it shall make a full annual report to the Diocesan Convention, giving an account of all the work done by it and moneys raised and expended by it within the limits of the Diocese. It shall meet as soon as convenient after the adjournment of the Diocesan Convention, at which meeting, after completing its organization, it shall designate the amounts derived from each Archdeaconry, and allot the amount to be expended in each Archdeaconry, and shall at once notify the secretaries of the several Archdeaconries of its action: such designation and allotment to be based in a general way upon the reports of the previous year. Its fiscal year shall end at the meeting of the Missionary Committee next preceding the Diocesan Convention, said meeting to be not less than five days before such Convention.

SEC. VI.—It shall be the duty of the Archdeacon to take the oversight of the Missionary work in the Archdeaconry—with the exception of Cathedral and Parochial Chapels. He shall confer with the Bishop as to plans and details, and with the Clergy within the limits of whose parishes missionary work may be proposed or is being conducted. He shall survey the ground, and propose, as occasion offers, plans of operation, and in case such plans be adopted by the Archdeaconry, awaken, as far as opportunity can be found, an interest therein on the part of the congregations. Each Archdeaconry shall annually present a report of the condition and progress of the missionary work within its limits to the Missionary Committee of the Diocese, in time for said Committee to make its report to the Convention.

It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of each Archdeaconry to receive contributions from the Parishes and to forward the same to the Treasury of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese, and to keep and account for the money of the Archdeaconry, paying out any such sums as he shall be authorized to pay by a regular meeting.

SEC. VII.—Each Archdeaconry shall, in open meeting, under the advice of the Bishop, and with the consent of the Clergy within the limit of whose parishes missionary work may be proposed, conduct the missionary work within its own limits; shall have control and distribution of the money allotted to it by the Missionary Committee, in aid of mission stations and feeble parishes; shall apportion for collection among its parishes and missions the sums from time to time so allotted; and may at its discretion, with the approval of the Bishop, undertake special missionary work within its limits, and raise funds for such purposes; provided it shall first have met the assessments made upon by the Missionary Committee.

SEC. VIII.—Each Archdeaconry shall hold, at least twice annually, stated meetings for the transaction of its business, and apportionments or appropriations shall be made except at these meetings. The time and place of such meetings shall be fixed by the vote or by-laws of each Archdeaconry.

It shall be the duty of each Clergyman, unless prevented by grave and reasonable causes, to attend the regular meetings of the Archdeaconry, and to report all missionary work done in his area. It shall be competent for each Archdeaconry to arrange, by by-laws or otherwise, such a programme for devotional, business and social exercises as shall in their judgment tend to the profit and pleasure of the meetings.

SEC. IX.—No missionary station shall be established or missionary appointed except with the concurrence of the Bishop. The Bishop, together with the Archdeacon, shall have the power to remove any missionary for causes touching his moral character or efficiency. No appropriation shall be made by the Missionary Committee or by any Archdeaconry in aid of any organized parish, except on application of the wardens and vestrymen of said parish, with the written consent and approval of the minister, if there be one.

CANON 10.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

SECTION I.—Two Lay Trustees shall be appointed annually by the Convention, who, with the Bishop and one Clergyman, to be chosen by the Convention, and the Treasurer of the Convention, shall constitute a Board, to be called The Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, whose duty it shall be to receive applications for relief and to apply the interest of said Fund according to such rules and principles as the said Trustees shall adopt, to be submitted to the Convention for its revision and approval.

SEC. II.—It is hereby declared to be the duty of every Congregation in this Diocese to make an annual collection, to be paid to the Trustees of said Fund, who shall hold and apply the same to the relief of widows and children of deceased Clergymen of this Diocese. It is recommended that such collection be made on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or the Sunday next before or next following.

SEC. III.—Vacancies occurring in the number of the Trustees, during the recess of the Convention, may be supplied by the remaining Trustees.

SEC. IV.—All contributions or donations for this object shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the Convention, and funds not needed for current use shall be invested and held in trust by such Trustees.

CANON 11.

Of the Church Charity Foundation and other Benevolent Institutions.

SECTION I.—The Church Charity Foundation of Long Island is hereby recognized as a Diocesan Institution, for which revision is recommended to be made, so that each Congregation in the Diocese may make an annual contribution thereto.

SEC. II.—There shall be a Standing Committee appointed annually by the Bishop, whose duty it shall be to prepare and present to the Convention a digest of all reports relating to the Foundation and other Benevolent Institutions of the Church.

ARTICLE II.

OF DISCIPLINE.

CANON I.

Of the Ecclesiastical Court.

SECTION I.—There shall be an Ecclesiastical Court for the Diocese of Long Island, to try any Clergyman thereof upon charges. It shall consist of seven Presbyters, members of the Convention, and a Layman learned in the law, a communicant of the Church, of good reputation for gravity and soundness in the faith, to act as adviser of the Court, without a voice. No member of the Standing Committee shall be a member of this Court. They shall be appointed biennially by the Bishop, by and with the advice and consent of the Diocesan Convention, and shall continue in office two years, and until their successors are chosen, unless sooner removed by vote of the Convention.

SEC. II.—When vacancies occur, they shall be filled in the same manner for the residue of the term; but if the Convention be not then in session, the Bishop, with the consent of the remaining members of the Court, shall fill such vacancy by an appointment, which shall continue until the next meeting of the Convention.

SEC. III.—At any trial the Lay Assessor and five clerical members of the Court must be present; and if a less number be present, they shall adjourn from day to day till a quorum be present.

In case the Lay Assessor is absent, or unable to participate in a trial, or disqualified by reason of interest or otherwise, or if for any reason a quorum of the Court cannot be obtained, a special appointment or appointments sufficient to constitute a full Court, shall, at the request of the members of the Court who are present and qualified, be made for the occasion, as is hereinbefore provided, for filling vacancies. The accused may then reject two of these if he desires. Should a Lay Assessor be thus appointed and rejected, another shall be appointed as before and the Court thus constituted shall proceed with the trial.

SEC. IV.—Upon the question of guilt or innocence of the accused, or upon the final decision of the cause, the Clerical members of the Court only shall vote.

They shall anticipate the opening of the sitting of the Court in any case, by the reception of the Holy Sacrament of the Lord Supper, and remember ever that the power committed to them is to be exercised without pride, prejudice or passion.

SEC. V.—The Court shall transact its business in accordance with the Canons of the Church and such rules as it may make for its own guidance.

SEC. VI.—There shall be an officer of the Court, to be called the Church Advocate, who shall be a Layman learned in the law. He shall be chosen by the Bishop, with the consent of the Standing Committee, and hold office during their pleasure. It shall be his duty to prepare the charges and conduct the trial on behalf of the Church. He shall be the legal adviser of the Ecclesiastical Authority, and give his opinion when called upon on legal questions. The accused may have counsel to aid in his defence. The Church Advocate and counsel for the accused shall be communicants of the Church, of good reputation for gravity and soundness in the faith.

SEC. VII.—The Court shall choose a Clerk, to hold office during its pleasure. He shall keep a record of its proceedings, convictions and sentences, and preserve the testimony taken at trials.

CANON 2.

Of Confession before Trial.

SECTION I.—Whenever a Clergyman is accused of offences, either by public rumor or reliable information, charges shall be prepared without regard to form, but containing the substance of the offence alleged, with reasonable certainty as to the time, place and circumstances, and delivered to the accused.

SEC. II.—Whenever a Clergyman thus accused, or against whom charges are preferred, as hereinafter provided, shall, before the first session of the Court summoned to try the cause, voluntarily confess himself to the Bishop to be guilty of the offence alleged, the Bishop shall, in the presence of the Standing Committee, pronounce such sentence as he may judge proper, and cause the same, with the accusation reduced to form and the confession annexed, to be recorded by the Clerk of the Court.

CANON 3.

Of Charges and Presentments.

SECTION I.—Charges against a Clergyman for any triable offence shall be made in writing, addressed to the Standing Committee, and be delivered to its President. They must be signed by a majority of the members of the Vestry of the Parish or Church of which the accused is Rector or Minister, or by seven male Communicants of this Church, who are not of such Parish or Church, and two of whom shall be Presbyters.

SEC. II.—When the accused is not connected with any Church or Parish, the charges may be signed by any three Presbyters, and three Lay Communicants of the Diocese, or by seven Lay Communicants.

SEC. III.—If the offence consists in teaching or preaching publicly and advisedly heresy or heretical doctrine, or doctrines contrary to those of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, a presentment, with specifications of the nature, time and place of such offence, shall be made, signed by three Presbyters of the Church canonically resident within the Diocese and delivered to the President of the Standing Committee.

SEC. IV.—Whenever the Bishop shall, either from his own observation, or from any information which he shall deem worthy of notice, have reason to believe that there are grounds for investigation into the conduct of any Clergyman of this Diocese according to the Digest, Title II, Canon 2, Sections I and II, shall, at his discretion, convene the Standing Committee, and lay before them the information in his possession.

SEC. V.—Whenever the Standing Committee, or a majority of them, shall, from any information so laid before them by the Bishop, or from any other information which they, or a majority of them, may think worthy of notice, or from charges made to them as hereinbefore specified, be of opinion that it is proper that a judicial investigation of the conduct of any Clergyman of this Diocese should take place, they, with the consent of the Bishop, shall cause a general statement of the facts of the case to be made and delivered to the Church Advocate.

CANON 4.

Of Limitation.

SECTION I.—No presentment shall be sustained in any case unless the offence be alleged and proved to have been committed within three years next before the day on which the charges are delivered to the Church Advocate, as hereinafter mentioned.

CANON 5.

Of the Preliminary Proceedings.

SECTION I.—Whenever it is determined to bring to trial any Clergyman of this Diocese, the Standing Committee shall notify the Church Advocate, and direct him to proceed with the same.

SEC. II.—He shall thereupon prepare charges and specifications, containing the substance of the offence alleged, with reasonable certainty as to time, place and circumstances. But no variance between an allegation and proof shall be regarded if the accused has not been misled or prejudiced thereby. The style of the charge or charges shall be:

“Articles or charges against.....exhibited on behalf of the Church to the Bishop of the Diocese of Long Island, by.....acting as Church Advocate, in consequence of a presentment made to the said Bishop by the Standing Committee of the said Diocese.”

He shall immediately deliver two copies of the charges and specifications signed by him to the Bishop, who shall cause one of them, with a notice of the time and place of trial (which he shall prescribe) to be served on the accused personally, or left at his place of abode, at least thirty days before the time appointed for trial.

SEC. III.—The Bishop shall also issue a precept, directed to all the members of the Ecclesiastical Court, requiring them to proceed to the trial of the accused, at the prescribed time and place, which precept, together with the other copy of the charges signed by the Church Advocate, shall be transmitted to the President of the Court, whose duty it shall be, on receipt of the same, to cause all the members of the Court to be summoned to meet at the prescribed time and place.

SEC. IV.—If the accused shall neglect to attend at the time and place appointed for the meeting of the Court, which is convened to try him, after due notice given to him, the President of the Court shall report the fact to the Bishop, who shall thereupon suspend such Clergyman from the exercise of the ministry or contumacy, until he shall appear and demand a trial. If he shall not apply for a trial within three months, the Bishop shall pronounce such sentence as would be proper upon a conviction for the offence alleged.

SEC. V.—Any resort to a civil court, on the part of the accused, for the purpose of impeding, delaying or averting trial, shall be treated as contumacy, and the Bishop shall thereupon suspend such Clergyman from the exercise of the ministry for contumacy, until he appear and demand a trial.

CANON 6.

Of Trial.

SECTION I.—The accused, on appearance, shall be called upon to say whether he is guilty or not guilty of the offence charged in the presentment. He may thereupon except, in writing, to the sufficiency of the presentment, or any part thereof to all or any of the specifications therein, and such exceptions shall be heard and disposed of by the Court.

SEC. II.—If no exceptions are taken, or they are overruled or only so far allowed as to leave substantial ground for trial the same shall proceed. If the accused refuse or neglect to appear to the presentment, the Court shall enter the plea of not guilty for him, and proceed with the trial. The accused may attend, produce his testimony, and make his defence as advised.

SEC. III.—All testimony shall be given on oath or affirmation. The manner of conducting the trial, and the rules of evidence unless otherwise provided by the Canons of the Church, shall be the same as in the Law Courts of the State of New York so far as applicable. The Court may adjourn from time to time, not exceeding one week at one adjournment, for the purpose of receiving testimony or furthering the ends of justice.

SEC. IV.—Proceedings in a trial shall be private, unless the accused, ten days before the trial, shall demand in writing that the same be public.

SEC. V.—In case there is reason to suppose that the attendance of a necessary witness cannot be had on trial, the party may at any time after the presentment is served, on five days' notice to the other, apply to the Lay Assessor to appoint a Commissioner to take the deposition of such witness. The party so applying shall accompany his application with the interrogatories proposed to be propounded to the witness. The Lay Assessor shall then appoint a Commissioner, and fix a time and place to settle the interrogatories before him, at which time and place the other party shall, if he desires, present cross-interrogatories; and further interrogatories may be added with the approbation of the Lay Assessor, and a reasonable time allowed for that purpose, if the Lay Assessor shall deem it necessary or proper. The Lay Assessor shall then transmit the deposition with the interrogatories annexed, to the Commissioner, who shall take the testimony under oath or affirmation, as provided by the laws of the State where taken, and certify the same and transmit it, properly sealed and secured, to the President of the Court. The deposition so taken shall be read upon the trial, subject to all exceptions that would avail if such witness were examined in Court.

SEC. VI.—All notices and papers to be served on the accused, after the presentment, may be served on his counsel, and all papers to be served on the prosecutors shall be served on the Church Advocate. Such service may be made by leaving the same with such advocate or counsel personally, or at his place of residence or business, or such service may be made by mail, by depositing the notice or paper, properly folded and enveloped, in the Post Office directed to the said counsel or advocate, at his place of residence or business, and prepaying the postage. But in case of service by mail, three days' additional time shall be allowed for transmission and receipt.

SEC. VII.—If the person to be served with any presentment notice or paper has departed from the United States, it shall be sufficient service thereof to leave a copy at his last place of abode within the United States, sixty days before the day on which his appearance or other act required by such notice or paper is to be performed. If his last place of abode cannot be ascertained, a publication of a copy in a public newspaper, printed at the expense of the Government of the State or Territory in which he is tried, shall be sufficient.

SEC. VIII.—The Court having fully heard the allegations of the parties, and deliberately considered the same, and the parties have withdrawn, the Lay Assessor shall deliver in writing of the law and facts of the case, in not strictly theological. The Clerical members of the Court shall decide respectively whether, in their opinion, the accused is or not guilty of each particular charge and specification in the presentment, in the order in which they are made; and the accused shall be considered as not guilty of any charge and specification of which he shall not be pronounced guilty by a unanimous vote of the Clerical members of the Court.

SEC. IX.—On the final question whether the accused is or not guilty, no member of the Court shall be present, or be considered present, who shall not have been present at the delivery of all the testimony. Unless the accused be found guilty he shall be deemed acquitted.

SEC. X.—Whenever a trial shall fail by the negligence of any Clerical member or members, the President of the Court shall report the names and the facts of such negligence to the next Convention of the Ducess.

SEC. XI.—The decision of the Court as to each charge and specification shall be reduced to writing and signed by the Court. Such decision or decisions shall be regarded as the judgment of the Court. In case of a judgment of guilty on any charge, the Court shall state also the sentence which, in its opinion, is to be pronounced.

CANON 7.

Of Ecclesiastical Sentences.

SECTION I.—All proceedings within this Diocese, the result of which may involve a subjection to Canonical sentence, must be ultimately revised and determined, and all sentences pronounced by the Bishop. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall call in the Bishop of some other Diocese, who shall be requested, and is hereby authorized, to act therein, and proceed in the same manner as the Bishop of this Diocese would be authorized to do.

SEC. II.—The Bishop having received the judgment of the Court, it shall be his duty to inform the accused of the sentence thereof and call upon him to show reason, if any, why the judgment should not be sustained. He may receive from him any statement in mitigation of sentence.

SEC. III.—The Bishop having reviewed and adjudged upon the case, shall proceed to pronounce such sentence as may be proper, not exceeding in severity that recommended by the Court. Such sentence shall be pronounced in the presence of any three Presbyters of the Diocese, after notice to the party of the time and place appointed therefor, and publicly in a Church, or privately, as the Bishop shall determine.

SEC. IV.—A copy of a sentence of suspension shall be sent to the accused, and another to the Vestry or Vestries of the Church or Churches with which he may be canonically connected, and such other publicity may be given to it as the Bishop may think expedient.

SEC. V.—The Ecclesiastical Authority, after the final decision, shall transmit all the papers, with such decision, to the Clerk of the Court, whose duty it shall be to record an abstract of the proceedings, including the final judgment and sentence in full, in a book kept for that purpose.

CANON 8.

Of Differences between Ministers and Congregations.

SECTION I.—[1.] In cases of controversy between any Rector or Assistant Minister of any Church or Parish, and the Vestry, Trustees, or Congregation thereof, which cannot be settled by the parties themselves, and is such as to injure the peace and prosperity of the Parish or the Church, the said parties, or either of them, may make a written application to the Ecclesiastical Authority for decision thereupon.

[2.] The parties may agree upon a written statement of facts, and submit the same. If not agreed upon, the application must contain a statement setting forth in substance the ground or grounds on which the interference is sought. A copy of such papers shall be served upon the other party with ten days' notice of the intention to present them. An answer in writing shall be made and delivered.

[3.] When a statement is agreed upon, or no answer is made, or the case shall clearly appear to require no further inquiry as to facts, the Ecclesiastical Authority shall pass upon the same, and if a dissolution of the pastoral relation be deemed necessary, may recommend to such Pastor or Minister to relinquish his titles, on such conditions as shall appear reasonable.

[4.] Whenever further inquiry shall be deemed expedient, or if, when an answer is filed, either party shall demand it, the Ecclesiastical Authority, being a Bishop, shall transmit the papers to the Standing Committee, for action upon the same.

SEC. II.—[1.] The Standing Committee in such case, as well as when the application is to said Committee as the Ecclesiastical Authority, shall thereupon designate three of its members, one of whom shall be a Layman, to inquire into the facts and take evidence thereon. Ten days' notice of the time place where such inquiry is to be held shall be given to each

The testimony so taken shall be reported to the Standing Committee, who, after considering the same, shall recommend to the Bishop such action as they deem proper to be taken in the premises.

[.] The Bishop, if he approves the recommendation of the Standing Committee, shall declare a final judgment in accordance therewith, giving ten days' notice to each party of the time and place of announcing the same.

c. III.—[1.] If the final judgment in any case be a recommendation that the pastoral relations be dissolved, and that titles be relinquished by the Minister, and he shall refuse to comply with the same within thirty days after the decision shall be made in favor of him, the Bishop may proceed to declare the canonical communion of all connection between the parties.

[.] And if the Vestry or Congregation refuse or neglect to comply on their part with such decision or judgment, the Minister shall be prohibited from a representation in the Diocesan Convention until they submit thereto.

ARTICLE III.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

CANON 1.

Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports.

SECTION I.—[1.] According to Section V, Canon 12, Title 1 of the Digest, each Clergyman of this Church shall keep a register of baptisms, confirmations, communicants, marriages and burials within his cure, agreeably to such rules as may be prescribed by the Constitution of the Diocese where his cure lies.

[.] The Register so to be kept by him shall specify the place and time of the birth of the child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors; the name of the adult baptized, and the names of the witnesses; the names of the parties married; the names of the persons buried, and also the time when each rite was performed.

[3.] These entries shall be made by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose, belonging to the Vestry of each Church, which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the records of the Church.

[4.] The list of communicants shall embrace all within the minister's cure, as nearly as can be ascertained; and he shall also keep a list of all the families and adult persons within his cure, as far as practicable; and also an accurate list of the persons confirmed, from time to time, by the Bishop.

SEC. II.—Every Minister of this Church shall present, or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every Annual Convention, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, if there be no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a statement of the number of baptisms, confirmations, marriages and funerals, the number of communicants, the contributions for Diocesan, Missionary and other Church objects, in his Parish, and any other matters that may throw light on the state of the same; and in reporting the number of communicants he shall distinguish the additions, removals and deaths since the last report.

CANON 2.

Of Preparing a Report on the State of the Church.

Pursuant to Section V, Canon 15, Title I, of the Digest, the Secretary of the Convention, with such aid as he may require, shall, after the stated Convention next before every stated meeting of the General Convention, assist the Bishop and Standing Committee in preparing a list of the Clergy to be presented to the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

CANON 3.

Of Vacant Parishes.

a Parish becomes vacant it shall be the duty of ive immediate notice thereof to the Ecclesiastical

CANON 4.

Of Repealed Canons.

OF THE DIOCESE OF LONG ISLAND.

1. At the opening of each Annual Convention, after Morning Prayer, Sermon, and the administration of the Holy Communion, the PRESIDENT shall take the chair; after which the order of Procedure shall be as follows:

1. The Secretary, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of absence or inability to act, or, of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of Clergy entitled to seats.

2. He shall call over the Churches entitled to representation, when Lay Delegates shall present their certificates, which certificates shall be examined by the Secretary and a Committee of two members appointed by the Presiding Officer. Irregular or defective certificates, and certificates or documents referring to contested seats, shall be temporarily laid aside. The names of the Lay Delegates duly appointed shall then be called; after which the certificates and documents laid aside shall be reported to the Convention, which shall decide on the admission of the deputies named therein.

3. A constitutional quorum (fifteen Clergymen and fifteen Delegates) being present, the President shall declare the Convention organized for business, which shall proceed in the following order:

4. The election of a Secretary and Treasurer, the former of whom shall have power to nominate an Assistant Secretary.

5. The appointment of six Standing Committees by the President:

- (1.) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, one Clergyman and two Laymen, reports from which Committee may be in order at any time during the session of the Convention.
- (2.) On the Diocesan Fund, two Clergymen and two Laymen, with the Treasurer.
- (3.) On the Treasurer's Report, three Laymen.
- (4.) On the Theological Seminary, two Clergymen and three Laymen.
- (5.) On Canons, at least two Clergymen and two Laymen.
- (6.) On the Church Charity Foundation and other Benevolent Institutions, one Clergyman and two Laymen.

6. The appointment of Inspectors of Elections—one Clergyman and one Layman for the Clerical Votes, and one Clergyman and one Layman for the Lay Votes—for the Standing Committee, the Missionary Committee, the Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and the Deputies to the Federate Council.

7. Nominations for Election, without remarks.

8. The Annual Address of the Bishop shall be at any time in order.

9. The receiving and referring, when necessary, of Reports, other than those of Special Committees, which may have been handed in to the Secretary.

10. Miscellaneous Business.

II. On the second day, the Order of Business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.

2. Receiving Certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.

3. Calling over the names of members not present on the first day.

4. The Election of the Standing Committee, the Missionary Committee, the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention and the Deputies to the Federate Council.

5. The appointment of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and supplying vacancies, if any, in the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.

6. Report of the Secretary when any business has been committed to that officer.

7. Report of the Standing Committee.

8. Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

9. Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.

10. Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

11. Report of the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese of Long Island.

12. Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.

13. Report of the Standing Committee on the Theological Seminary.

14. Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.

15. Report of the Standing Committee on the Salary of the Bishop.

16. Report of the Standing Committee on the Church Charity Foundation and other Benevolent Institutions.

17. Report of the Standing Committee on Christian Education.

18. Report of the Committee on the Cathedral Library.

19. Reports of Special Committees.

20. Miscellaneous Business.

III. On the third and any subsequent day, the Order of Business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.
2. Receiving the Certificates of the Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present before.
4. Reports not presented the preceding day, in order.
5. Miscellaneous Business.

IV. If the prescribed Order of Business on any day should not have been gone through with, the first business on the succeeding day shall be the matters which had not been reached and finished on the preceding day, and in the Order for that day prescribed; this rule shall not apply to miscellaneous business.

V. If the President ex-officio is not present at the opening of the Convention, the Secretary shall call the Convention to order, when the senior Presbyter present, being entitled to a seat, shall take the chair; and in such case, immediately after the organization of the Convention, a President shall be elected by ballot from among the Presbyters.

VI. Before the rising of the Convention, the minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

VII. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church; Clergymen belonging in this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention; Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

VIII. The hours of each day's session shall be from 9 A.M. to 12:30 P.M., and from 1:30 P.M. to 5 P.M., and when ordered by the Convention from 7 to 10 P.M.

IX. The mode of conducting the stated Elections by ballot shall be as follows:

Immediately after nominations are closed on the first day, the Secretary shall prepare all ballots for the several offices and committees to be filled, containing the names of all persons nominated therefor, in alphabetical order, and stating the number of names to be voted for such office or committee, which ballots shall be on the Secretary's desk, for distribution at the opening of the Convention on the second day.

Voters shall prepare their ballots by striking out the names of those for whom they do not vote, leaving uncanceled not more than the number to be elected by the ballot voted.

Nothing herein shall prevent the voting of any ballot that may be presented.

No ballot shall be counted by the Inspectors which contains more names uncanceled than the number required to fill the office or committee for which the ballot is cast.

X. No Motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and, when required, reduced to writing.

XI. When a Question is before the Convention, no Motion, except as hereinafter provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table, to postpone it indefinitely, to postpone it to a certain time, to commit it or to amend it; which Motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a Motion to strike out the word "Resolved" shall have precedence of a Motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the Resolution.

XII. All Amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed Amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made; no after Amendment to such second Amendment shall be in order.

XIII. A Motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIV. A Motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate. A Motion to fix the hour or day to which the Convention shall adjourn takes precedence of a Motion to adjourn, and shall be decided without debate.

XV. The Mover may withdraw a Motion or Resolution at any time before decision or Amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

XVI. If a Question under debate contain several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided, at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

XVII. No member may speak more than twice on the same Question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XVIII. Every member present shall vote whenever a Question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XIX. The Votes shall be taken by Ayes and Noes, and by Orders, whenever called for by five members.

XX. In taking the Vote by Orders, it shall be the right of every member of a Delegation, who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the Delegation, to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XXI. A Question being decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session, without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, nor without the Motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the first decision. No Question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XXII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XXIII. The Reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance. They shall be entered on the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. Recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a Resolution Resolutions for its consideration.

XXIV. When a member is called to order by the President or another member, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. All Questions of order shall be determined in the first instance by the President; but any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair; and on such appeal no member shall speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

XXV. All Questions relating to priority of business shall be decided without debate.

XXVI. The prescribed Order of Business shall not be departed from, nor shall any Rule of Order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

XXVII. The majority of a Quorum shall always be required to elect any Officer.

FORMS OF BEQUEST.

I. TO THE CHURCH CHARITY FOUNDATION.

I give and bequeath to the "CHURCH CHARITY FOUNDATION OF LONG ISLAND," incorporated in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-one, in the County of Kings, and State of New York, pursuant to the "Act for the Incorporation of Benevolent, Charitable, Scientific and Missionary Societies," passed April 12, 1848, the sum of.....to be applied to the uses and purposes of said Society.

N. B.—If it be wished that the bequest should be applied wholly to any one of the charities of the Foundation, say, "to be applied to the uses and purposes (here name the charity—as the 'Home for the Aged,' the 'Orphan House,' or 'St. John's Hospital,' etc., as the case may be), of said Society." Or if it be wished to found a new charity, not already established on, but within the scope and object of the Foundation, say, "to be applied to the founding of an institution for (here name the object) under the care and management of said Society."

II. TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE ESTATE BELONGING TO THE DIOCESE OF LONG ISLAND.

[Of Real Estate.]

I give and devise to "THE TRUSTEES OF THE ESTATE BELONGING TO THE DIOCESE OF LONG ISLAND," the lot or parcel of ground situated in

To have and to hold the same upon trust for the Church or Congregation known as.....in the
.....of.....in the County of.....State of New York, and to hold and manage the same, and to apply the rents, issues and profits thereof for the benefit and use of the above-named Church or Congregation, so long as the same shall conform with the canons, rules, regulations and usages of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Long Island, and with power to convey such premises to said Church or Congregation, to be held and enjoyed by the same so long as said beneficiary shall conform with the said canons, rules and regulations: and upon failure or violation thereof, then to be held and applied upon the like trust for the use of any other Church or Congregation or Society so conforming, in said Diocese, that said Corporation may appoint or select.

[Of Money or Personal Estate.]

As above, specifying the sum of money or particular personal property, and substituting Interest and Income for rents and profits.

Proceedings of the Thirty-seventh Convention.

THE FIRST DAY.

May 26, 1903.

On Tuesday, May 26th, the day named in the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Long Island for the Annual Convention of the same, a number of the Clergy and Laity assembled in the Cathedral, Garden City, the place appointed by the Bishop.

The Communion Office was begun by the Reverend PAUL F. FETT, Precentor of the Cathedral, the Reverend Dr. ROBERT GERS, reading the Epistle, and the Rev. Dr. JAS. CLARENCE NES, reading the Gospel. The Reverend Dr. LINDSAY PARKER preaching the sermon.

During the singing of the Offertory Hymn, the alms were received for Diocesan Missions.

The Celebrant, the Right Reverend the Bishop, was assisted in the distribution of the Holy Communion by the Rev. Drs. CHE, JONES and ROGERS, and Canon SWETT.

At the close of the Service, the members of the Convention assembled in the Nave of the Cathedral, the Right Reverend the Bishop in the Chair.

The First Day.

The Secretary proceeded to call the names of the Clergy of the Diocese entitled to seats. One hundred and ten answered to their names and took their seats.*

The President appointed a Committee on Credentials, consisting of the Secretary, the Rev. Dr. JAMES CLARENCE JONES and Mr. HENRY E. PIERREPONT.

The list of Churches entitled to representation was read. The certificates of the Lay Delegates having been examined by the Committee on Credentials, their names were called by the Secretary. Delegates from seventy-four parishes took their seats.*

A Constitutional Quorum being present, the President declared the Convention duly organized for business. The Rev. Dr. Jones nominated the Rev. Dr. Rogers for Secretary of the Convention. Upon motion of Rev. Dr. Alsop the vote by ballot was unanimously dispensed with, and no objection being offered, the Convention instructed the Assistant Secretary to cast one ballot for the election of the Rev. Dr. Rogers as Secretary.

The ballot was cast, and the Rev. Dr. Rogers declared elected.

Upon motion of the Rev. Dr. Rogers, the Rev. Horace R. Fell was elected Assistant Secretary.

The Rev. Dr. Rogers nominated Mr. Alexander E. Orr for Treasurer of the Diocese. Upon motion of the Hon. John A. Nichols, the vote by ballot was dispensed with, and, no objection being offered, the Convention instructed the Secretary to cast one ballot for the election of Mr. Alexander E. Orr as Treasurer of the Diocese. The Secretary cast the ballot, and Mr. Orr was declared elected.

The President then announced the appointment of the following Standing Committees:

On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches.

Rev. FREDERIC W. NORRIS. Mr. A. H. MAN.
Mr. HARRINGTON PUTNAM.

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE ESTATE BELONGING TO THE DIOCESE OF LONG ISLAND.

Since their last report (see Journal of the Convention of 1902, page 117) the Trustees have received the following:

No. 76. A deed from Sarah Elizabeth Maurice and Margaret Jane Maurice, dated July 2, 1902, which removes certain restrictions contained in deed No. 16 from James Maurice to the Trustees conveying a tract of land known as the Font Maur property, and which also removes certain restrictions contained in deed No. 59 from Sarah Elizabeth, Mary Ann, and Margaret Jane Maurice to the Trustees relative to the same property.

NOTE—This deed is withheld from record for the present for reasons set forth by our counsel in a letter filed with the deed.

A. E. ORR,

BROOKLYN, May 25, 1903.

Treasurer.

A. E. ORR,

BROOKLYN, May 25, 1903.

Treasurer.

The First Day.

The Treasurer offered the following resolution:

The Treasurer having reported to the Convention that some of the parishes of this Diocese are in arrears to the Bishop's Salary and Diocesan Funds and have stated their inability to make payment in full, therefore, it is

Resolved, That the Treasurer is hereby authorized to compromise these obligations in such manner as in his judgment will best serve the interests of all concerned.

The resolution was adopted.

The following resolution was offered by the Treasurer, A. E. ORR, seconded by Rev. Dr. ROGERS:

Resolved, That until otherwise ordered, the yearly assessment for the Bishop's Salary Fund shall be equal to two per cent., and for the Diocesan Fund equal to two and one-half per cent. of the stipend paid to the Rector or Minister-in-charge of each Parish or Congregation of this Diocese.

Rev. Dr. ALSOP moved to amend the motion so as to read, "and for the Diocesan Fund equal to two per cent. of the stipend paid, etc."

Upon vote being taken, the amendment was lost, and the original motion carried.

The following resolution was offered by Mr. A. E. ORR, to be brought before the Convention after the Bishop's Address had been delivered:

Resolved, That the consent of this Diocese through its Convention is hereby given to the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese of Long Island, to sell or rent in such manner as they may consider best, the property known as Font Maur, in the County of Queens and City of New York, provided, however, that the unanimous consent of the said Trustees must first be had in writing and spread upon the minutes by the Clerk of said Trustees before any such sale or renting can be made.

The First Day.

The Bishop then read his annual address, which is printed in full of this journal.

[Hon. JOHN A. NICHOLS moved that so much of the address as relates to the change of name of this Church, be referred to a Committee consisting of two clergymen and two laymen to be appointed by the President, said Committee to report on the following day immediately after the opening of the Convention.]

The motion was carried.

President appointed:

Rev. J. H. DARLINGTON.	Hon. J. A. NICHOLS.
Rev. R. F. ALSOP.	Hon. P. R. JENNINGS.

The President's resolution regarding the Font Maur property was carried.

[LYNDERSE moved to amend the resolution by inserting the word "rent," the words "as a whole or in convenient places." Mr. ORR accepted the amendment, and the resolution was carried.]

Reverend BRYAN offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a Committee of two clergymen and two laymen be appointed to take into consideration some plan by which we can express its appreciation of the gift of a layman, the Diocesan House in Brooklyn has been possible. The resolution was adopted.

President appointed:

Dr. J. C. JONES.	Mr. A. E. ORR.
Dr. SAMUEL COX.	Mr. F. A. PARSONS.

President then announced that nominations were in for vacancies in the Standing Committee, one Clerical and one Lay member for four years, and one Lay member for three

Mr. J. W. EATON.

The nominations were closed.

The Rev. Dr. JONES offered his resignation as Registrar of the Diocese of Long Island, and nominated for that office
Rev. HENRY MESIER.

The First Day.

Rev. Mr. NEWBOLD offered the following resolution, referred to the Committee on Canons:

Resolved: That the Committee on Canons be requested to amend Canon 3, Sections I and II and report, if deemed expedient, a revised Canon with a view to dispense with roll call of and Lay Delegates at the organization of the Convention in order to economize time.

Whereupon the convention adjourned to Wednesday morn-

The Second Day.

WEDNESDAY, May 27th.

Morning Prayer was read by the Rev. SAMUEL COX, D.D., Dean of the Cathedral.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment, the Rt. Rev. the Bishop, presiding.

The minutes and proceedings of the first day were read.

The Rev. Dr. ALSOP moved that the Secretary be instructed to omit all titles except Right Reverend and Reverend in mention of the Clergy. The motion was seconded by the Rev. Dr. ROCHE.

After some discussion, the Rev. Mr. WARD moved that the motion of the Rev. Dr. ALSOP be laid on the table. A division being called for by Hon. JOHN A. NICHOLS, the Rev. Mr. WARD's motion was declared carried by a vote of 62 to 54.

Upon motion of the Rev. Dr. ROCHE the minutes were declared approved.

The Rev. Dr. ROCHE offered the following resolution:

Resolved: That inasmuch as inaccuracies, growing out of the absence of records between the death of Bishop LITTLEJOHN and the consecration of Bishop BURGESS, have crept into the Record of Ordinations found on page 212 of the last Convention Journal, the list of Ordinations in the Journal of this Convention, present in accurate form the Ordinations in the Diocese during the year 1901, the material to read as follows:

ORDINATIONS.

THE CATHEDRAL, ON TRINITY SUNDAY, JUNE 2, 1901, BY THE RT. REV. A. N. LITTLEJOHN, D.D., LL.D., BISHOP OF LONG ISLAND.

CHARLES HENRY WEBB, Deacon.
HENRY RUTGERS REMSEN, Deacon.
Rev. B. OAKLEY BALDWIN, Priest.
Rev. PERCIVAL M. WOOD, Priest.
(Acting for the Bishop of West Missouri.)
EARLE H. MERRIMAN, Deacon.

THE CATHEDRAL, ON ST. THOMAS' DAY, DECEMBER 21, 1901, BY THE RT. REV. GEORGE WORTHINGTON, D.D., BISHOP OF NEBRASKA.

WILLIAM D. PERRY, Deacon.
HENRY CLAY BRIGGS, Deacon.

The resolution was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. ROCHE offered the following resolution:

Resolved: That the Title Page of the Journal for 1903 contain these words after the date: "Including a corrected list of Ordinations during the year 1901."

The resolution was adopted.

Mr. LITCHFIELD offered the following resolution:

Resolved: That the name of the Rev. A. B. Kinsolving be added to the list of nominees of Trustees of "The Diocesan Missions of Long Island," and that the Rules of Order be dispensed with for that purpose.

The Rev. Mr. KINSOLVING requested that his name be not considered for the office, and the motion was lost.

The Committee appointed to consider and report upon the portion of the Bishop's Address referring to the change of name of the Church, presented the following report:

"The Special Committee, to whom was referred so much of the Bishop's Address as relates to the change of the name of the

The Second Day.

Church, beg leave to report:—That they record with much satisfaction their unanimous approval of the conclusion of the Bishop, and they offer the following resolution:

Resolved: That this Convention deem it uncalled for and inexpedient to make any change in the present title of the Church."

The Rev. Dr. ROCHE moved the adoption of this resolution, and was seconded by the Rev. Dr. ROGERS.

Mr. LITCHFIELD moved to amend the resolution to read, "It is the sense of this Convention that a change in the name of the Church is not necessary at this time."

After prolonged discussion the question was put, and Mr. Litchfield's amendment was lost.

A vote by Orders on the original resolution resulted as follows:

Clerical—Aye, 61; No, 22.

Lay—Aye, 33; No, 6.

The resolution was declared adopted.

The Convention then proceeded to elect members to fill vacancies in the Standing Committee; and Trustees of "The Diocesan Missions of Long Island."

While the Inspectors were counting the ballots the Convention proceeded with the transaction of business, as follows:

The Rev. Dr. ALSOP reported for the Committee on Canons and offered the following resolution:

Resolved: That Art. 3, Sec. 2 of the Constitution be amended by adding to it the following words:

"No clergyman, however, shall be a member of this Convention unless he has been canonically resident in this Diocese for the period of three months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention."

This was approved at the last Convention, but under Art. 8 of the Constitution must be approved by a vote by Orders at this Convention, therefore Resolved: That this now be put upon its passage.

The resolution was carried, and the amendment was adopted unanimously by a rising vote of both Clergy and Laity, taken by rders.

The Inspectors of Election reported the unanimous election the Rev. Dr. Swentzel and Mr. Alexander E. Orr as members the Standing Committee to serve four years. They reported the sult of the balloting for a lay member of the Standing Committee serve three years, as follows:

Clerical Vote.

on. Augustus Van Wyck, 49.
Charles Pickslay, 6.
Edward N. Townsend, 8.
R. Jennings, 25.

Lay Vote.

Hon Augustus Van Wyck, 17.
Charles Pickslay, 5.
Edward N. Townsend, 6.
P. R. Jennings, 13.

There being no election, the President ordered another ballot be taken.

While the Inspectors were counting the ballots the Conven- proceeded with the transaction of business as follows:

Rev. Dr. ALSOP, for Committee on Canons, reports:

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the mo- n made by Rev. Robert Kimber that Art. 3, Sec. 2 of the nstitution be amended by striking out the words "two Com- ttees of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society," and erting instead "Board of Managers," respectfully reported a commendation that the proposition be approved and lie over for tion at the next Convention. This was approved, and now, der Art. 8 of the Constitution, this needs to be approved at is Convention. Therefore,

Resolved: That this be put upon its second passage.

The resolution was carried and the amendment was adopted unanimously by a rising vote of both Clergy and Laity taken by rders.

Rev. Dr. ALSOP, for Committee on Canons, reports:

The Committee on Canons recommended the adoption of the llowing amendment to Subdivision 1 of Sec. 1 of Canon 8, rt. 2, so that it shall read:

The Second Day.

SECTION 1 [1]. "In cases of controversy between any rector or assistant minister of any Church or Parish and the Vestry or Trustees, which cannot be settled by the parties themselves, and is such as to injure the peace and prosperity of the Parish or the Church, the said parties, or either of them, may make a written application to the Ecclesiastical Authority for decision thereupon."

This called forth discussion. The point of the amendment was the omission of the word "Congregation"—depriving it, or any part thereof, as distinguished from the Vestry or Trustees, of the right to apply for relief. On motion, the matter was referred back to the Committee on Canons, which Committee on further consideration offers the following:

Resolved: That the Committee be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

The resolution was adopted.

The Bishop appointed the following members of the Ecclesiastical Court:

The Ecclesiastical Court.

Committee.

The Report and the resolution accompanying it were unanimously adopted by the Convention.

The Rev. Dr. ALSOP reports for the Committee on Canons as follows:

The Committee on Canons, to whom was referred the motion of Rev. Mr. Newbold suggesting that the Committee devise some plan by which time can be saved, which is now spent in the long roll-call of Clergy, Parishes and Delegates, respectfully report: that they have had the same under consideration and as at present advised are not prepared to recommend any change from the present mode of procedure.

As, however, they are advised that in other Dioceses a method has been found to escape the difficulty, they offer the following resolution:

Resolved: That a Committee of three be created, of which the mover of the resolution shall be the chairman, whose duty it shall be to obtain and report to the next Convention what information they can gather.

The resolution was carried.

The Rev. Dr. DARLINGTON reported for the Committee on Clerical Support as follows:

The Committee on Clerical Support would report that they have had but two applications for relief during the year, one of ision by which funds may be provided for gifts to needy ymen who may apply.

JAMES H. DARLINGTON,

JOHN A. NICHOLS,

WILHELMUS MYNDERSE.

The Rev. Dr. ROGERS moved that the Committee be dis-ged. The motion was carried.

The Rev. Dr. ROGERS offered the following resolution:

Whereas: St. Barnabas Church, Bushwick Avenue, Brook-has been discontinued,

Resolved: That the Registers and Records of St. Barnabas ch, Bushwick Avenue, Brooklyn, be secured for the Diocese, ne Registrar, and preserved among its documents.

The resolution was adopted.

The Rev. A. B. KINSOLVING presented and read the report

Report

THE STANDING COMMITTEE OF LONG ISLAND TO THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION

MAY 26, 1903.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Long Island leave to present the following report:

The Committee organized on September 25, 1902, at the s of the Church Club, No. 26 Court Street, Brooklyn, by the on of the Rev. H. C. Swentzel as President and Rev. Mr. olving as Secretary.

The Secretary of the Diocesan Convention certified to that e Standing Committee the election of the Rev. J. G. Bac-
D.D., and Mr. A. C. Humphreys to serve for four years.

The Second Day.

An application from the Vestry of St. Jude's Church, Blythebourne, for leave to mortgage its property on Fifty-fifth Street near Thirteenth Avenue for $1,200 to pay off a loan of $1,600, $400 to be carried to the floating debt, was carried.

Consent was given St. George's Church, Astoria, to sell a piece of property owned by that Church provided a favorable report be received by a sub-committee appointed to make further investigation into the matter.

Consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Charles Tyler Olmsted, S.D.T., to be Bishop-Coadjutor of the Diocese of Central New York.

Mr. Benjamin Mottram was recommended as a candidate for Holy Orders.

A letter was received from Mr. A. C. Humphreys, of New York, saying that as he had accepted the Presidency of Stevens Institute, Hoboken, it would be impossible for him to serve as a member of the Standing Committee of Long Island, and asking Counsel of the Committee as to the most convenient time for him to withdraw. The Secretary was directed to reply that in view of the time required for a new member to become conversant with the duties of a committeeman, it would be wiser, if Mr. Humphreys finds it impossible to serve, to withdraw now rather than at a later time.

Rev. Dr. Swentzel and Mr. Mynderse were appointed a sub-committee on the memorial to Bishop Littlejohn.

October 9, 1902.—A petition was presented from the Rector, Churchwardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Bay Ridge, to be allowed to sell to the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company, or its representative, a strip of land forty feet deep on the front of the property, being the entire front of the Church property on Third Avenue, and including the Church and Sunday School Buildings. The Rector and a Committee of Vestrymen were present to urge the desirability of the step, the Bishop's consent was given, and the sale was authorized, the Secretary being instructed to sign the proper papers.

The Second Day.

October 22, 1902.—Mr. A. C. Humphreys sent a letter regarding his election to the Committee, and it was accepted with thanks for the necessity which occasioned it. On motion, Dr. Metzger and Mr. Mynderse were appointed a Committee to nominate a successor to Mr. Humphreys November 28, 1902.

Consent was given and the proper papers signed for the consecration of the Rev. Sheldon M. Griswold, D.D., to be Missionary Bishop of Selina, and the Rev. Charles M. Beckwith, to be Bishop of Alabama.

Permission was given the Corporation of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, to sell certain lots located in Minneapolis, Minn., also to sell the house 216 South Fifth Street, Brooklyn, to transfer a mortgage without interest held by Trinity Church, New York, on the property of the Church of St. Mark, Brooklyn, on South Fifth Street, to the new property of the Church at the corner of Eastern Parkway and Brooklyn Avenue.

A letter was presented from the Rev. Dr. Babbitt asking certain official action by this Committee in reference to the mortgage upon the Church of the Epiphany, and the President authorized to reply that while members of the Committee were much interested in his statement, it was decided that the existing Committee was not competent to take such official action as was desired. There was a unanimous expression of wishes for the success of his endeavors.

After careful deliberation, the Hon. Augustus Van Wyck was nominated and unanimously elected a member of the Committee.

February 2, 1903.—Consent was given to the Corporation of the Church, Whitestone, L. I., to place a mortgage of $3,000 on its real property situated on Eleventh Avenue, Whitestone, and $3,000 to be used in payment and discharge of indebtedness upon the said Church.

Permission was given to the Corporation known as the Diocese of Long Island to mortgage the Cathedral property of St. Mary's, Dunton, in a sum not exceeding $3,800, to secure funds for the erection of a Rectory, to cost $2,000, and to retire an existing mortgage of $1,800.

March 2, 1903.—The Corporation of Trinity Church, East New York, were given consent to accept an offer of $225 for a building lot at Union Course, East New York, the proceeds to be applied to the uses of the Corporation.

The Corporation of Calvary Church, in the village of Williamsburg, were given leave to sell all its real estate situated on Marcy Avenue and South Ninth Street, Brooklyn, to the Young Men's Christian Association, for the sum of $38,500, the proceeds of the sale to be used in the payment and discharge of mortgages now liens, on said property, for the payment of the floating indebtedness of the said Church, the balance to be applied toward the purchase of such other property for a Church and Rectory as they shall think for the best interests of Calvary Church.

The Corporation of St. Barnabas Church, Brooklyn, were given leave to sell the real estate of that Church, situated on Greene and Bushwick Avenues, to the "Corporation of Calvary Church, in the village of Williamsburg," for the sum of $17,000, said sum to be used to pay off the Church indebtedness.

April 13, 1903.—Garrett Leroy Allen was recommended as a candidate for Holy Orders and the proper papers signed, his candidacy being ordered to date from April 1st.

The Bishop of the Diocese was present and held a consultation with the Committee in regard to the situation of affairs in the Parish at Sheepshead Bay, with a view to ascertaining a practicable and canonical method of procedure in the matter of the differences existing between the Rector and a part of the Vestry in that parish.

May 22, 1903.—A petition was presented from the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of Grace Church, Riverhead, Long Island, to be allowed to sell the Rectory property for $3,200, and stating the reasons therefor. As this property is held by the trustees of the estate belonging to the Diocese, it was resolved that consent be given to the sale as requested, provided, first: that the deed be found to admit of this disposition; and, second, that the proceeds of the sale be used to provide another Rectory as per the resolution of the Vestry of Grace Church.

The application of Mr. John H. Chapman to be recommended to the Bishop as a candidate for Holy Orders, was presented, with letters from the late Bishop of Virginia and Bishop Gibson, his successor. The proper papers were ordered to be signed, on condition that the required letter from the Bishop of Long Island be presented.

The papers relating to the controversy between the Wardens and certain Vestrymen of St. Matthias Church, Sheepshead Bay, and the Rector, Thomas A. Hyde, were transmitted by the Bishop to the Standing Committee, and upon motion a sub-committee, consisting of Dr. Swentzel, Mr. Orr and Mr. Mynderse, was designated to inquire into the facts and take evidence thereon, such testimony to be reported to a future meeting of the Committee.

ARTHUR B. KINSOLVING,
Secretary.

The Rev. A. B. KINSOLVING presented and read the Report of the Committee on the American Church Building Fund:

AMERICAN CHURCH BUILDING FUND.

The Commissioners of the American Church Building Fund and the Diocesan Committee appointed by the Bishop beg to make the following report:

The contributions received for this fund from May 12th, 1902, to May 25th, 1903, amount to $5,558.69. Twenty-five Parishes have contributed. The above includes the named fund of $5,000 from a member of Grace Church, Brooklyn Heights. There have been three such funds established by members of this Diocese since the inception of the organization. Deducting this, there has been a slight falling off during the year, but this is due to the number of parishes that have now approached or exceeded their quota. Among the largest contributors for the past year have been St. Ann's and St. Luke's Churches, Brooklyn, and the Cathedral of the Incarnation, Garden City. The principal of the fund now amounts to $380,593.87. This principal has grown $9,000 during the past year, and as the fund increases the Trustees are enabled to make more gifts out of the interest account toward the erection of Churches rather than loans from the principal sum. This policy tends to make friends for the Commission, while the efforts to collect from weak and struggling parishes the loan made out of the principal of the fund often led to misunderstanding and sometimes even made enemies. Of course, the Trustees have been obliged always to protect as inviolable the principal of the fund, and hence the reason of its steady growth.

Testimonies to the great value of the fund are constantly being received. Bishop Cheshire, of North Carolina, says:

"In my judgment and in my experience the American Church Building Fund Commission is one of the most valuable adjuncts the Church has in the work of extending our missionary operations in those parts of the country where it is weakest. I have found it so much assistance that I have obtained from the Convention a repealable canon requiring an annual collection for the Diocesan Church Building Fund and the enactment in lieu thereof of a canon requiring an annual collection for the American Church Building Fund Commission."

Bishop Nelson, of Georgia, says: "I gladly testify from my own sense of gratitude to the real and repeated assistance which has been supplied to a large number of Missions in the Diocese of Georgia in which a Church building would have been simply impracticable for many years, had not the Commission come to our rescue."

Bishop Morrison, of Duluth, writes: "I have had an experience of more than six years in the Missionary Episcopate. The rule in our parishes and missions has been that we were too poor to indulge in the luxury of getting into debt. I have set my face therefore against mortgages on Church property, and have told my people we must pay as we go. In carrying out this policy the Commission has stood behind me generously and steadfastly."

The Second Day.

* * * It has never encouraged us to borrow a dollar * * * but whenever it has been within its power it has authorized me to say to the Building Committee of a new mission that the $250 or $300 needed to make a Church ready for consecration would be forthcoming, and by means of this generous promise it has stimulated my people to make heroic efforts to meet the conditions laid down. Owing to this policy, we have built and paid for Churches in many places, not one of which, I am convinced, would now be free from debt had it not been for the Commission gift."

Your Committee can only again urge the manifest need, admirable management and widely felt usefulness of this Fund to hundreds of our brethren in the Church, lay and clerical, and ask that it be made the rule in every parish, either on the second Sunday in November or at some other time, to receive an offering for the increase of the permanent principal sum.

AMERICAN CHURCH BUILDING FUND COMMISSION.

"Therefore we his servants will arise and build."—Neh. ii, 20.

Brooklyn, May 16, 1903.

The Diocesan Commissioners again ask the clergy and laity Long Island to increase their efforts for the Fund, that our Diocese may complete its quota. Last year two parishes completed their proportion, and twenty-five parishes contributed to the Fund.

Attention is invited to the founding of memorial, named, funds. This Diocese has founded three of $5,000 each.

The Fund now amounts to $380,593.78.

1. This Fund is permanent, and will continue doing its work.
2. The object is necessary to Church extension, and to the establishment of religious influences in sparsely settled portions of the land.

3. The plan is no experiment. In England the Church Building Society has done splendid work. And our own Commission can show a record of twenty-one years of faithful and efficient service.

4. The business affairs of the Commission are managed by experienced business men, elected by the Commission at large, and winning the confidence of the entire community.

5. REQUESTS ARE ASKED. FORM: I GIVE, DEVISE AND BEQUEATH TO THE "AMERICAN CHURCH BUILDING FUND COMMISSION," OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, FOR THE USES OF SAID COMMISSION, ETC.

6. PLEASE SEND CONTRIBUTIONS TO GEORGE C. THOMAS, TREASURER, CHURCH MISSIONS HOUSE, 281 FOURTH AVE., N. Y., WHO WILL RETURN RECEIPT, AND ACKNOWLEDGE IN THE SPIRIT OF MISSIONS.

Archdeacon BRYAN read the report of the Trustees of "The Diocesan Missions of Long Island," including resolutions which were carried.

ReportOF THE MISSIONARY COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESE

The report of the work of Diocesan Missions will be found in the reports of the Archdeacons hereto appended. These reports will show the missionary work of the Diocese to be in a progressive and satisfactory condition.

The Corporation of the Diocesan Missions incorporated by special act of the Legislature on April 7, 1902, and recognized by Canon 9, Sec. 1, as a Diocesan Institution, was duly organized on June 2, 1902. This corporation has the same membership and the same officers as the Missionary Committee. At this meeting Mr. Wilhelmus Mynderse was appointed Counsel to the Corporation and a set of By-Laws adopted, which are hereby appended to the report.

In accordance with the following resolution passed by the last Diocesan Convention:

"Resolved: That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of Long Island be, and that they hereby are authorized and instructed to convey the premises commonly known as 170 Remsen St., Brooklyn, unto the Diocesan Missions of Long Island, for the uses and purposes of such corporation, by instrument of conveyance in due form under the corporate seal of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of Long Island and under the hand of its appropriate officers, to the end that a full and complete title to the said premises may be vested in the

The Second Day.

Diocesan Missions of Long Island" the property now known as the Diocesan House was on August 29, 1902, deeded to the Corporation of the Diocesan Missions of Long Island. Through the liberality of Mr. Wilhelmus Mynderse the building has been beautifully and tastefully adapted to its new uses, and has already proven the wisdom of making it the centre of the Missionary, Episcopal and Diocesan activities of the Diocese. On the Festival of the Epiphany, January 6th, last, the formal Dedication of the Building took place, when in the presence of a large number of the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese the Bishop held a Service of Benediction and gave an able address on "Christian Unity." In the evening of the same day the Bishop and the Archdeacons of the Diocese held a delightful reception, which was attended by a large number of the people from all parts of the Diocese. The good effects of this Diocesan House and the occasion of its formal opening are already felt throughout the Diocese. The lasting gratitude of the Church in this Diocese is due to Mr. Mynderse, who has made this Diocesan House possible and a reality, and it is to be hoped that this Convention will give expression in some substantial way of its appreciation of the generous and noble hearted unselfishness which has prompted the expenditure of $20,000 and given time and thought to every detail connected with it. It stands as an evidence that there is such a fact as "consecrated wealth" and personal service for Christ and His Church. As Canon 9, Section 1, requires a full report of "all property received or accepted by it in trust" a list of real estate held in trust and in fee simple is here submitted:

THE CHARTER.

ACT to incorporate The Diocesan Missions of Long Island and to define its objects and powers in the missionary work of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Long Island.

came a law April 7, 1902, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Long Island, the Archdeacon of each Arch-conry in said Diocese, and the other persons who compose the Missionary Committee of the said Church in said Diocese, and their successors duly elected and appointed in the manner herein prescribed, are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate as a missionary society. The persons above designated are constituted the first Trustees of said corporation, to serve until their successors are duly elected and appointed.

SEC. 2. The name of said corporation shall be "The Diocesan Missions of Long Island," and by that name the said corporation shall have perpetual succession. The Bishop of the Diocese shall be the President of said corporation. The Trustees of said corporation shall have general direction and control of the property and subject to approval by the Convention of the said Church in said Diocese shall have power to adopt by-laws for the regulation of its officers and affairs. They shall elect a vice-president, treasurer, secretary and such other officers as they may require.

SEC. 3. The objects of said corporation shall be to hold, administer and care for all property with which it may be entrusted or which it may acquire for the conduct of missionary operations of the Protestant Episcopal Church in said Diocese, the support of missionaries of said Church in said Diocese and the building and maintenance of mission churches of said Church in said Diocese. and to use such property and the income thereof for such purposes, subject to the supervision and control of the Convention of said Church in said Diocese.

SEC. 4. The Trustees of said corporation shall be the Bishop of the Diocese for the time being, the Archdeacon of each Archdeaconry of the Diocese for the time being, each of whom shall be a trustee by virtue of his office, and such other persons, not exceeding two in each Archdeaconry, and of whom at least six shall be laymen, as may be elected by the Convention of said Church in said Diocese. The Trustees other than those who are trustees by virtue of their offices shall be elected annually by the Convention, and any vacancies occurring among the elected Trustees by death, resignation or removal from the Diocese may be filled by appointment made by the remaining Trustees, and the persons so appointed shall hold office until the next Convention.

SEC. 5. It shall be lawful for said corporation to take and to hold by gift, grant, devise, bequest or purchase for its purposes real and personal estate, provided the yearly value or income of the same shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars, but said corporation shall have no power to convey or mortgage any of its real estate so held unless and until such conveyance or mortgage shall be directed or authorized by the Convention of said Church in said Diocese, by resolution or minute entered upon the journal of said Convention.

SEC. 6. Further, it shall be lawful for said corporation, and said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to take and to hold by gift, grant, devise or bequest, any estate, real or personal, upon trust for the occupation, use or benefit of any mission congregation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in said Diocese, and to apply any rents or income arising therefrom to the use of such mission congregation, and to mortgage or convey any real estate so acquired and held, unless in contravention of the trust, provided, however, that no mortgage of any such real estate shall be made, except a mortgage to secure funds for the erection, enlargement or repair of a building thereon for the use of a mission congregation, and then only with the consent of th shop and Standing Committee of the Diocese, and provided that conveyance of any such real estate shall be made, unless authorized by the Convention of said Church in the Diocese, except to a duly incorporated Parish of the Protestant Episcopal Church growing out of the mission congregation occupying such real estate, and then only with the consent of the ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese.

SEC. 7. The legislature may at any time amend or repeal this act.

SEC. 8. This act shall take effect immediately.

Office of the Secretary of State. } ss.:
STATE OF NEW YORK,

I have compared the preceding with the original law on file in this office, and do hereby certify that the same is a correct transcript therefrom of the whole of said original law.

JOHN T. McDONOUGH,
Secretary of State.

THE BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

The officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, who, under the charter of the corporation, shall be the Bishop of the Diocese, ex-officio, a Vice-President, a Second Vice-President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, each of whom shall be annually elected at the first meeting of the Trustees occurring after the regular annual Convention of the Diocese.

ARTICLE II.

Regular meetings of the Trustees shall be held in the Diocesan House, No. 170 Remsen Street, Brooklyn, on the first Monday of June, September, December, and March, and on the second Monday of May in each year.

Written notice of each of such meetings shall be mailed or delivered by the Secretary to each of the Trustees one week before the meeting.

The Second Day.

ARTICLE III.

Special meetings may be held at any time upon the call of the President, or, in case of his inability by reason of absence from the Diocese or other cause, upon the call of a Vice-President, and at any time upon the call of three Trustees.

Written notice of each of such meetings shall be mailed or delivered by the Secretary, or by the person or persons upon whose call the meeting is to be held, at least three days before the meeting, and such notice shall specify the character of the business which it is proposed to transact, and no other business shall be considered at such meeting.

Special meetings shall be held either at the Diocesan House or in Garden City.

ARTICLE IV.

A majority of the Trustees shall constitute a quorum. A quorum may be constituted by a smaller number of Trustees, not less than five, provided the Bishop be present with two Archdeacons, or provided three Archdeacons be present.

ARTICLE V.

The President shall preside at all meetings when he is present. He shall, ex-officio, be a member of all Committees. He shall have all the usual powers of a President, and shall sign all deeds, mortgages, leases, or other instruments made by the corporation.

ARTICLE VI.

The Vice-President shall preside at all meetings, in the absence of the President. He shall, when there is no President, or when the President is absent from the Diocese or disabled, have all the powers of the President. The Second Vice-President shall act in the place of the Vice-President when the latter is absent from the Diocese or disabled.

ARTICLE VII.

If neither the President or Vice-President or Second Vice-President be present at a meeting, the Trustees may elect a Chairman for the meeting.

The Second Day.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Treasurer shall receive and disburse the moneys of the corporation. He shall present an account of his receipts and disbursements at each regular meeting of the Trustees and at any special meeting at which he is called upon to make a report. He shall have custody of the deeds, mortgages, leases, and instruments of the corporation.

ARTICLE IX.

The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all meetings in a book of records. He shall issue notices for meetings and he shall have the custody of the seal of the corporation.

ARTICLE X.

The Trustees may appoint counsel to the corporation, and a deed or mortgage of real estate shall be accepted or given only if it shall have been approved as to form by such counsel.

ARTICLE XI.

Any vacancy occurring among the elected Trustees by death, resignation, or removal from the Diocese may be filled by appointment made by the remaining Trustees, and the person or persons so appointed shall hold office until the next Convention of the Diocese.

ARTICLE XII.

The Trustees shall at the first meeting after each Convention of the Diocese appoint from their members an Executive Committee of three. Between meetings of the Trustees this Committee shall have authority to accept real or personal property upon application with the written consent of the President, or of a Vice-President when the latter is authorized to act as President, and to authorize expenditures not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars for any one month.

The Committee shall report at each regular meeting of the Trustees their proceedings since the last meeting.

ARTICLE XIII.

The Trustees shall at the first meeting after each Convention of the Diocese elect from among their number a House Committee of three. This Committee shall have charge of the use, regulation, and maintenance of the Diocesan House and shall, subject to the approval of the Trustees, arrange terms upon which the several Archdeaonries and other organizations of the Diocese may use the house.

Diocese of Long Island.
The Second Day.

ARTICLE XIV.

The seal of the corporation shall be elliptical in form, carrying the words, "The Diocesan Missions of Long Island, 1902" around the coat-of-arms of the Diocese.

ARTICLE XV.

The fiscal year of the Corporation shall begin May 1st.

ARTICLE XVI.

The order of business at each meeting of the Trustees shall be

1. Prayer.
2. Roll Call.
3. Reading minutes of last preceding meeting.
4. Report of the Treasurer.
5. Reports of Standing Committees.
6. Reports of Special Committees.
7. Reports of the Archdeaonries.
8. Reading communications.
9. Elections.
10. General Business.
11. Adjournment.

ARTICLE XVII.

These by-laws or any of them may be altered or amended or repealed or further by-laws may be adopted at any time and from time to time by a vote of not less than two-thirds of the entire number of Trustees at any meeting, provided that notice of the character of the proposed alteration or amendment or repeal or addition shall have been mailed or sent to each Trustee with the regular notice of the meeting; but no such alteration, amendment, repeal, or addition shall be effective beyond the next succeeding Diocesan Convention unless approved by such Convention.

Secretary.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACONRY OF NORTHERN BROOKLYN.

The Northern Archdeaconry of Brooklyn comes to the close of its Convention year in an improved and promising condition.

It has been satisfactory, and, in some respects, unusual progress in the several departments of its work. Stagnation, standstill and lack of support, which at one time so discredited its standing in the Diocese, has been succeeded by a revival of interest and a vital complement, increase in receipts from Churches and individuals.

For the first time in a number of years, May 1st finds all stipends paid to date, and a balance on hand sufficient to tide our Archdeaconry over the dull summer season; enabling us to meet all current expenses. This is a most gratifying evidence of advance, and factually reassures our Missionaries that they will not have to wait indefinitely for an uncertain support, as in times past.

There are several reasons to account for this better state of affairs. The sympathetic leadership of our Diocesan, the character of the corporation of Diocesan Missions, thereby providing and responsible ownership for Church property held in the hands of individuals or committees; the establishment of the Diocesan House, wherein all Missionary activities may find a home; the assistance but by no means least, the faithful and efficient service of our laymen in devising ways and means, and in actually performing the labor for which our organization exists—each and all contributing to and accounting for the satisfactory result, and deserving of more than passing reference.

Dr. Geo. G. Hopkins, though rightfully tiring to some, to all has been most untiring in urging the just dues and rightful claims of the Archdeaconry upon the attention of rectors and members within our boundaries. A committee consisting of Dr. Albert D. Schenck, Messrs. L. V. Sanford and Wm. Macbeth, have been singularly successful in securing payments of assessments—in some instances getting returns from parishes that have never contributed before, and in others being rewarded by larger amounts than those sought to be collected. The result of this committee's work appears in the financial statement.

At the January meeting, the Rev. Alexander Vance, D. D., reporting for his committee, consisting of himself, as chairman, and the Rev. Geo. Henderson, Messrs. A. R. Davison, Wm. Macbeth and C. D. Wells, submitted a series of carefully considered recommendations with regard to missionary work among the foreign population of Brooklyn.

More people reside within the limits of the Northern Archdeaconry than within the areas assigned to any one of the other Archdeaconries, and the majority of them are of alien birth or parentage, representing a varied mixture of nationalities, languages and races. Many of them are of strange faiths, many of no faith or morality, out of all touch or sympathy with American institutions, and they are increasing by birth and emigration at a more rapid rate than the native element. These facts taken together are convincing of the claim that here facile princeps is the missionary field of the Diocese. A peasant, a coolie or a tribesman who has ambition sufficient to attempt to better his condition by coming to America, and who, under adverse conditions, by his thrift and industry, accumulates the funds required to pay his passage thither and satisfy the governmental inspectors that he can support himself in his new home, offers finer and more promising material for Gospel propaganda and Christian building than many thousands who, satisfied with themselves and their ancestral environment of misery, are content to sit passive all their lives amid indolence, poverty and prejudice, which are their birthright. Not that the foreign field should be deserted or neglected, but that the home field should be given the attention it deserves and at present so sadly needs.

In the case of these people we do not have to go to them; they come to us.

Hundreds and thousands, forming a perfect ethnological museum, and representing Europe, Asia, Africa and the islands of the seas, are our neighbors, within sound of our voice and touch of hand. The supreme and superb emphasis put upon the duty of the Church to work in foreign fields is out of all proportion to the work in the city tenements and among the cosmopolitan masses. Is it not a great advantage to the missionary, instead of having to go to the heathen, to have the heathen come to him? In the American city the missionary is not compelled to waste years acquiring a language before he can approach the foreigner; the latter is himself the learner, and, therefore, in a position to be the more easily cultivated. Instead of the missionary having to cross oceans, traverse continents and be a wanderer over the face of the earth in quest of the heathen, the latter does the traveling, takes up his residence in a Christian community and becomes a naturalized citizen, and yet the greater effort is made to reach him in his old home rather than in his new. The foreign work is admittedly more picturesque, but the city work is more practical and promises quicker, larger and more lasting returns. The two fields present a situation of double obligation, whereof it may be said the one ought to be worked but the other ought not to be left unworked.

The large Hebrew population in the vicinity of the Church of the Holy Comforter designates and calls this Church to be the natural and efficient agency for work among these people. Unfortunately our treasury is not in sufficient funds at present to lend a helping hand. The time must come, however, when the Archdeaconry can cooperate with the local authorities in a larger effort to cope with the peculiar conditions at this point.

Every steamer from Mediterranean ports brings large additions to the Italian colonies already flourishing in different parts of our city. Nominally these people are within the pale of the Roman communion; but many lose all affiliation with the Church when they come to America. This applies to the men especially. St. Michael's Church is well located and has adequate equipment to undertake an enlargement of its ministrations in this direction. A capable assistant, able to speak Italian, would be a desirable and necessary addition to the present force on the ground.

The number of Oriental Christians settling in Brooklyn is growing larger every year. Many of them are refugees driven from home by the persecutions of Turkish barbarity and Mohammedan fanaticism. They are thrifty and intelligent, and, in a religious sense, have much more in common with our Communion than those of the other nationalities mentioned. They are as sheep without a shepherd among us, and stand in need of pastoral care. They appreciate the privilege of public worship and respond readily to efforts made in their behalf. Negotiations are in progress with a view to providing religious services for these people. The Northern Archdeaconry has already subscribed half of the three hundred dollars required for the stipend of a competent and experienced lay-worker who can be secured for this work. It is hoped that the Southern Archdeaconry will decide to join with us in its establishment and maintenance.

The twenty-four Churches and Missions of the Archdeaconry were asked to contribute $1,905, according to the apportionments given below, and all but five have paid in full. The total amount to date (May 1st) received from Churches is $1,638.21, leaving a balance due of $266.21, some of which is promised and may be considered good.

Larger amounts may have been received in other years, but never before in any one year has every Church within our territory made a contribution to Diocesan Missions, and never before have all paid in full with four exceptions. These are facts to call forth thankfulness and congratulation.

Apportionments for Archdeaconry Missions for the coming year are as follows:

The apportionments, it will be seen, have not been increased. We hoped that every parish will keep up with the pace set in '03. The stipend account amounts to $1,310. If we can do it in the year to come as in the year past, we shall be able to go to the next Convention reporting a balance and be in a position to take up some new work in sections where the Church is needed, but not now represented.

Mention must be made of the fact, however, that there is a pressing and imperative demand for the services of a resident minister at the Holy Cross Mission. Mr. Herbert B. Delapierre, with the assistance of members of St. Andrew's Brotherhood, labored faithfully and effectively in carrying on the work here the year past. The demands have been great and constant upon him and strength, but the results have far exceeded anticipation.

The influence of the Mission for good was never stronger than at the present time. The Archdeaconry is grateful to the Brotherhood men and Mr. Delapierre, their able leader, and to the ladies of the Church of the Messiah, Misses Braman, Hal-Shattuck and Fowler, for faithful and unselfish labors in the Master's work at this neglected but most promising mission.

The clerical missionaries of the Archdeaconry have come up to the mark of performance of other years. Every question has been answered satisfactorily. Every criticism has been met and refuted. Every visitor has gone away a friend. The results of their labors speak for themselves in the reports published in the Journal.

A few totals will be indicative of what has been accomplished for the Church and the people by our Missions during the year: Baptisms, 84; Confirmations, 89; Marriages, 45; Funerals, 67; Enrollment of Sunday Schools, 711.

St. Philip's Day the Archdeacon, assisted by the Rev. W. L. Stecher, was present and preached in St. Philip's Chapel. It was a service of welcome and introduction when the Rev. N. Peterson Boyd was placed in charge of this important work among colored people.

Report

OF THE SOUTHERN ARCHDEACONRY OF BROOKLYN.

Our aim in the Southern Archdeaconry of Brooklyn during the past year has been to strengthen and develop the work of the Church at points already occupied rather than to seize new points.

In two Mission Parishes the incumbrances upon the Church property have been reduced by more than $2,000 each; in several there has been a substantial development of self-support; the internal difficulties at another point have been most satisfactorily settled, a new Rector has been installed and there is every promise of peace and growth for the future; the complicated troubles in still another Parish are in process of settlement; the way has been made clear by an increased appropriation to Vanderveer Park for the placing at Parkville of a resident clergyman to give his whole time to that field, and one new work has been inaugurated, namely, the Mission of St. Jude's, at Blythebourne, at 40th Street and Thirteenth Avenue.

There have been during the year in Churches aided by the Archdeaconry 83 baptisms; 74 confirmations; 9 marriages; 36 burials; 719 Sunday School teachers and scholars enrolled. and

The Second Day.

Contributions of these Mission parishes aided by the Archdeaconry, together with the contributions passing through our treasury, aggregate $10,824.76.

At St. John's, Parkville, there appears good reason to hope it may soon be taken to dispose of the little village Church of Parkville and begin the erection of an adequate structure better suited for the new population that has moved in.

During the past year the Rev. Mr. Fleming, at Vanderveer Park, has been giving a portion of his time to Parkville. At its meeting the Archdeaconry so far increased its appropriation to Vanderveer Park as to enable the Minister there to relinquish a portion of his support, namely $500 now received from St. John's, Parkville. The Vestry of the Nativity have voted to assume their Minister's support. The way is now clear, therefore, for the appointment of a man to the sole charge of Parkville, and it is believed that this must result, if the right man be chosen, to the growth.

Last year 5 persons were baptized, 3 confirmed; there were 2 marriages and 3 burials; the congregation raised about $821, a fund of $400 was gotten together towards a new Church. Lay School teachers and scholars, 89.

At St. John's, Fort Hamilton, there has been trouble during the year which culminated in the resignation of the Rector on January 1st. However, happily the Parish seems not to have been seriously injured, and with the incoming of the new Rector, Rev. Edmund Banks Smith, who took charge on Mid-Lent day, there came a new hope and a spirit of unity in St. John's. During the year the baptisms numbered 16; confirmations 4, burials 4. The number of Sunday School scholars is 88; there are three services on Sunday, also one on Friday evenings and Holy Days. The Parish has contributed about a thousand dollars and received from the Archdeaconry $350. There is in the Parish $900 towards a Rectory, and as the salary of the Rector is wholly inadequate to his support, it is important that this need be provided at the earliest possible date. The Parish has no indebtedness of any kind and its property is worth $15,000.

The Second Day.

Several memorial gifts were made to the Church last year and the Sunday School, which under Dr. Thorne has been a feature of the Parish, is in a flourishing condition.

At St. Matthias', Sheepshead Bay, there has been a painful and hurtful controversy between the Rector and the Wardens with a majority of the Vestry for more than six months past, and the dove of peace has not yet alighted upon that troubled spot.

Little has been added to the building fund of the Parish House during the year, and the Rector's salary is in arrears some $800. During the months of November and December he was sick and away, and in this sickness he has our sincere sympathy. Since his return the congregations have increased in size, and the offerings improved proportionately, but it is feared that this is attributable to partisan stimulation, and as the trouble was one which could not be settled by the parties themselves, it has now been referred to the Bishop and Standing Committee for adjudication.

There have been 12 baptisms, 1 marriage, 4 funerals and 3 are reported awaiting confirmation. The Sunday School officers and scholars number 81.

At the Church of the Nativity, Vanderveer Park, there have been maintained two services each Sunday and Holy Communion twice a month. The congregations have been good and some interest shown in the development of the Parish. There have been 6 baptisms, 11 confirmations, 10 burials; there are 185 Sunday School scholars, and at present there is said to be no room for more. The offerings of the Church and Sunday School for the year amount to $1,277.32. Of the mortgage of $3,500 $1,000 has been paid, and $2,000 more is either in hand or pledged. When the remaining $500 shall have been raised, this young Parish will have a property worth between $8,000 and $9,000 without encumbrance.

At St. Jude's, Blythebourne, under the most capable rectorship of the Rev. Clarence N. Dunham, there is one of the best works in the Diocese. Three services and a Sunday School are maintained each Sunday. Besides a promising mission has been in operation since last September at Martense Hall, 40th Street

The Second Day.

13th Avenue, where seventy scholars have been gathered a service is held each Sunday. Within two years the attendances at the early and later services have more than doubled, are now about twenty at the former and more than one hundred at the 11 o'clock and the evening services, while the day Schools contain 250 children and 37 officers and teachers. During the last year there were 44 baptisms, 7 marriages, 19 girls and 35 persons await confirmation.

Two years ago the indebtedness to the Building and Loan Association on the present Church building was about $1,800, there was due Mr. Pierrepont more than $600 on the site for the Church; $273 was in hand towards the building fund; and the $600 due on the lots has been paid in full, the mortgage reduced from $1,800 to $1,200, and the building fund raised to $2,361.75. There is a movement on foot to increase the building fund to $5,000 by next Advent, and the Parish is full of hope and promise.

ARTHUR B. KINSOLVING,
Archdeacon of Southern Brooklyn.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ARCHDEACONRY OF QUEENS AND NASSAU, APRIL 22, 1903.

During the past year the work of Church Extension within the Counties of Queens and Nassau has quietly and steadily progressed. The fourfold division of our work remains the same as before:

- I.—Missions Parochial.
 - II.—Cathedral Missions.
 - III.—Archdeaconry Missions.
 - IV.—Rescue Work in the Public Institutions of the Counties.
- The Archdeacon has visited all the parishes and Missions in the interests of Diocesan Missions, with the exception of one parish. He has also addressed many of the Sunday Schools in the City of New York during the Advent Offering.

The Cathedral Missions are developing along lines marked for them by the Cathedral authorities, and yearly show the wisdom of their founding and management. St. Joseph's Mission, Queens, has cancelled its mortgage indebtedness on the Church edifice and will be solemnly consecrated on June 2d. This Mission has extended its ministrations to the neighboring village of Creedmoor, where services were established a year ago, with growing encouragement; so that at the present time this Mission may be regarded as permanent, with the prospect of acquiring by gift land for a future Chapel or Parish House for its needs. St. Gabriel's Mission, Hollis, has materially improved the interior of its Church and is accumulating a fund to erect a suitable Parish House. The Mission of the Holy Nativity, Mineola, has reduced its indebtedness during the past year $600, and is to be enriched by stained glass windows for its chancel, the gift of the Rector and Vestry of Emmanuel Church, Great River.

The Mission of the Church of the Redeemer, Astoria, known as the Branch, is in the midst of a German settlement. The Sunday School is conducted by the local chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and numbers six teachers and about 100 scholars. The average attendance has been 63 and the largest 92. On Easter Day this school marched to the Parish Church (about a mile) in number 88 scholars and joined a part of the home school for their Easter service. They used the pyramids for their Lenten offerings and contributed about $12 for general missions; through the Advent barrels they contributed $7.58 for Diocesan Missions. The evening service at this Mission was at first on a week night, and for thirty-five weeks, from February 5 to October 15 last, averaged thirty-four persons in attendance, the largest attendance being fifty-six. Since October 15 last the service has been on a Sunday night, conducted by a licensed lay-reader from the General Seminary. The attendance has been as high as sixty-two, the average being thirty-eight. There have been three celebrations of the Holy Communion, with an average of twelve communicants. The receipts from offerings at the Sunday School and services are now sufficient to pay rent and all expenses, except the stipend of the lay-reader, which is provided for by the parish treasury.

The Archdeaconry Missions have also given evidence of the wisdom of their founding and support by this Archdeaconry. Altogether this Archdeaconry has under its control and supervision eleven Missions, one being a summer Chapel—Grace Chapel, Long Beach. The Rev. William Berrian Hooper has taken charge of St. Michael and all Angels, Seaford, and the Rev. John W. Gill has been in charge of St. Thomas, Ravenswood, since January 25, with evidences of the Divine blessing resting upon his work. Easter is a suitable time to take note of the material and spiritual progress of these Missions, and the reports from them all, by their attendance, number of communions made and the amount of their Easter offerings, indicate a growth and development, except in two instances, that is most gratifying and encouraging, and we could not reasonably expect anything more. It is a pleasure to note that our Easter friend for four years past has renewed to these Missions, which appreciated his former kindness, his offer to give dollar for dollar any amount raised by them. As a result of this stimulus, St. Mark's Mission, Steinway, has reduced its indebtedness from $2,500 to $2,100, and St. Paul's Mission, Roosevelt, has reduced its mortgage to $650. On Sunday evening, April 19, the Bishop of the Diocese made a visitation to our Steinway Mission and confirmed a class of twenty-one persons. A large congregation was present. This was the first visit of the Bishop to this Mission, and its influence will greatly strengthen the work and give permanency. During the past year three new Missions have been undertaken by our General Missionary, the Rev. H. S. McDuffey:

All Souls', Astoria:

all for colored people. The work among the colored people daily exemplifies its wisdom and the need of it in these counties. Mr. McDuffey has four points at which he concentrates his work. They are important points. This will in time prove the wisdom of this whole movement of work among the colored people, of which we can be justly proud. It has been undertaken in the faith of the power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It is the result of the foresight and Christian statesmanship of this Archdeaconry and is undertaken for the present and future welfare of the colored people in our midst. It was a joyful occasion which brought the Bishop and a number of the clergy, with a goodly congregation, together in St. Stephen's Chapel, Jamaica, on Monday evening, February 16, for the dedication of the Chapel. The Bishop gave his blessing to the building, spoke words of encouragement, and one candidate was confirmed. The Rector of Grace Church, Jamaica, made a kindly and interesting address, and the Vestry of Grace Church was represented by a committee, all of which expressed the good will of that venerable parish in our undertaking. It is worthy of note that all the money required for this work ($800) was raised through the efforts of the Rev. Mr. McDuffey, with $12 left over as not needed. Mr. McDuffey deserves our congratulations for this splendid showing and the keeping of his promise to see that the money was in hand before it was undertaken. To all who helped him with gifts and money we hereby return our thanks. The Sunday School children's Advent offering was larger this year than ever before, amounting to $673.48. May it be so in the not far distant future that we can rely on the Sunday Schools of our Archdeaconry to give $1,000 annually to our work. If all the clergy took a personal interest in this Advent Offering, I believe this hope will become a reality. The fact that we have received more money this year than ever before, and that we close the archidiaconal year without a balance, forces upon us the consideration of the financial principles upon which we carry on our work. We have no endowment to fall back upon, and we depend entirely upon what the parishes, the Sunday Schools and individuals contribute to its support. Some have said this was very precarious and uncertain. So it is, but the money has come, and will continue to come, and there need be no timidity or fear for the support of the work. I feel convinced that the best method to provide a settled and definite income for Diocesan Missions is the adoption of the apportionment plan, which has worked so well for General Missions and Diocesan Missions in many other Dioceses. We should soon be able to assure every Treasurer's Report for Fiscal Year, April 24, 1902, to April 22, 1903.

The Second Day.

DEAR SIR—Herewith please find the Treasurer's Statement for the last fiscal year. Comparing this with the four preceding years, we have

Total Receipts, 1898-1899 about	$900	00
1899-1900	1,813	30
1900-1901	2,716	48
1901-1902	4,470	19
1902-1903	5,118	77

showing a very large and steady growth in our Home Mission Work in Queens and Nassau Counties, and which you will notice is used for the aid of established Missions, and the opening of new ones, with practically no expense for its distribution.

We hope the work, as shown in this Report, will spur our Parishes and Sunday Schools to greater efforts in the future, and also draw to us greater personal efforts and gifts from individuals during the coming years.

The Treasurer wishes to thank the members of the Archdeaconry for the uniform and hearty support that he has received during the past four years, and hopes for the coming years we may show even better results.

Respectfully submitted,

PHILANDER R. JENNINGS.

THE ARCHDEACONRY OF SUFFOLK.

Rev. R. M. Edwards, Priest-in-Charge of Brentwood, Censlip, Ronkonkoma, having entered upon the above work on May 18, 1902, begs to report to May 1, 1903, that he has baptized 1 infant in Brentwood, 1 infant and 2 adults at Censlip, buried 4 persons at Central Islip, 1 at Ronkonkoma. Of these but one was a communicant. The Women's Auxiliary of Brentwood, created for the aid of Church Charity Foundation has been reorganized and now numbers 16 members.

The Second Day.

They have sent two boxes to the South, one to New England Kitchen of Church Charity Foundation lunch.

The Sunday School of Central Islip has 40 members, a marked increase.

Added to the above work, the Priest has taken charge for nine Sundays of the Manhattan State Asylum, while the Chaplain, Rev. R. L. Brydges, is away. This makes five services every Sunday.

Port Jefferson, Christ Church Mission, Rev. A. K. Fenton, Priest-in-Charge.

The work has gone on steadily the year round, and shows the advisability of having a resident clergyman, as the "outside world" looks to the Church to minister to its needs, and sooner or later turns to her services.

The Bishop consecrated this Chapel last summer, and upon a second visit confirmed a class of six. There have been seven baptisms, six burials, one being a communicant and one of the organizers of the work—Mr. F. E. Raynor—whose loyalty and devotion to his home Church were very marked.

The Rev. Wm. A. Wasson, Priest-in-Charge of the Mission at Mattituck, says:

Since my last report, the services have been held regularly on Sunday afternoons at 3 o'clock. There were so many stormy Sundays during the fall and winter that the attendance was small, but since about the 1st of April the congregations have been steadily growing, and the people tell me that more people are attending the church now than at any time during the past ten years. Last fall I reorganized the Sunday School, which had fallen into "innocuous desuetude." We have about eighteen scholars, and some of them will be confirmed later on. During Lent I held a service every Thursday evening, and I was very much gratified at the size of the congregations. Last fall we painted the church, and had the building insured. These two items came to $50. The money was raised by the Women's Guild, a small but efficient society. About Christmas time we started to train about a dozen boys for the choir, and on Easter

The Second Day.

The choir made its first appearance in church. We bought cassocks, and got a present of second hand cassocks from a man in New York. A surplined choir is a new thing down here, and it has created quite a sensation among our non-church neighbors. Curiously enough, however, they all seem to like the innovation, and many are coming to church just to hear the boys. We have raised more money this last year than usual, but it has all been used to improve the property and to carry on the work.

Rev. H. W. Stafford, Priest-in-Charge of Center Moriches, reports that there has been a noticeable expression of interest on the part of the people, by their faithful attendance and continued submission of memorials by friends and attendants at the Mission. Five windows have been put in place the past year, a new altar purchased and about paid for, a parish library created, a desk given and various enrichments added, including a new altar book-rest.

There have been baptized, 10 confirmed, 1 marriage, and 1

Rev. Dan Marvin, Rector of Caroline Church, reports that he has had 7 baptisms, 1 confirmed, 1 marriage and 7 burials.

During the past year nothing has been done to reestablish the mission in our village, and the permanent population has decreased.

A number of summer residents have, however, secured homes here and among these are a few church families, who, it is thought, will be a help to our ancient parish.

The Ladies Society has sent a package of clothing to St. Agnes Mission in Brooklyn. St. Agnes Guild sent a barrel of food and Christmas gifts to St. Cyprian's Mission, Darien, Conn.

Rev. L. R. Benson, Deacon-in-Charge of Yaphank and Brookhaven, reports the work at Yaphank in good condition, so that they are asking for a resident clergyman to take charge of the two places.

The Second Day.

The Archdeacon visited Quogue on the 31st of August last, where he baptized a child after the service Sunday morning; also Easthampton, Sag Harbor, Freetown, where he officiated with the Rev. G. T. Lewis; Shelter Island, where he officiated with the Rev. W. R. Watson, then priest-in-charge, but now succeeded by the Rev. F. Yarnall, who recently entered upon his duties.

The Methodist Chapel has been secured at Amagansett, and it is intended to start services the first Sunday in July.

As reported by the Committee on Church Property of the Diocese, Col. Alfred Wagstaff, in behalf of the Wagstaff heirs, presented the right and title to that part of St. Luke's Church property at Easthampton purchased by Dr. Wagstaff years ago, and the same was given over to the Bishop, and from June until close of summer early Communion service, ~~morning~~ prayer and sermon, with a children's service in the afternoon, was continued.

So successful was the first year's work under the present arrangement that it is hoped to announce to this Convention that a priest has been secured for Rector, under the Bishop.

The total receipts from the Missions and one parish receiving co-operation from Archdeaconry funds amount to $8,955.96, while the balance in hand from all sources amounts to $1,275.61.

We would express our thanks to St. Andrew's Dune, Southampton, Quogue and Easthampton, for their contributions to our Archdeaconry Funds.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM HOLDEN,

ST. JAMES, L. I.

Archdeacon of Suffolk Co.

The Second Day.To the Diocesan Convention:

The Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund respectfully report that they have given due consideration to the resolution of the Reverend Mr. Waller, offered at the last Convention and which as amended reads as follows:

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund be requested to revise Canon 10, Article 1 (entitled "Of Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen") in such a manner as to change what is now essentially a charity into an impartially administered pension fund; and that the said Trustees report at the next Annual Convention.

Agreeably to this resolution, the Trustees do report that in their judgment it would not be wise, even if it were lawful, to change the method of the distribution of the income of this fund.

The net income of the fund is less than five thousand dollars per year, and is not apt to be increased; in fact, the reverse is more probable, for as interest rates decrease so will the income from the fund. To distribute this income to all equally upon arriving at a specified age might defeat the purpose for which the fund was created, to wit: the relief of the aged and infirm now administered; the word "infirm" meaning not alone an infirm person but in means, enables the Trustees of the fund to meet the necessities of those who are without the means necessary to them the protection and comfort to which their service is entitled. If this fund were distributed equally to all upon reaching a certain age many would receive it who did not need it and undoubtedly a feeling of delicacy would exist against refusal to take it for fear that by so doing others who could not afford to refuse would feel, notwithstanding their necessities, that they must do so.

Over and above the sentimental objections to this resolution, legal objections and complications stand in the way. The fund was contributed in the first instance for the relief of the aged and infirm. It is a trust, the terms of which cannot be changed. It was meant to supply the needy; it was not meant to distribute se who are not needy. The fund may be said to have been inherited. It started when the Diocese of Long Island was erected. The trust was attached to it when it came to this Diocese, and this Diocese can only handle the fund conformably to the terms of the trust. Just what these terms are will require research and investigation, which the Trustees can make and upon which they report to the next Convention, if it be the desire of the Convention; but until the legal objections which are apparent are removed, if it be possible to remove them, they are of sufficient magnitude to make any effort to change the purpose of the contributors toward this fund in the manner of its distribution illegal, therefore, not to be undertaken by the proposed amendment Canon 10, Article 1.

Respectfully submitted,

TOWNSEND SCUDDER.

The Rev. Mr. SCUDDER moved that the report be received and the resolution embodied therein adopted.

The motion was carried.

The Rev. Mr. SCUDDER offered the following resolution, which was seconded by the Rev. Mr. NEWBOLD:

Be it Resolved. That a committee of two clergymen and three laymen be appointed to report to the next Convention upon the advisability of starting a Pension Fund for the Clergy of the Diocese.

The motion was carried.

The Rev. H. D. WALLER presented and read the report of the Church Charity Foundation.

Report

THE COMMITTEE ON THE CHURCH CHARITY FOUNDATION AND OTHER BENEVOLENT INSTITUTIONS,

It seems hardly necessary, in our annual report on the Church Charity Foundation, to say anything concerning the internal management of the various institutions. That the work assigned to them has been conscientiously performed—that the orphans, the aged, the sick, and the afflicted have been well cared for—all this goes without the saying.

It is a common thing to speak in praise of the Sisters' work, and nothing that is said can overestimate the value of the service rendered by these devoted women; but there is one class of workers on the Foundation whose service, it seems to us, is never quite appreciated as it should be. We refer to the physicians who freely give their time, their experience, their skill, and not infrequently their money also. Without the willing and glad service of the physicians the work of the Foundation would be impossible. St. John's Hospital depends entirely on their gratuitous service; and there is not a benevolent institution of any description in the diocese that does not to some extent depend for its very existence on the self-denying service of Christian physicians. It was, therefore, a fitting thing for the lay members of the Board of Managers to invite the medical staff to meet the members of the Board at a dinner given at the Hamilton Club last month. This, we believe, was the first time in the history of the Foundation that the Board and the members of the Medical Staff thus met together for social intercourse, and to confer with each other in questions relating to the welfare of our great benevolent institution.

When the reorganized Board of Managers took charge of the affairs of the Foundation, two years ago, there was a debt of about $90,000. To-day the indebtedness of the Foundation is $55,000. The value of the real estate is estimated at $265,000. The endowment fund is $303,551.27. Thus the total assets are $568,551.27. While we regret the existence of a debt of $55,000, it must be remembered that it is less than 10 per cent. of the value of the assets. We desire to make this clear, for we fear an erroneous impression concerning the financial affairs of the Foundation has become current in the diocese. Fifty-five thousand dollars is a large sum of money, but it is not a large proportion of $550,000. A man who owes $10 does not feel discouraged so long as he has $100 in his pocket; nor would he be condemned by conservative business men as being reckless in incurring such a debt.

The assured income of the Foundation is about $40,000 a year. The annual running expense is about $55,000. This leaves $15,000 to be raised by contributions from parishes and individuals in the diocese. Everything possible has been done to reduce the expenses. They cannot with safety be cut down below $55,000. A machine requires a certain amount of fuel to put it into motion. It is false economy, therefore, to reduce the fuel below the minimum amount. It will then be consumed in vain, producing no result. Now, our Church Charity Foundation is a big machine. It cannot be made to do its work with less fuel than $55,000 a year. That it is not too big a machine for a diocese as large and rich as Long Island, we think all will admit. We must, therefore, have contributions of $15,000 every year from the diocese. And we believe we are going to get this amount. This hope is engendered by the fact that the women of the diocese have taken up the work in a systematic and business-like manner. All of the different organizations that were working in the interest of the various Institutions on the Foundation, have been united to form one organization, known as the Women's Central Board, and have resolved to pay into the treasury of the Board of Managers all the moneys collected or earned in various ways. The women of the Central Board seek to organize a C. C. F. Chapter in every Parish of the diocese. The object of each chapter will be to make a systematic canvass of the parish for annual subscriptions. It, therefore, rests with the rectors and pastors of the diocese to see that this scheme is put into operation. If these chapters be organized and fostered by the clergy, there can be no doubt whatever that the amount needed for this splendid diocesan charity will be easily and regularly obtained.

For the first time your committee is called upon to say something about the trained Christian Helpers, an association that was one year ago recognized by this Convention as a diocesan organization. The Trained Christian Helpers were organized six years ago. Their society was incorporated in January, 1900. The object of the association is to supply intelligent aid in the sick rooms of the poor. The Helpers are subjected to a course of training by a corps of physicians before they are allowed to assume any responsibility. After a two year's course of training diplomas are given to those who successfully pass the examinations. Then the Sisters hold themselves ready to respond to a call for duty among the sick poor. If the beneficiaries are able pay anything for the service rendered such remuneration goes toward the support of the Sisters' Home. But the Helpers are duty bound to respond to all calls from the poor, without hope of remuneration. The association at present consists of seven Sisters, four of whom have received diplomas as trained nurses. Their Home is at 1489 Pacific Street. They invite the Rectors of Parishes to call upon them to attend any sick persons who are unable to pay for the services of trained nurses. To maintain their Home, and thus place their valuable service at the disposal of the poor, the Sisters must depend upon the free-will offerings of Church people. A physician writes concerning this association: "There is no branch of Christian work finer in the Diocese of Long Island than none that more perfectly reflects the Master's high motive of practical helpfulness."

St. Phœbe's Mission has just completed its twentieth year of visiting the sick, the afflicted, and those in prison. One year ago the financial outlook was so gloomy that the thought of suspending work was seriously entertained. But unexpected gifts and bequests, amounting to nearly $20,000, have, for the present at least, rendered this very useful organization successful. St. Phœbe's Mission is the only Diocesan organization that sends messengers to attend the spiritual needs of the inmates of jails and almshouses. In that work especially it should be regarded and supported as a Diocesan organ. Another branch of the work of St. Phœbe's Mission, we believe, is unique in the Diocese. It offers a temporary shelter for respectable, honest women, and for women who need a temporary change of scene for the benefit of their health. If any Rector has in his flock some poor woman, convalescent from severe sickness, and needs a change of scene and a quiet home, St. Phœbe's Mission will gladly take her in, and carefully nurse her back to health and strength. This mission solicits appeals from Parishes for any sort of aid it is so well qualified to render.

The Sheltering Arms Nursery furnishes no topic for special remark. Its splendid work has been carried on during the past year with unabated interest. Its family of seventy children has enjoyed unusually good health. The children presented the same bright and happy picture, when we recently visited them, that we have grown accustomed to associate with this institution.

What can we say for the Home of St. Giles the Cripple that will gain for it the support it so richly deserves? That it is a home and hospital for destitute crippled children; that it administers its trust faithfully; that the demands for admission are generally beyond the capacity of the House; that it is sorely in need of money—all this has been frequently said before; and apparently with little effect. We recommend the members of this Convention to visit the House of St. Giles.

We are glad to report that this deserving and beautiful charity has secured a summer home in Hempstead, which will be blessed by the Bishop of the Diocese next Saturday afternoon, at half past three o'clock.

We trust that this position near the center of the Diocese will gain for the House of St. Giles friends in many parts of the Diocese who have heretofore known little of its needs and its splendid work.

The Rev. WM. WILEY presented and read the report of the Sunday School Commission:

Report

OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMISSION.

The Sunday School Commission was appointed by the Convention of 1898, and to-day makes its fifth annual report. We have eighteen more teachers and 549 more scholars in our Sunday Schools that we had five years ago. But the growth of our schools has not kept pace with the growth of population, nor the increase in the number of our communicants. For every scholar added to the school we have added six communicants to the

The Second Day.

Church. With an increase of communicants since 1898 of ten per cent., the number of persons baptized (as reported in last year's Journal) was 167 less than in 1898. Each year since 1898 shows an increase in the number of marriages, and (generally) a decrease in the number of children baptized. Since the increase in the number of children in our Sunday Schools exceeds considerably the increase of baptisms we think we may safely infer:

First—That we generally get into the Sunday School for Church instruction the baptized children of the Church.

Second—That we also gather in some others who do not belong to Church families.

The Commission has not aimed directly to increase the attendance in our schools; but rather to suggest and urge the adoption of a definite course of Church instruction, and improved methods of teaching. We believe that in these efforts the work of the Commission has not been unfruitful.

We held this year three conferences: at St. John's Church, Far Rockaway; Christ's Chapel, South Brooklyn, and St. Paul's Church, Flatbush. The principal topics discussed were The Application of Kindergarten Methods in the Sunday School; and The Best method of Teaching the Catechism, the Church Year, and the Prayer Book. Whatever helps we may use, whatever course of instruction we may follow, surely it is our bounden duty to see that the child be taught these three: the Catechism, the Church Year, and the Book of Common Prayer; and any course of instruction that supersedes, or even interferes with the thorough and systematic teaching of these, is a detriment to both the Church and the child. What the Church says the child should learn, it must be the Sunday School's first aim to teach.

In order to stimulate interest in the study of the three subjects named above the Commission has prepared and issued an appropriate Certificate to be given to each child who passes a satisfactory examination (satisfactory to the Rector or Superintendent) in any one of them. It is a gift to the Commission from one of our generous laymen. Copies may be obtained from press at a price that does not represent one-fourth shows an increasing interest throughout the whole work of the Sunday School. In seventeen Diocesan organizations—Sunday School Commissions or Institutions—purpose of unifying the instruction and of arousing Clergymen, educators, and lay superintendents, the problem of a Course of Study for Sunday result, thirty-one curricula have been suggested. As they differ, but in some respects, and these the result, there is substantial agreement. The Secretary of the New York Commission has made a comparative study of curricula to which we can but briefly refer. He found it seem, therefore, as if we ought to provide for subjects during the first four years in the main : Old Testament (text and meaning of the words); Church History (possibly only a working outline); Old Testament Life of Christ (historically outlined); Founding of the Church (Acts and Epistles)."

general agreement that in the Infant School there should be eight Bible stories, the Lord's Prayer, Hymns and in the Primary School, Bible stories, the Commandments, texts and hymns. With this composite of the results of the course of study which we suggested a year ago, there is substantial agreement.

The Rev. Canon P. F. SWETT presented the report of the Committee on Christian Education :

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION.

The past year has been one of the most prosperous in the history of the schools of our Diocese, and perhaps one of the most successful in every way.

St. Paul's School, Garden City, has enrolled during the year 157 boys. Of this number twenty-one will enter college,—eleven go to Yale, three to Cornell, two to Harvard, two to Princeton, one to Amherst, one to Trinity, and one to Williams. It is needless to say that this is a slight indication of the kind of work that is being done at the school, and shows the high standard that it takes in purely intellectual matters.

The Head Master believes in the value of athletic games and sports, and considers that the time and attention that have been given to them this year as in the past have been well and wisely spent; and the whole effect upon the school amply justifies his position.

Owing to the increase in the cost of maintenance, and of the determination to provide the students with the very best in every way, it has been necessary to increase the tuition somewhat for the coming year. And although this has been done, the Head Master informs the Committee that the number of boys enrolled for the coming year is greater than ever before at this time.

During the past year there has been a Chaplain resident in the school, which in every way has been a great advantage. Twenty-two boys were confirmed towards the close of the Lenten season, and their frequent attendance at the Cathedral services and reverent behavior at the Holy Communion Service indicates the genuineness of the work that is being done.

St. Mary's School, Garden City, has had another successful year. The new building which was completed a year ago has been se and has proved to be a most important addition. The are now all housed in the one set of buildings, and in st every way the arrangements are most admirable.

The Chapel, which is in the new part, was not finished and y for occupancy until the beginning of the new year. Since time the daily services have been held there, the Chaplain ating*two or three times a week, and during Lent the Holy munion was celebrated once a week, and since that time it has celebrated once in two weeks. Six of the girls were pre-d to the Bishop for Confirmation in Lent.

It may be of interest to add that a new altar and a new twin-over the altar are to be given to the Chapel, the one in ory of the late Bishop Littlejohn, and the other in memory rs. Stewart.

St. Mary's has enrolled during the year forty-seven board-and fifty-eight day pupils, making more than one hundred . In every department the work of the school has been en-ging and stimulating.

St. Katharine's Hall, a boarding and day school for girls, in klyn, with a capacity of twelve boarding pupils in separate s, reports that ten of these rooms have been occupied this year. Seventy pupils have come under the influence of the ol during the year either in regular or special work. The ty of instruction consists of ten teachers.

The Chaplain, the Rev. St. Clair Hester, has given weekly ctions on the Apostles' Creed. Five of the pupils were re-y confirmed.

The work of the school has been supplemented by readings, res, visits to museums, art galleries, etc.

The young people provided Thanksgiving dinners for seven-people, a Christmas tree for a Missionary School, and raised for the Hospital of St. Augustine's School, Raleigh, North lina.

Some needed repairs have been made upon the buildings g the year, and they are now in good condition. The class-s have been made more attractive.

The Second Day.

In conclusion, your Committee desires to add that it believes the Diocesan Schools were never in a better condition than they are to-day, or able to offer greater facilities to the young student. It feels that Long Island may justly be proud of her Diocesan Schools, and hopes that the sons and daughters of the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese may enjoy the advantages which these schools offer.

The Rev. ST. CLAIR HESTER presented the report of the Trustees of the General Theological Seminary.

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The death of the late Dean of the Seminary, Rev. Eugene Augustus Hoffman, D.D., on June 17, 1902, occurred after the adjournment of our last Diocesan Convention and must therefore find first mention in this report. His passing from earth is, indeed, a loss to the whole Church, while to the Seminary it seems almost irreparable. His great wealth was consecrated to the advancement of every good work; but to the Seminary were made his largest benefactions, not only in contributing funds for the new buildings, but for the endowment of the great Institution so dear to his heart. In this respect the like of him can never be replaced. At the time of his death three new dormitories had been begun, and it was his intention to provide funds for these buildings. Sixteen thousand dollars had already been paid by him for this purpose when his sudden death stayed his generous hand. That his loving intention however might not fail it deserves to be here put on record to their honor that his widow and children subsequently came forward and provided the means to complete these three new dormitories at a cost of more than one hundred thousand dollars. For the temporary administration of the Seminary, the mantle of Dean Hoffman fell on the Sub-Dean, Dr. Cady, his life-long friend, who ably and faithfully discharged his duties notwithstanding the weight of his more than three score and ten years. At a special meeting of the Trustees of the Seminary, held April 16th, Rev. Dr. Wilford L. Robbins was elected to the vacant Deanship, and at the same time Rev. Frederick J. Kinsman was made Professor of Ecclesiastical History, towards the endowment of whose chair be it noted the funds were provided by the late Dean and his family, now amounting to over one hundred and sixty thousand dollars. The report of the Acting Dean shows that the condition of the Seminary is highly prosperous; that the students during the past year have shown a marked degree of devotional spirit and interest in the missionary work of the Church and a commendable zeal in the prosecution of their studies.

The Second Day.

The following items taken from the catalogue of the Seminary for the current year are regarded by your Committee as indicative of the good work done by this Institution and worthy of record:

The whole number of students who have been matriculated is 2,473, of whom 118 and eleven graduates have been pursuing their studies during the past year. The number of alumni is 1,536, of whom 952 are living. Forty-five of the alumni have been consecrated Bishops, twenty-six of whom are living; sixteen who were students, but did not graduate, have also been consecrated Bishops, of whom six are living.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT WEEKS.

Col. GARDINER moved that fifteen hundred copies of the Convention Journal be printed for Diocesan distribution.

The motion was carried.

At the suggestion of the Bishop, the by-laws were suspended in order to permit the closing devotions to be conducted before the reading of the minutes.

After the closing prayers had been said, the minutes of this day's proceedings were read and approved.

The Convention adjourned sine die.

APPENDIX A.

OF
THE BISHOP OF LONG ISLAND,
Delivered May 26, 1903.

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

For a second time it is my privilege to address the assembled representatives of the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese of Long Sand. During the Convention year just passed I have visited 110 churches and missions for confirmation. I have confirmed 2,027 persons. I have ordained three to the Diaconate and three to the Priesthood. I have consecrated two churches and preached on many special occasions, and have attended to the routine as well the extraordinary Diocesan duties. A detailed statement will be appended to this address and printed in the Journal.

Obituaries.

Among those who have died during the year it is, I think, right that I should mention the Right Honorable Frederick Temple, D.D., Archbishop of Canterbury, who for six years had labored with honor the position of Primate of all England. One of his last official acts was to preside at the coronation of His Majesty King Edward in Westminster Abbey.

During the year five American Bishops have passed into the Church Triumphant.

The Right Reverend Francis McNeece Whittle, D.D., LL.D., was consecrated Bishop Coadjutor of Virginia April 10, 1868, and became Bishop of the Diocese April 5, 1876. His long years of faithful service in the Episcopate endeared him to his Clergy and greatly strengthened the influence of the Church in one of the most important States in the Union at one of the most critical periods of its history. He died June 20, 1902.

The Right Reverend Robert Woodward Barnwell, D.D., LL.D., was consecrated Bishop of Alabama July 25, 1900, and died after a very short but honorable service July 24, 1902.

was consecrated Bishop Coadjutor of Mississippi February 24, 1883, and became Bishop of the Diocese February 13, 1887. Those whose seminary days go back, as mine do, twenty-five years can remember what an intellectual giant Dr. Thompson seemed as Rector of Christ Church, New York, and editor of the Church Journal. Some of his earlier works with their virile and practical presentation of his views are still read, although the controversial questions around which his ideas gathered have long ago either worn themselves out or changed their form. His Bohlen lectures on Personality and Responsibility, delivered in Philadelphia in 1896, showed Dr. Thompson's power to seize on a vital and popular topic and make it interesting to all thoughtful minds. He died November 8, 1902.

The Right Reverend Frederick William Taylor's death on April 25, 1903, has been to me peculiarly solemn. He was in my class in the General Theological Seminary and was consecrated Bishop Coadjutor to my uncle, the Bishop of Quincy, in 1901. He was an earnest student; a man of untiring energy. He made the study of canon law almost a specialty in the midst of a very busy life, and when he was elected Bishop it was felt by all that he would throw into his duties the same devotion and singleness of purpose which had characterized his previous career. I doubt not that the cares and duties of his office may have hastened his death. To him, however, let us believe it was a willing sacrifice in the cause of the Master whom he loved. "To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna."

The Right Reverend Thomas Alfred Starkey, D.D., was consecrated Bishop of Newark in 1880, Bishop Littlejohn, the first Bishop of Long Island, being one of the consecrators. He came to the Episcopate after a long experience, and his administration of his Diocese was wise and successful. Those who attended his funeral on the Eve of Ascension Day must have been impressed by the reverent sorrow with which the large congregation of Clergy and people mourned the loss of their chief pastor. But the beautiful service itself, as the Bishop of New Jersey said in a brief address to the Clergy, spoke only of the joy of one who had passed into the light which awaits the true disciple beyond the veil.

It seems right that I should record the death of The Very Reverend Eugene F. Hoffman, D.D., LL.D., who for twenty-three years had been Dean of the General Theological Seminary. The work which he did for this great institution of learning cannot be estimated by the large gifts which were bestowed upon it by himself and others during his term of office; it is to be seen rather in the wise methods by which he gave to the students the wholesome stimulus of graceful architectural surroundings, and made the only General Seminary of our American Church not unworthy of comparison with some of the time-honored colleges of the old world. May God grant that now, with all these adjuncts of learning, our Church's Seminary may bring forth true scholars able to fight with the best modern weapons of scholarship against the ranks of unbelief, and to contend like Sir Galahads against the impurity and marriage infidelity which, protected by insidious laws and nourished on unwholesome literature, threaten the moral stamina of the nation.

During the last year only once has death invaded the ranks of our Clergy. The Reverend Thomas Stevenson Pycott was born in Portland, Maine, in 1831; he was ordained Deacon by Bishop Whipple of Minnesota in 1871, priested in the following year. In 1874 he was called to the rectorship of St. John's Church, Brooklyn, which he resigned on account of ill health in 1887. In 1892 he assumed the rectorship of Emanuel Church, Great River, where he did faithful work until 1899, when his failing strength obliged him to give up all but occasional duties. He died September 28, 1902. He was an earnest, pure minded, faithful priest, who gave himself heart and soul to his work.

Here in Garden City we have to record the death of Mrs. Samuel Cox, the wife of the Dean of the Cathedral. It would be a pleasant duty to speak of her many amiable qualities, the sincerity of her feelings and the genuine cordiality of manner, which won for her many valued friendships. But these personal qualities, beautiful and attractive as they were, would not justify me in speaking of her now. I do so rather that I may remind you of her long service in behalf of the Diocese as President of the Diocesan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary. Her friends know with what unfailing good nature and discretion she presided at the meetings and guided the energies and pointed out the road of benevolence to the women who year after year with unfailing generosity give of their own to the cause of missions. But God in His wise providence has seen fit to take her from her post, and yet the work will not suffer, and the influence will remain.

Diocesan Missions.

The most important event in the history of the Diocese during the past year has been the opening of the Diocesan House, at 170 Remsen Street, Brooklyn. Both the plan and its execution are the result of the faithfulness and generosity of one layman, Mr. Wilhelmus Mynderse, who not only has fulfilled his informal promise given to this Convention a year ago, but has also tastefully and richly furnished the Bishop's apartments, and has aided the new corporation of the Diocesan Missions of Long Island in their work by his legal advice. But while one man has thus given us the house, many laymen have generously subscribed towards the support of the building, making their subscriptions to cover a period of five years. The Cathedral of the Incarnation has also subscribed the amount of $1,000 per year subject to a three months' notice of discontinuance, and thus the building's needs are fully covered. At the same time I wish to impress upon the laity of the Diocese the wisdom of endowment of the Corporation of the Diocesan Missions of Long Island, not only for the care of its beautiful Diocesan House, but for the carrying out of plans for energetic Church extension. It has been my desire to make this corporation something more than a safe deposit for title deeds or a clearing house for the Archdeacons, and to see it become the originator and administrator of mission work. There are many branches of missionary work, like that amongst the Italians or the Jews, or the Armenians, which have a general rather than a local interest. Such work should be undertaken by this corporation, and I believe it would be if we had the funds. Sadly we have to acknowledge that our Diocese is making little or no effort to cope with the religious problems which the invasion of foreign labor forces upon our attention. Then, too, the purchase of sites for future churches

d be a part of this corporation's duty. Brooklyn and Long Island are developing with a rapidity which may well appal us. The President of the Long Island Railroad is reported to have "Travel will follow the line of least resistance," and with acquisition of tunnels and the increase of bridges this part of the State is to become densely populated. Business men understand this and are getting ready for the change, but the Church is not doing, I grant you, in its Archdeaconries, noble, self-sacrificing and effective work, but not daring to lift its eyes and look down the vista of ten or twenty years. Our Diocesan Convention ought to be able to do this, and if funds were in its hands it would have the courage to gaze steadily into the future and prepare for it.

In this connection I venture to express the hope that as in other Dioceses certain gifts may be entrusted to the Bishop for missionary and charitable work. During the year I have received one such gift of $150. Such sums would form a power-ful lever in the Bishop's hands for promoting the Church's work among the Clergy. Where a whole board has to be consulted and publicity encountered it is not easy to secure either the promptness of action or the freedom from criticism which are necessary for aggressive or sympathetic work, and on that account I mention this matter, hoping you will give it your consideration.

In this connection also I wish to speak one word of public thanks to the Archdeacons for the time and work which they have given in self-sacrifice bestowed upon the missionary field, and to express the hope that to-morrow afternoon the cause which they have sent may receive attentive hearing by this Convention.

Mortgages and Debts.

During the past year one Parish Church in Brooklyn, the Church of the Epiphany, has been freed from those of its debts which were in the form of a mortgage, and will, I doubt not, be made strong through the energy and self-sacrifice of its Rector and congregation, to grow strong and healthy with spiritual life. Let us hope that brighter years are now in store for this Parish. Another Church in Brooklyn, however, has had a different fate. St. Barnabas' Church on Bushwick Avenue has dropped out of existence. It had a large mortgage placed on it some years ago; its floating debt was embarrassing; the bank foreclosed, and as its friends were few ruin seemed inevitable. In this emergency Calvary Church, situated at South Ninth Street and Marcy Avenue, came to the rescue. For some years the Rector, Wardens and Vestry of Calvary Church had had under consideration the project of moving to another part of the city, and when at this time the Young Men's Christian Association offered them a fair price for their Church property they sold, bought St. Barnabas' Church, paid its debts in full, and changing its name to Calvary Church have undertaken its work under new and more favorable conditions. This history seems to me significant, and I relate it, not to justify my official action in this matter, but to explain what must be the attitude of the Bishop in the future on the subject of mortgages. The gain to the Church in Brooklyn by this transaction does not on the surface look very great. We have taken a Church from one neighborhood which seems of sufficient strength to warrant the Young Men's Christian Association buying it for their work. This removal is, of course, to be regretted. But, on the other hand, we have vastly strengthened the Church at Bushwick Avenue, and we have every prospect of seeing a strong Parish grow up in this important section of the city. The transaction was not ideal, I acknowledge. I wish it could have been otherwise, but it seemed the best action that could be taken under the circumstances, and I hope the future will justify it.

But here arises the important question: What should be the attitude of the Bishop towards mortgages and debts? The laws of the State of New York in regard to religious corporations forbid the mortgage or sale of any real property without the consent of the Bishop and the Standing Committee. As the Bishop's consent must first be obtained, his action is important. But while the Bishop must be consulted about the mortgages, yet he need not be consulted about the debts. Vestries permit debts to accumulate year after year with no notice being taken. They are called euphoniously "a floating obligation." Or they plan large changes in their property, or extensive building, for which they raise only a part of the funds, taking it for granted that they will be permitted to mortgage their estate for the rest. In all these important preliminaries the Bishop is not once consulted, but at last when the time comes he is informed of the country's desire to fund its obligations in the convenient form of a mortgage. If he does not consent to this, then the claims of carpenters or masons or tradespeople will be far more embarrassing, he is told, and thus the onus of a debt, which he had no share in creating, is laid upon him by this method, and the purpose of the law that the Bishop should be the guardian of the real property of the Diocese is frustrated.

Now, I do not wish to state any unalterable rule of action. Constancy in following out one single line will, I trust, never be characteristic. There will be exceptions to every rule and sometimes it will be wise to be lenient, but nevertheless I shall not be altogether sorry if an object lesson comes to the Diocese of Long Island. If I find that debts are accumulated without my knowledge and that the Ecclesiastical authority is being ignored in this particular, then my consent will not be given. I do not like to talk about myself, nor do I wish to boast, but it is only fair to give the Parishes of the Diocese warning that I do not intend to be deprived of this prerogative which the law gives me, and that I can be absolutely firm in my refusals. Already, in the past, owing to the unsatisfactory laws, we have had too much fictitious Church building, that is churches founded by means of borrowed money, vestries holding themselves responsible to no one as they accumulated obligations which they knew could be met only by borrowing from the bank. The clergy are in danger of making the solicitation of money more important than the preaching of the Gospel. Laymen complain, sometimes with justice, that the continual appeals for money by the Rectors strike a discordant note at our beautiful services. It is a harsh sound on the sensitive ear to have mingled with the glad tidings of Christmas or the joy of the Easter message the discordant din of the mortgage raiser or the melancholy song of a steadily increasing Parish deficit. But there is this to be said about the situation: the laity must not forget that the clergy are generally not responsible for the debts for which they plead, and that the laymen on the vestries have the right to veto unwise financial methods at the very start.

Proposed Change of the Name of the Church.

This question has come very much to the front since the last General Convention, through the efforts of the Committee which was at that time appointed to find out the sense of the Church on this subject. Whether this Convention will desire to put itself on record I do not know, but, for my own part, I am quite willing to let my views be known in accordance with the reasonable request of the Committee.

The movement for a change of name of the Church has been growing steadily in strength for many years. Some fifteen or eighteen years ago it was easy for a large majority in the House of Delegates to vote down the slightest allusion to the subject as disloyal to the Church's ideal. But a campaign of education has been going on since that time and many conservative men have become convinced of the desirability of change. Leaving out of account the word "Episcopal" as only objectionable because it is an unnecessary epithet, and fixing our attention on the word "Protestant" we can see that the argument in favor of its abandonment is certainly plausible. The word first came into use in the year 1529 as applied to those who made the famous protest at the Diet of Spires.

This document has been thought to be also the first definite statement of the famous "Bible and Bible only" doctrine, which has had great vogue in the past. Whether its phraseology makes it really responsible for this doctrine we have no time now to inquire, but the position itself is one from which Lutheran scholars have long since receded, and which the English Church never assumed. It is a more illogical claim than that of papal infallibility. It makes a fetish of the Bible and lowers it to the level of the Koran. It hampers scholarship in every way, and throws a stumbling block in the path not only of scientific research, but of spiritual advancement as well. It subordinates the Church to a book and forgets the great fact that the Church of Jesus Christ existed in all probability some thirty years before the first book the New Testament was written. The Church created the Bible, the Bible did not create the Church. However firmly we believe that in the words of Bishop Browne "Scripture rightly interpreted contains all that is necessary to save the soul," yet we insist, unless we would revolve in what logicians call a vicious circle, insist upon the Bible being interpreted by the Church's history and inherited faith. Anything less than this would merit the warning of St. Paul, "The letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life." So the modern poet

"Mohammed's truth lay in a holy book, Christ's in a holy life."

Accordingly, if the word "Protestant" must be necessarily connected with this literal and slavish attitude towards the Bible, which the language of the Spire protest seems to some to maintain, I am not surprised that a large and growing body of thoughtful Churchmen should wish to repudiate it and eliminate the word from our ecclesiastical terminology. But it must not be forgotten that words have a history and that they must never be looked upon as crystallized and unchangeable. Language would lose alike its charm and its power if it were immobile.

But even going back to that Diet of Spire and taking the language in which the technical word "protest" is first used, I find nothing to be ashamed of in its origin. The words ring true even in the anti-climax as it sounds to us at the present time. "If we do not yield to our request," so run the words of the reform-

"we protest by these presents before God, our only Creator, our Father, our Lord, our Redeemer and Saviour, and who will one day be our Judge, that we for us and for our people neither consent nor assent in any manner whatsoever to the proposed decree in any way that is contrary to God, to His Holy Word, to our right of conscience, to the salvation of our souls and to the last decree of the Council of Trent." As we think how the people of Europe had been kept in ignorance; how the Bible was refused to them; how they were misled by wily priests who sold them indulgences and corrupted their moral sense, this appeal to God and to His Holy Word and the majesty of man's conscience sounds like a trumpet call to deliver Jerusalem from the bondage of superstition, simony and shame. It is not a bad custom for us occasionally to look back over the pages of history and see what it was made the great intellectual and moral revolt of the sixteenth century. "The fear of the Inquisition made more Protestants," says Voltaire, "than all the writings of Calvin." That may be true, but the greed, the lust, the shamelessness of the great princes of the Church at Rome, the murders and adulteries which went on in papal palaces—these were among the most powerful causes of the Reformation. In this sense "Protestant" and "Catholic" are not at all opposed, but "Protestant" is opposed to cruelty, lust, bigotry, and to every sort of denial of the truth of God. Both "Catholic" and "Protestant" are words with a noble origin, and it seems unwise, as well as unscholarly, to pit them one against the other.

But granting, for the sake of argument, that the word "Protestant" implied a position which our Church has never taken, nevertheless, from the standpoint of a Christian statesman, a change of name at this crisis would be considered "bad politics." In this light, indeed, the triviality of the subject forces itself on our attention. I know that the accusation of triviality is often unjustly made, and that the smallest matters may become of profound significance under certain circumstances. Thus, the disregard of the ritual of the army, the omission of the saluting of the flag, or the assuming by women or civilians of the insignia of the officers might become under certain circumstances well worthy of the attention of the Executive of the nation. But here the analogy between the nation and the Church justifies the charge of triviality in the question of name. At the time of the breaking out of our Civil War and the attempted secession of the Southern States, I presume many thoughtful men were struck with the fact that the name the country goes by, "The United States of America," was a poor name with which Abraham Lincoln was to uphold the cause of the North and of the Union. For the word "State" had hitherto signified sovereignty, a self-governing community, and Abraham Lincoln, a true descendant of the Federalist, claimed the sovereignty of the people, not of the individual States. Probably he knew the disadvantage of the name better than any one else. But what did he do? Did he send a message enate demanding that the country's name should be

Did he introduce bills into the various legislatures for the abolishing of the inconsistent word "State?" called on the country to defend the Union; he called my of 100,000 men and he began the war which ended the victories of Gettysburg, Vicksburg and Appomattox. e meant nothing. A great cause could give the word new significance, and if you will look in the Censionary to-day you will see that the word "State" in phraseology no longer necessarily implies absolute sovanalogy seems to me to be cogent. A change of name esent juncture would be a confession of weakness, if feat. The Protestant Episcopal Church has no need shamed either of its name or of its history. Let the o on and fight its battles with the world; let it stand nily as the champion of women and defenseless children uelty and divorce; let its voice sound in the secret where statesmen form the policy of nations with its on to peace; let it speak in the midst of labor strifes, it can protect the cause of justice, impartially to the en or to the threatened contractors; let it refuse the ts which come from men whose moral life has been ly corrupt, or from fortunes won by child labor, or by the face of the poor in the gloom of the mines or amid of the mills; let it speak with no uncertain voice when oved dishonesty are placed in positions of public trust; let s power by stretching out its hand to the foreign hordes e greed of capitalists brings every year in increasing within our ports; let it educate the negro and proclaim y in the sight of God and the nation; let it do all this and ave no more care about nomenclature.

most grotesque or ungainly name would become lovely stent by its association with the truth of Jesus. War declared—war with ignorance and lust, with infidelity ry and sin—and what the Church needs to-day is not me, but the spirit of unity by which alone she can con-world—"That they may all be one as Thou Father art in in Thee."

The Apportionment Plan.

In conclusion let me say one word in regard to the Apportionment Plan which the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, acting under instruction from the General Convention, has carried into execution. Briefly stated, it consists in apportioning the amount needed for the general missions of the Church among the several Dioceses. This wise and businesslike method has already produced satisfactory results in largely increased offerings. The amount assigned to Long Island this year is $34,900. In accordance with the wish of the Board I have myself apportioned this sum among the several parishes of the Diocese, asking from each a contribution of four and seven-tenths per cent. on the amounts raised during the past year for parochial objects. In some few cases this was in excess of what could be expected, owing to unusual current expenses, but in others it fell below the customary offering. Some of the parishes have already contributed the full amount asked, and the total offering of the Diocese up to May 1st is larger than before. The year of the Board of Missions closes September 1st. Let us hope that the Diocese of Long Island will during the remaining months contribute an amount commensurate with its zeal and ability.

During the past year a part of the Church Property has been sold, all indebtedness paid, buildings repaired, leaving a sum in the bank to purchase a site for a new Church.

On account of the moving of the Sunday School Building, the Industrial School could not be held this year.

A class of from 30 to 50 boys have met during part of the year for Bible study and gymnastics.

The Treasurer's report heretofore has always been from Easter to Easter. This year it begins April 1, 1902, and ends May 1, 1903.

On April 14th the mortgage of $1,500 00 on the Rectory was paid through unusual efforts on the part of the Rector and people.

Although the following does not really belong in this year's report the Rector cannot but mention that Grace Church has just celebrated its fiftieth anniversary, having been organized May 19, 1853.

A fund of $650 00 is on hand, with all the stone from St. Mark's Church, towards the erection of a Parish House.

The important events of this year are that a Parish House has been erected. It contains a hall (seating 300), Sunday School room, ladies' parlor and Minister's study. Two thousand eight hundred dollars, collected mainly by the personal solicitation of the Rector, has been paid. But $900 00 is needed to finish the inside. When Rev. T. A. Hyde began his rectorship the Church was deeply in debt, $1,250 00 paid on the debt, being all that stood in the way of foreclosure. The mortgage on the Church has been reduced to $2,000 00; the organ, costing $850 00, paid all in $233 00, and the Society now owns property valued at $9,000 00 to $10,000 00.

During the past year the Church Building has been repaired, so that we now have a very comfortable Church edifice to worship in. The outside of the Rectory is sadly in need of repairs. The Rectory is damp and very unhealthy, which is due to defective drainage, and about two hundred dollars will be required to make the necessary improvements. The health of the Missionary and his family have been greatly impaired by the unhealthy condition of the Rectory.

The Northern Archdeaconry of Brooklyn contributes $100 00 each year to this work. The salary of a clergyman was pledged by Miss Mary Benson, and May 1st the Rev. N. Peterson Boyd entered upon the duties of his office as Minister-in-Charge. The work of the Chapel bids fair to become one of the strongest parishes for colored work in the Diocese. The services of the Rev. Dr. Townsend and the Lay Reader, Mr. Christianson, deserve this recorded expression of thanks for their past ministrations to the people of this Mission.

The present Rector has only been in residence a little over two months, having taken charge in February, 1903. The statistics in some cases are, therefore, only approximate.

The parish proposes to build a new church to take the place of the old one, burnt down nine years ago. Plans and specifications have been prepared, and building is expected to begin as soon as the labor troubles are settled.

Towards the new church there is in bank $10,626 26, raised by the sale of land and subscriptions paid in. Subscriptions and cash amounting to $1,500 00 are also available, making a sum of about $12,200 00 gathered since the last annual report.

During the past year a beautiful and commodious Rectory has been erected on the Church property, and has been occupied by the Priest-in-charge since September 23, 1902.

The lots in front of the Parish House have been filled in to the extent of 500 or 500 loads of dirt, which greatly improves the appearance of the property.

The influence of this Church has been increased and will extend more and more now that all the sittings have been made free.

We wish to acknowledge here the generous gifts of the past year :

From Miss Mary Rhinelander King, "In loving Memory of her Father, John Alsop King, and of her Mother, Mary Colden King, the Reredos, Rood Screen, Pulpit, Clergy and Choir Stalls, Paneling and Canopy over Organ."

From Mrs. Silas McBee, the valuable property known as the Great Neck League, for the work of uplifting.

From a Friend, a handsome sum of money for the interior improvement of the Church.

From Members of the Congregation, the exquisite Carved Oak Altar, "In Memory of the First Bishop of Long Island."

Two things have contributed very much towards improving the interior of the Church Building:

In February a very handsome Vestry room was built, the generous gift of a friend of the Parish; and in April, through the earnest efforts of the Ladies' Guild, a new carpet was placed in the Church, at an expense of $155 00.

A new furnace has also been secured at a cost of $130 00, adding greatly to the comfort of the worshippers.

The contract has also been let for painting the Church Building, and the work will be done at once.

Donations in kind have been made to the Church Charity Foundation and House of St. Giles the Cripple.

This Mission is a Summer Chapel for the cottagers and guests of the Long Beach Hotel. It has been undertaken by the Archdeaconry of Queens and Nassau, looking to the near future, when it is said Long Beach will be developed and become an important "city by the sea." At present it is tentative, holding the ground for the future permanent establishing of the Church. Ground has been promised us by the Long Beach Association.

Besides the interest on the Church Debt, the Mission People have for a large number of necessary improvements in and around the Church Building. Next year it is our purpose to try to reduce the mortgage principal. We may add that the outlook of the Mission spiritually financially is bright. Patience, perseverance, hard work, and the blessing of God will in the near future—as we confidently hope—place the Mission here on a parochial basis.

Our Woman's Auxiliary, which had been temporarily organized to aid in the Grand Bazaar for the Church Charity Foundation, had dwindled down to two persons, one of whom wished to resign, and the other thought it best to disband. But we put forth renewed efforts, and now have an enthusiastic band of sixteen workers. We have sent off two Missionary Boxes, one of which was worth $30 00. We have also contributed towards a luncheon conducted by the New England Kitchen Staff of the Church Charity Foundation. St. Agnes' Guild meets weekly, and its members are taught to sew. The proceeds of their work will add to our income. We shall have a Class for Confirmation in July. The Sunday School Offerings represent not the entire year, but simply from the time, August 26, 1902, when I assumed charge. During the Summer this Parish has many more Communicants, but as they are attached to Churches in the city, I take no account of them in my list.

I ceased to be actively connected with St. James' on October 1, 1902; consequently my report extends only from May 1 to that date. The Church Building is in a good state of repair, and, so far as I know, free from debt. The Churchmen in Brookhaven are very few in number at present and difficult to handle, but B. is sharing to some extent in the boom of the South Side, and ought to be a profitable field some time in the future.

Harmony prevails in this Mission. We now have the largest Sunday school in the town. Our Helping Hand Society contributed two nice new blankets for the use of the Missionary. As it has disbanded, I have organized a Pastor's Aid Society, with twenty members. We have organized nearly all our Sunday School into a Guild of the Holy Child, which is being trained in Church principles. We shall have a class for Confirmation in July. The Offerings for Sunday School are not for the entire year, but simply from August 26, 1902, when I assumed charge.

For the third time the Mission has closed its financial year without any debt for current expenses and with a balance in treasury. Six stained-glass windows have been added, including a rose window for chancel and three memoriam windows. The Parish has given as a thank offering for manifold blessings an Altar book rest of brass. A new organ has been purchased. A new roof put on the church, for which the shingles were purchased and presented as a donation. The Pastor's stipend was raised, greatly to his surprise, to $900 00 (without house) at the recent Parish meeting.

The present Rector entered upon his duties at Advent and, there being no available figures, the number of services date from that time. A beautiful memorial window has been placed in the Chancel—the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Hobbs, in memory of their only boy. The Church has been redecorated; new carpets laid, and new opalescent windows placed throughout the nave.

In the middle of May the 25th anniversary of the Incorporation of the Parish will be fittingly celebrated.

The list of Communicants has been carefully revised.

This Parish has ceased to receive pecuniary aid from the missionary funds of the Archdeaconry of Suffolk.

A small but suitable building, owned by the Parish, has been fitted up as a Parish house during the past year.

The Church has been enlarged by the addition of a recess chancel.

Two members of the congregation have given the sum of $3,000 for endowment of the Parish. By the terms of the deed of gift, the vestry see to see that a certain burial plot in Sterling Cemetery, Greenport, be kept in order in perpetuo, spending not less than $15 annually for this purpose, unless the income of this fund should fall below this amount in any year; in which case they agree to use the entire income for that year for the purpose named. This fund is known as "The Wood Trust Fund." By the terms of the deed of gift it must be invested in a guaranteed first mortgage on real property.

This report is necessarily incomplete as the old records are missing and many who attend occasionally can not yet be added to our list. The few permanent members are very loyal and generous, according to their means; but as I have been here during the absence of summer residents, I have not reported my slender receipts, as that would be an injustice to the mission. I rent the Rectory, and that enables me to hire a house in Brentwood, which is better adapted for an all-year residence, although the Rectory is a charming spot in summer. We shall soon form a Sunday School for the summer season only.

On June 1, 1902, the Church was reopened after being closed for two months, owing to extensive repairs and improvements. The Chancel was deepened eight feet and the whole interior re-decorated. The expense, amounting to nearly a thousand dollars, was entirely met by voluntary contributions. The reopening of the Church was also made memorable by the gift of a Brass Eagle Lectern, placed in Christ Church by Charles and Mary Tappin, in memory of their Parents and Brother.

On November 1st, All Saints, the Church was still further enriched by a Stained Glass Window, in memory of William J. Fowler, given by his Children.

On Christmas Day the Children of the Sunday School presented to the Church a handsome Brass Book Rest for use on the Altar.

Services at the Chapel of St. Elizabeth, North Babylon, are regularly maintained by the Rev. Geo. Downing Sparks and the Rev. Eugene L. Toy. The hours of services are 10.45 A. M.; Sunday School, 2.15 P. M.; and Evening Prayer at 3 P. M. The Offerings are collected on the first Sunday in the month and are used for charitable and missionary purposes.

This report is of work performed in Calvary Church, Marcy Avenue, corner South Ninth Street. This property has been sold to the Young Men's Christian Association, who will erect a fine building on the site. Price received, $38,500. The Church property, formerly belonging to St. Barnabas' Church, Bushwick Avenue, has been purchased—price paid, $17,000. Repairs, amounting to about $4,000, have been made on the Church building, and there will be money enough remaining to purchase a Rectory. Calvary Church begins its work, after an existence of fifty-four years, in its new location, without debt, with an excellent outlook for future work.

APPENDIX E.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

The Long Island Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions was formed by the Bishop of the Diocese in 1882. It has 281 Delegates, representing 85 parishes, and 7 Honorary Members. Its purposes are:

1. To increase the number of women and children interested in Missions.

2. To form Branches of the Woman's Auxiliary in every parish and Mission.

3. To cultivate the habit of daily prayer for Missions, by placing in the hands of every member a copy of the Missionary News, and to increase the spirit of devotion and intercession, by means of corporate Communion, Special Services, Quiet Hours, etc.

4. To increase the knowledge of Missions by gaining new subscribers to the Spirit of Missions and the Young Christian Worker by forming Study Classes and Missionary Reading Circles among both the women and young people; by arranging Missionary meetings and exhibits.

5. To increase gifts for Missions, by so impressing the need upon the minds of the people of the Diocese as to incite them to give; by placing large undertakings before the Branches and members, especially:

a. That the Auxiliary is to aid the Board of Missions in meeting its appropriations to the Mission fields.

b. That it give each third year a united offering, in thankfulness for all the blessings of its work, the object of this offering being decided upon by the Auxiliary at its triennial meeting.

c. And lastly, that the Auxiliary shall endeavor in all these ways to cultivate such a spirit in its members, that an increasing number of young women shall offer themselves for personal service in the Mission field.

The Long Island Branch carries on its work through five Departments, i. e., Foreign, Domestic, Indian, Freedmen and Diocesan. Its meetings are held in Brooklyn on the second Thursday of each month, from October until May, at one o'clock.

At the Diocesan House, 170 Remsen Street, the Anniversary Meeting, at which addresses are made by prominent men—Bishops, Clergy and laymen, is held on the second Thursday in November.

President—Mrs. ALEXANDER HUTCHINS, 796 DeKalb Avenue.

First Vice-President—Mrs. GEORGE G. HOPKINS, 350 Washington Avenue.

Second Vice-President—Miss MARY BENSON, 214 Columbia Heights.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. J. ELIOTT LANGSTAFF, 19 Seventh Avenue.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Robert Fanning, 140 Franklin Street, Astoria.

Treasurer—Miss MARY HUNTER, Hotel Margaret, Columbia Heights.

Assistant Treasurer—Mrs. CHARLES PETERMAN, 809A Greene Avenue.

IN MEMORIAM.

MRS. SAMUEL COX.

At a meeting of the Long Island Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary the following resolutions were passed:

Resolved: That it with an abiding sense of deep loss and true heart sorrow, that we record our personal grief in the death of our faithful and honored president, Mrs. Samuel Cox. On Wednesday, March 4, 1903, after seven months of illness and suffering, she entered into that blessed rest which remaineth for all those who truly love Him. It is with heavy hearts we take up our work without her. Although of late unable to meet with us, we knew that she made the work of the Auxiliary so a part of her life, that her love and prayers were with us, and for us. We were often cheered by a message of a note of greeting, and the assurance that she followed with deepest interest every department of our work, especially the weak and struggling branches in whose behalf she exerted much influence to arouse the zeal of those with whom she came in contact.

Her loss will be felt not only in own own diocese, but in far-off mission fields which have been helped by her generous aid and sympathy. For twenty years Mrs. Cox has efficiently discharged her duties as an officer in our Auxiliary, for seven years as vice-president, and for thirteen as president. Under her wise leadership the representation of parishes has increased from 62 to 93, and this was accomplished only by constant and unwearying effort on her part.

It was with a sad pleasure we recall her presence at our meetings, her beautiful and precious personality, her rare tact and unvarying courtesy to all, and her constant endeavor to seize every opportunity that would lead to a higher level of life's noblest service, and the spread of Christ's Kingdom upon earth.

She possessed in a marked degree that divine gift of sympathy which so endeared her to all, and one has said: "Her loving words and actions were full of help and comfort. She had the power of reaching the hearts of those she longed to cheer and brighten." We can truly say she adorned the doctrine she professed, and we as members of the Auxiliary thank God for her life and example, and that we have been granted the privilege of association with her.

Our hearts go out in tender sympathy to the members of her family, and we pray that God will comfort them in their great sorrow for her "who will count the billows past, when the shore is won at last." Surely she is at rest.

"When the tears of earth are dried,
When the hidden things are clear,
When the work of life is tried,
By a juster judge than here;
Father, in Thy gracious keeping Leave we now Thy servant, sleeping."

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

LONG ISLAND DIOCESE.

The Long Island Assembly of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew is composed of 23 Senior Chapters, having an aggregate membership of about 240, and 14 Chapters of the Junior Department with a total membership of about 130. These Chapters form the Local Assembly, which meets monthly from October to July in various parishes for conference, instruction and corporate worship. Once a year, on Passion Sunday, the Assembly gathers at a corporate Celebration of the Holy Communion.

The sole object of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew is the spread of Christ's Kingdom among men, through daily prayer for that object, and the making of an earnest effort each week to bring some man nearer to Christ, through His Church. The members of the Junior Brotherhood are also pledged to similar work for boys, more especially in connection with the Sunday School.

Senior Chapters of the Brotherhood exist in the following parishes: St. Ann's; Incarnation; Epiphany; St. Thomas'; Grace on-the-Heights; Christ Church, Clinton Street; St. Stephen's; St. Mark's, Adelphi Street; St. Timothy's; Christ Church, Bedford Avenue; Holy Comforter; St. James'; St. Luke's; Holy Cross, Brooklyn; Trinity, Roslyn; Redeemer, Astoria; Resurrection, Richmond Hill; St. Gabriel's, Hollis; St. Joseph's, Queens; St. Mark's, Islip; Grace, Whitestone, and St. George's, Hempstead.

Junior Chapters of the Brotherhood exist in the following parishes: Christ Church, Bedford Avenue; St. Ann's; St. Luke's; Epiphany; St. Jude's; St. Thomas'; Holy Comforter, Brooklyn; Redeemer, Astoria; St. Paul's, College Point; St. Gabriel's, Hollis; St. Joseph's, Queens; Grace, Whitestone; Redeemer Mission, Astoria; St. George's, Hempstead.

The officers of the Assembly are:

President and Member of the National Council—WILLIAM BRADDON, St. Joseph's, Queens, 238 William Street, New York.

Vice-President—D. W. KETCHAM, St. Gabriel's, Hollis, L. I.

Secretary—N. R. MERSEREAU, St Luke's; 670 Vanderbilt Avenue, Brooklyn.

Treasurer—WILLIAM HARISON, Redeemer, Astoria, 62 William Street, New York.

Chaplain—Rev. JAMES H. DARLINGTON, D.D., Christ Church, 181 Bedford Avenue, Brooklyn.

Executive Committee—The OFFICERS and: L. V. SANFORD, Christ Church; WILLIAM B. DALL, Grace; WILLIAM MACBETH, Incarnation; H. E. BLANCHFORD, Resurrection, Richmond Hill; I. ST. JOHN HARVEY, St. Ann's; FRANK F. WOOD, St. Thomas'; I. B. DELAPIERRE, St. Luke's; SIDNEY BANCROFT, St. James'.

Secretary of the Junior Assembly—R. E. MAGEE, Christ Church, Bedford Avenue; 87 Morton Street, Brooklyn.

Chaplain of the Junior Brotherhood—Rev. WARREN C. HUBARD, St. Luke's, 144 Halsey Street, Brooklyn.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY.

The Long Island Diocesan Organization of the Girls' Friendly Society was formed under the sanction of the Bishop of the Diocese, April 22, 1887.

OBJECTS.

1. To bind together in one Society, Churchwomen as Associates, and girls and young women as Members, for mutual help—religious and secular—for sympathy and prayer.
2. To encourage purity of life, dutifulness to parents, faithfulness to employers, and thrift.
3. To provide the privileges of the Society for its Members, wherever they may be, by giving them an introduction from one Branch to another.

The Parochial Branches are as follows: Brooklyn, St. Ann's, St. Mary's, St. Paul's, Grace, St. Michael's, E. D., St. Andrew's, Holy Trinity, Christ Chapel, St. Michael's, High Street; St. Luke's Mission Chapel; Church of the Redeemer; Flatbush, St. Paul's; Astoria, Church of the Redeemer, St. George's Church; Flushing, St. George's; Patchogue, St. Paul's.

THE TRAINED CHRISTIAN HELPERS.

This is a Sisterhood started by Rev. J. H. DARLINGTON, assisted by Dr. A. W. COLLIN and a medical staff, to nurse the sick poor, and those not able to pay a trained nurse. Report:

"One thousand six hundred and thirty-one persons cared for and nursed during the year."

Medicines, delicacies and clothing given; the patient receiving all the tender administrations trained assistance can give in the sick room.

Lectures are daily given in the home. No one sent to care for the sick unless competent to do the work needed.

Calls answered day or night, and many nurses outside the home provided with work. Calls coming from those able to pay a trained nurse not under the rules of the Sisterhood.

Seven Sisters in the home. The work was given the approval of the Bishop and Diocesan Convention.

Sister in charge—Sister PHEBE T. WOOLLEY.

Home—1489 Pacific Street.

The Long Island Local Assembly of the Daughters of the King was organized June 5, 1895, with the sanction of the Bishop of the Diocese.

The sole object of the order is the spread of Christ's Kingdom among women, and the strengthening of parish life.

Every woman who becomes a member is pledged to the Rule of Prayer, the Rule of Service, and loyalty to the Rector of the parish.

At present there are seventeen active Chapters enrolled, and a membership of about three hundred, including full members and those on probation. They are distributed among the following parishes, viz.: Brooklyn, St. Luke's, St. Ann's, St. Thomas', St. Clement's, Christ Church, Transfiguration, Holy Comforter, St. George's; Flatbush, St. Paul's; Long Island City, St. John's; College Point, St. Paul's; Ozone Park, Epiphany; Jamaica, Grace; Dunton, St. Mary's; Hollis, St. Gabriel's; Oyster Bay, Christ Church; Sea Cliff, St. Luke's; Freeport, Transfiguration; Riverhead, Grace; Greenport, Holy Trinity.

Extract from the Laws of New York.

RELATING TO

Protestant Episcopal Churches.

CHAPTER XLII OF THE GENERAL LAWS.

(As amended to date.)

ARTICLE I. Provisions Applicable to Religious Corporations Generally:

§ 11. Sale, Mortgage and Lease of Real Property of Religious Corporations.—A religious corporation shall not sell, or mortgage any of its real property without applying for and obtaining leave of the court therefor pursuant to the provisions of the code of civil procedure. The trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church shall not vote upon any resolution or proposition for the sale, mortgage or lease of its real property unless the rector of said church, if it then has a rector, shall be present, and shall not make application to the court for leave to sell or mortgage any of its real property without the consent of the bishop and standing committee of the diocese to which such church belongs; but in case the See be vacant, or the bishop be absent or unable to act, the consent of the standing committee with their certificate of the vacancy of the See or of the absence or disability of the bishop shall suffice. The trustees of an incorporated Roman Catholic Church shall not make application to the court for leave to mortgage, lease or sell any of its real property without the consent of the archbishop or bishop of the diocese to which such church belongs, or in case of their absence or inability to act, without the consent of the vicar-general or administrator of such diocese. The petition of the trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church or Roman Catholic Church shall, in addition to the matters required by the code of civil procedure to be set forth therein, set forth that this section has also been complied with. But lots, plots or burial permits in a cemetery owned by a religious corporation may be sold without applying for or obtaining leave of the court. No cemetery lands of a religious corporation shall be mortgaged while used for cemetery purposes.

ARTICLE II. Special Provisions for the Incorporation and Government of Protestant Episcopal Parishes or Churches:

SECTION 30. The meeting for incorporation.

31. The certificate of incorporation.
32. Corporate Trustees; Vestry; power and duties thereof.
33. Annual Elections of incorporated Protestant Episcopal parishes.
34. Changing the number of vestrymen of Protestant Episcopal parishes hereafter incorporated.
35. Changing date of annual election, number and terms of office of vestrymen and terms of churchwardens of Protestant Episcopal Churches heretofore incorporated.
36. Changing the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of wardens and vestrymen.

30. The Meeting for Incorporation—Notice of a meeting for the purpose of incorporating an unincorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or congregation, and of electing the first churchwardens and vestrymen thereof, shall specify the object, time and place of such meeting, and shall be made public for at least two weeks prior to such meeting, either by open reading of such notice in time of divine service, at the usual place of worship of such parish or congregation, or by posting the same conspicuously on the outer door of such place of worship.

Only men of full age who have been regular attendants at the worship of such parish or congregation and contributors to the support thereof for one year next prior to such meeting, or since the establishment of such parish or congregation, shall be qualified to vote at such meeting.

The presence of at least six persons qualified to vote thereat shall be necessary to constitute a quorum of such meeting. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon, a quorum being present.

The officiating minister, or, if there be none, or he shall be necessarily absent, any other person qualified to vote at the meeting, who is called to the chair, shall preside thereat. Such presiding officer shall receive the votes, be the judge of the qualifications of the voters, and declare the result of the votes cast at such meeting.

The polls of the meeting shall remain open for one hour or longer in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the voters present.

The meeting shall decide whether such unincorporated parish or congregation shall become incorporated. If such decision be in favor of incorporation, such meeting shall decide upon the name of the proposed incorporation; what secular day of the week, beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, shall be the date of the regular annual election; whether the vestrymen thereof shall be three, six or nine; and shall elect by ballot from the persons qualified to be voters thereat, who have been baptized, one-third of the number of vestrymen so decided upon to hold office until the first annual election to be held thereafter, one-third of such number to hold office until one year after such annual election, and one-third of such number to hold office until two years after such annual election; and shall elect from such qualified voters who are communicants in the Protestant Episcopal Church, two persons to be churchwardens thereof, one to hold office until such annual election, and one to hold office until one year after such annual election.

§ 31. The Certificate of Incorporation—If such meeting shall decide in favor of incorporation and comply with the next preceding section, the presiding officer of such meeting and at least two other persons present and voting thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate of incorporation setting forth:

1. The fact of the calling and holding of such meeting;
2. The name of the corporation as decided upon thereat;
3. The county, and the town, city or village, in which its principal place of worship is, or is intended to be located;
4. The day of the week, commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, upon which the annual election shall be held;
5. The number of vestrymen decided upon at such meeting;
6. The names of the vestrymen elected at such meeting and the term of office of each;
7. The names of the churchwardens elected at such meeting and the term of office of each.

On filing such certificate in the office of the clerk of the county, so specified therein, the churchwardens and vestrymen so elected and their successors in office, together with the rector, when there is one, shall form a vestry, and shall be the trustees of such church or congregation; and they and their successors shall thereupon, by virtue of this act, be a body corporate by the name or title expressed in such certificate, and shall have power, from time to time, to adopt by-laws for its *governance.

Such corporation shall be an incorporated church, and may be termed also an incorporated parish.

§ 32. Corporate Trustees; Vestry; powers and duties thereof.—The churchwardens and vestrymen of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church, together with the rector thereof, if any, shall be the trustees of the corporation and shall also constitute the vestry of the parish.

*So in the original.

No meeting of the vestry or trustees of any incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church shall be held unless either all the members thereof are present, or three days' notice thereof shall be given to each member thereof, by the rector in writing either personally or by mail, or, if there be no rector or he be incapable of acting, by one of the churchwardens; except that twenty-four hours' notice of the first meeting of the vestry or trustees after an annual election, shall be sufficient; provided such meeting be held within three days after the election.

To constitute a quorum of the vestry or board of trustees there must be present either:

1. The rector, at least one of the churchwardens and a majority of vestrymen; or,
2. The rector, both churchwardens and one less than a majority of vestrymen; or,
3. If the rector be absent from the diocese and shall have been so absent for over four calendar months, or if the meeting be called by the rector and he be absent therefrom, or be incapable of acting, one churchwarden and a majority of the vestrymen, or both churchwardens and one less than a majority of the vestrymen.

But if there be a rector of the parish, no measure shall be taken, in his absence, in any case, for effecting the sale or disposition of the real property of the corporation, nor for the sale or disposition of the capital or principal of the personal property of the corporation, nor shall any act be done which shall impair the rights of such rector.

The presiding officer of the vestry or trustees shall be the rector, or if there be none, or he be absent, the churchwarden, who shall be called to the chair by a majority of the votes, if both the churchwardens be present; or the churchwarden present, if but one be present.

At each meeting of the vestry or trustees each member thereof shall be entitled to one vote.

The vestry shall have power to fill a vacancy occurring in the office of a churchwarden or vestryman by death, resignation or otherwise than by expiration of term, until the next annual election, at which, if such vacancy would continue thereafter, it shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term.

The vestry may, subject to the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and of the diocese in which the parish or church is situated, by a majority vote, elect a rector to fill a vacancy occurring in the rectorship of the parish, and may fix the salary or compensation of the rector.

§ 33. Annual Elections of Incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parishes—The annual election of a Protestant Episcopal parish, hereafter incorporated, shall be held on the secular day in the week commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, designated in its certificate of incorporation. The annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church heretofore incorporated shall be held on the day fixed for such annual election, by or in pursuance of law, or if no such date be so fixed, then on the Monday next after the first Sunday in Advent.

Notice of such annual election shall be read by the rector of the parish, or if there be none, or he be absent, by the officiating minister or by the churchwarden thereof, on each of the two Sundays next preceding such election, in the time of divine service, or if, for any reason, the usual place of worship of the parish be not open for the divine service, the notice shall be posted conspicuously on the outer door of the place of worship for two weeks next preceding the election.

Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of holding the election, the name and term of office of each churchwarden and vestryman whose term of office shall then expire, or whose office shall then be vacant for any cause, and the office for which each such officer is to be then elected. The meeting for such annual election shall be held immediately after morning service.

The presiding officer of such meeting shall be the rector thereof, if there be one, or if there be none, or he be absent, one of the churchwardens elected for the purpose by a majority of the duly qualified voters present, or if no churchwarden be present, a vestryman elected in like manner. Such presiding officer shall be the judge of the qualifications of the voters; shall receive the votes cast; and shall declare the result of the votes cast at such election. The presiding officer of such meeting shall enter the proceedings of the meeting in the book of the minutes of the vestry, sign his name thereto, and offer the same to as many qualified voters present as he shall think fit, to be also signed by them.

Only men of full age belonging to the parish, who have been regular attendants at its worship and contributors to its support for at least twelve months prior to such election, or since the establishment of such parish, shall be qualified voters at any such election. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon. The polls of the election shall continue open for one hour, and longer in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the qualified voters present and voting.

The churchwardens and vestrymen shall be elected by ballot from persons qualified to vote at such election, and no person shall be eligible for election as churchwarden, unless he be also a communicant in the Protestant Episcopal Church, nor be eligible for election as vestryman, unless he shall have been baptized.

At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish hereafter incorporated, one churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years; and one-third of the total number of the vestrymen of the parish shall be elected to hold office for three years. At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church heretofore incorporated, two churchwardens and the total number of its vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, unless the terms of office of but one churchwarden or of but one-third of its vestrymen shall then expire, in which case one churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years, and one-third of the total number of its vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years. Each churchwarden and vestryman shall hold office after the expiration of his term until his successor shall be chosen.

§ 34. Changing the number of Vestrymen of Protestant Episcopal Parishes hereafter incorporated.—If the vestry of a Protestant Episcopal parish, hereafter incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the number of vestrymen of such parish be changed to either three, six or nine vestrymen, notice of such recommendation shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof, and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election, that the meeting had ratified the same; and the number of vestrymen so decided on. Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded, and such change in the number of vestrymen shall take effect at the time of the next annual election thereafter.

If the number of vestrymen be thereby increased, then, in addition to the number of vestrymen to be elected at such next annual election, one-third of such increased number of vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter; one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for two years thereafter, and one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for three years thereafter.

If the number of vestrymen by such change be reduced, such reduction shall not affect the term of office of any vestryman duly elected, and at such next annual election, and at each annual election thereafter, one-third of such reduced number of vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years.

§ 35. Changing date of Annual Election, number and terms of office of Vestrymen and terms of office of Churchwardens in Protestant Episcopal Churches heretofore incorporated.—If the vestry of a Protestant Episcopal parish, heretofore incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the date of the annual election be changed to a secular day in the week beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, or that the number of vestrymen be changed to three, six, or nine, and that the terms of office of the churchwardens be changed so that one warden shall be elected annually, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry; the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election; that such meeting had ratified the same; the date determined upon for the annual election of the parish; the number of vestrymen so decided on; and the fact that the meeting determined to thereafter elect churchwardens, so that the term of one warden shall expire annually.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded. If the meeting determine to change the date of the annual election, the next annual election shall be held on the day in the week beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, determined on by such meeting, and the terms of the vestrymen and churchwardens which, pursuant to law, would expire at the next annual election shall expire, and their successors shall be elected on such day.

If the meeting determine to change the number of vestrymen and manner of electing wardens and vestrymen, there shall be elected at the first annual election thereafter, one-third of the number of vestrymen so determined on, to hold office for three years; one-third thereof to hold office for two years; and one-third thereof to hold office for one year; and one churchwarden to hold office for one year, and one to hold for two years; and thereafter at the annual election there shall be elected one-third of the number of vestrymen determined on at such meeting and one churchwarden.

§36. Changing the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of Wardens and Vestrymen.—If the vestry of a Protestant Episcopal parish, heretofore incorporated, shall by resolution recommend that the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of wardens and vestrymen be changed to conform in both cases to the requirement of section thirty-three of this statute, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election, and that the meeting had ratified the same.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded.

OF THE
DIOCESE OF LONG ISLAND
WITH THE
RULES OF ORDER OF THE CONVENTION.

BROOKLYN, N. Y.
PUBLISHED BY THE CONVENTION.

1903.

THE CONSTITUTION
OF THE

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1.—There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese on the third Tuesday of May in each year, provided that when such day falls in Rogation Week it shall be on the fourth Tuesday of May, in such place shall be determined by the Bishop for the time being; or, in case of his inability to act, or a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

SEC. 2.—In the event of the prevalence of any epidemic disease, or for other sufficient cause, occurring after the designation of the place of meeting, the Bishop, or, in the cases above mentioned, the Standing Committee, may appoint another place for the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop may call Special Conventions when he shall judge it conducive to the good of the Church.

In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to do so, the Standing Committee may call such conventions.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1.—The Convention shall be composed of the Bishop, the Assistant Bishop, the Archdeacons, the officiating Ministers, regularly admitted and settled in some Church within this Diocese, which is in union with the Convention, and of Lay Members, not exceeding three Delegates from each Parish.

SEC. 2.—Clergymen employed as Missionaries under the direction of this Convention, Chaplains in the Army or Navy of the United States, who shall be canonically connected with the Diocese, and on duty at some station within its limits, and Clergymen, members of the Board of Managers of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and those engaged as professors or instructors of youth, in any College, Academy or General Seminary of learning, duly incorporated, may be members of this Convention. No Clergyman, however, shall be a member of this Convention unless he has been canonically resident in this Diocese for the period of three months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention.

SEC. 3.—The Lay Delegates shall be chosen by the Vestry, when one is in legal existence. When the Vestry is, from vacancy, or otherwise, incompetent to act, they shall be chosen by the Congregation.

SEC. 4.—But in cases of Churches or Congregations, organized or incorporated without a Vestry, Delegates may be chosen by the Church or Congregation, unless the Convention shall otherwise prescribe.

SEC. 5.—The mode of admitting new Churches or Congregations into union with the Convention may be prescribed by Canon.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with the prayers of the Church. On the first morning of the Convention there shall be a sermon, address or charge by the Bishop, or a sermon by some Presbyterian, to be appointed by him, and the Holy Communion shall always be celebrated. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the sermon shall be provided for by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop, by virtue of his office, shall preside in the Convention, but in case of a vacancy, inability to act or absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Presbyters.

ARTICLE VI.

SECTION 1.—A Secretary shall be chosen upon the assembling of the Convention, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention, and until a successor be chosen. His duty shall be to take minutes of the proceedings, to preserve the journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers, relating to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession.

SEC. 2.—It shall be also his duty to give due notice of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

SECTION 1.—In all matters which come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate, and except as hereinafter provided, shall vote in one body; but, if in any case it shall be required by five votes, either wholly or in part of Clergymen, or of Lay Delegates, or shall be demanded by Canon, the two orders shall vote separately, the Clergy by individuals and the Laity by congregations; and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision.

SEC. 2.—In case of the election of a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately, and according to the mode above prescribed.

ARTICLE VIII.

The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows: A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced, in writing, and considered in the Convention; and, if approved of, shall lie over to the next Convention; and, if again approved of in such next Convention, by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

THE CANONS
OF THE
DIOCESE OF LONG ISLAND

PRELIMINARY CANON.

The Definition of Terms.

Unless it shall otherwise appear from the context, or be otherwise expressly directed, the following terms shall, for the purposes of these Canons, be construed to mean as follows:

The term "Digest" to mean, the Digest of the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, passed and adopted in General Convention in October, 1859, and any amendments thereof; the term "The Canons," the Canons of the Church in this Diocese; the term "Minister," a Bishop, Priest or Deacon; the term "Clergyman," a Priest or Deacon; the term "This Church," the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America; the term "Ecclesiastical Authority," the Bishop of the Diocese or his Assistant Bishop, or any Provincial or other Bishop, acting under the authority of the General Convention, or the Standing Committee of the Diocese, or the clerical members thereof, when authorized by the Digest. Whenever words importing the plural number are used in describing or referring to any matters, parties or persons, any single matter, party or person shall be deemed to be included, although distributive words may not be used.

ARTICLE I.

CANON I.

Record or List of Ministers in the Diocese.

SECTION I.—The Ecclesiastical Authority shall prepare, or cause to be prepared and kept, a list of all the Ministers of this Church canonically resident in the Diocese, designating those regularly admitted and settled in the Cathedral, or in some Church within the Diocese in union with this Convention, by the names of their respective Offices, Churches, Cures, or Parishes; those employed as Missionaries under the direction of this Convention, by their respective stations; those who are Chaplains in the Army or Navy, by their post of duty; and those employed as instructors of youth in any college, academy or seminary of learning, duly incorporated, by the colleges, academies, or other seminaries of learning in which they are engaged; or, in regard to those not so engaged, their places of residence only.

SEC. II.—Such list shall be recorded in a book by the Secretary of the Convention, under the supervision of the Ecclesiastical Authority.

SEC. III.—The Secretary of the Convention shall record in such book all certificates that shall be delivered to the Ecclesiastical Authority under Section I. of Canon 18, Title I, of the Digest, provided that the same be accompanied in such case with the certificate of the Ecclesiastical Authority, that the person so chosen to any Church or Parish in this Diocese is a qualified Minister of this Church; and such certificates are to be transmitted to him by the Ecclesiastical Authority for record.

SEC. IV.—[1.] When Letters Dimissory, mentioned in Section VII, Canon 12, Title I, of the Digest, shall have been accepted, the Clergyman received shall procure from the Ecclesiastical Authority a certificate that he has been received into the Diocese, in compliance with such Section and Canon. He shall cause such certificate to be delivered to the Secretary of the Convention, who shall record such transfer. The canonical residence of such Clergyman shall be deemed to be established upon the record being thus made, and not before.

[2.] The Ecclesiastical Authority shall also certify, in writing, to such Secretary the names of the Ministers who shall, by ordination or in any other mode than as above specified, become canonically resident within this Diocese, together with their proper designation, as specified in Section 1 of this Canon, to be in like manner recorded.

[3.] And such Authority shall also certify to the Secretary the name of every Minister deceased, transferred, deposed or suspended, in order that such names may, in the first three cases, be stricken from the record, and in the last, that a minute of the sentence may be made.

[4.] A copy of such record or list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of its meeting, and shall be prefixed to the Journal.

[5.] Such record or a transcript thereof, or of such part thereof as may relate to the matter in question, shall be admitted in evidence upon all proceedings or trials, under any law or Canon in force in this Diocese.

CANON 2.

On Parish Boundaries.

SECTION I.—The Parish boundaries, as defined by the Laws of the State of New York, of the four parishes of St. George's, Flushing; Grace, Jamaica; St. James', Newtown; and St. George's, Hempstead, are limited and established by the terms of their several charters.

SEC. II.—All other parish boundaries in this Diocese are and shall be the limits as now fixed by law, of any village, town, township, incorporated borough, city, ward of a city, or the limits of some division thereof, which may have been recognized or which shall hereafter be recognized by the Bishop, acting with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee.

SEC. III.—The ascertainment and defining other boundaries of the existing parishes or parochial cures, in all cases where any question or conflict of jurisdiction may arise, the formation of new parishes, or the establishment of new churches, congregations or missions, within the limits of other parishes, and the changing the location of any church or congregation, and the transferring of the same beyond the vicinage in which it is now or may be hereafter established, shall be vested in the Bishop of the Diocese, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, after an opportunity to be heard, on ten days' notice thereof, served by mail on the Rector and Clerk of the Vestry of each of the three nearest parishes. And in case of there being no Bishop, in the Ecclesiastical Authority: Provided, that in all cases where the Standing Committee shall act alone, there may be an appeal made to the next Diocesan Convention.

SEC. IV.—Nothing contained in this Canon shall affect any legal rights of property of any parish.

CANON 3.

Of the Convention.

SECTION I.—The Clerical Members and Evidence of Right to Seats.

[1.] Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of the Diocese, the Ecclesiastical Authority shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of Ministers entitled to a seat in the Convention, pursuant to the third Article of the Constitution. No suspended Minister shall have a place on such list. Such list, or a copy, authenticated by the Ecclesiastical Authority, shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of the meeting, and filed with the Secretary.

[2.] Any correction of such list may be made by the Convention during its session, and the right to make such correction belongs exclusively to the Convention. The list shall be recorded by the Secretary in a book kept for the purpose.

[3.] The right of any Minister to a seat in the Convention shall, if disputed, be determined according to the provisions of the third Article of the Constitution, by the Convention itself, whether his name be inserted in such list or omitted. Such list shall, however, be taken as presumptive evidence of the right of those whose names appear thereon, and that none others have such right.

[4.] In case of a contested right to a seat of any Clergyman, who may be elected to any Church or Parish in this Diocese, the evidence of settlement shall consist in the Record required in Canon I, Section III, of this Article, or in the production of the certificate, specified therein, which certificate, if not previously recorded, shall thereupon be recorded in the book kept under said Section I.

[5.] In case of a contested right to a seat of a Minister, claiming such right by virtue of his being employed as a Missionary, under the direction of this Convention, the evidence of such employment shall consist in the written certificate of the Ecclesiastical Authority.

[6.] In case of a contested right to a seat of a Clergyman, claiming such right as Chaplain in the Army or Navy of the United States, under the provisions of the Constitution, the evidence of his employment upon any station shall be a certificate of the commanding officer of that station.

[7.] In case of a contested right to a seat of a Clergyman, claiming such right by virtue of his being engaged as a professor or instructor of youth in a college, academy or general seminary of learning, duly incorporated, the evidence of his connection with such shall consist of the written certificate of the President or Secretary of such Corporation.

[8.] And in the case of a contested right to a seat of any Clergyman, who may claim to have been received into this Diocese, the production of the Record kept under Canon 1 of "The Canons," or of the Certificate of Acceptance, given under Section II, Clause 1 thereof, shall be presumptive evidence of a regular admission, which certificate, if not previously recorded, shall thereupon be recorded by the Secretary.

[9.] A Minister is settled for all the purposes mentioned in the Canons, who has been engaged permanently by any Parish, according to the rules of this Diocese, or for any term not less than one year.

SEC. II.—Of Lay Delegates and Evidence of Rights.

[1.] The appointment of Lay Delegates to the Convention, in Churches organized or incorporated with a Vestry, if they be chosen by the Vestry, shall be made at a regular meeting of such Vestry, held according to law; if they be chosen by the Congregation, the like notice of the time and place of holding the election shall be given, and the electors must have the like legal qualifications, and the election shall be conducted in the like manner, as prescribed by law for the election of Wardens and Vestrymen of the Parishes respectively in which they are held.

[2.] The evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate, if made by the Vestry, shall be a written certificate signed by the Rector of the Church, if there be one, or if there be no Rector, by the Warden who presides at the meeting at which such Delegate is appointed: and also, in each case, by the Clerk of the Vestry.

[3.] If the appointment be made by the Congregation, the evidence shall be a certificate signed by the same persons who are required by law to certify or attest the election of Wardens and Vestrymen in the respective Parishes.

[4.] Every certificate of the appointment of a Lay Delegate shall show upon its face, that the appointment has been made in pursuance of the requirements of this Section, and shall certify that the Delegate has the qualifications required by the next succeeding clause of this Section.

[5.] No Lay Delegate shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention unless he be entitled to vote for the Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

[6.] Every Church or Congregation incorporated since April, 1831, or hereafter to be incorporated under any law of the State of New York, other than the General Act for the Incorporation of Churches, passed April, 1813, and its amendments, shall be entitled to appoint Lay Delegates to the Convention, not exceeding three in number.

They must have been connected with the said Church or Congregation for at least twelve months previous to their appointment.

[7.] They shall be chosen by the male members of full legal age, who have habitually for twelve months preceding such election attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

[8.] The time, place and manner of holding such election, and the notice for holding the same (which shall be ten days at least), shall be fixed by rules or by-laws made by the Trustees of such Churches or Congregations, or by the Lay Members of the same, qualified as aforesaid, at a meeting duly convened.

[9.] A written certificate of the appointment of such Delegates, signed by the Minister, if there be one, or by the officer presiding at a meeting of the Congregation by which they were appointed, and by the Clerk or Secretary, is to be presented to the Convention, which certificate shall declare that such persons have been duly chosen Lay Delegates by such Church or Congregation, are members of the same, and have been such members for twelve months preceding.

[10.] A copy of this Section shall be transmitted by the Secretary of the Convention, to the Vestry or Trustees of every Church in union with this Convention, with blank printed forms of proceedings under it, to be entered upon their book of minutes. All alterations shall be similarly transmitted.

[11.] No other certificate or evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate than such as is required by this section shall be required, and the right of any Layman to a seat in the Convention, in cases of doubt or dispute, shall be determined by the Convention itself.

[12.] Three Lay Delegates to the Convention from the Cathedral, one of whom shall be a member of the Cathedral Chapter, shall be chosen by the Lay Members of the Congregation acting under by-laws made by the Chapter; the evidence of their appointment shall be a certificate signed by the Dean, or the Precentor if the Dean is absent, and by the recording officer.

SEC. III.—Of the Call of the Convention.

[1.] Unless it be otherwise directed by the Convention, the mode of giving notice of the meeting shall be by printed or written notice, naming the time and place thereof, with the signature of the Secretary, sent by mail to each Clergyman having a right to a seat, and to the Vestry or Trustees of each Parish in the Diocese.

[2.] Whenever, under the provisions of the Constitution, a special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, in the notice thereof, to specify such purpose.

SEC. IV.—Of a Quorum.

The presence of at least fifteen Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least fifteen Congregations, shall be necessary for the transaction of business; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. V.—Of Organizing the Convention.

[1.] If the Bishop is not present at its opening, the Secretary shall call the members who present themselves to order; when the senior Presbyter present, entitled to a seat in the Convention, shall take the Chair, and shall preside until a President be elected, as provided by Article V of the Constitution.

[2.] The Secretary shall call over the names of the Clergymen entitled to seats, from the list filed with him as directed in Clause 1, of Section I, of Canon 2.

[3.] He shall call over the Churches entitled to representation, when the Lay Delegates shall present their certificates, which certificates shall be examined by the Secretary and a committee of two members, appointed by the presiding officer. Irregular or defective certificates, and certificates and documents referring to contested seats, shall be temporarily laid aside. The names of the Lay Delegates, duly appointed, shall then be called; after which, the certificates and documents laid aside shall be reported to the Convention, which shall decide on the admission of the Delegates named therein.

[4.] A canonical quorum of Fifteen Clergymen and Delegates from fifteen Congregations being present, the Bishop, if present, shall declare the Convention duly organized. If the Bishop be not present, or unable to act, the temporary President shall direct that the members proceed to vote for a President, as provided for in Article V of the Constitution, which election shall be by ballot. The President elected shall declare the Convention organized for business.

[5.] The Convention shall then proceed to the election, by ballot, of a Secretary. He may nominate an Assistant Secretary for choice by the Convention.

[6.] The rules of order in force at the preceding Convention, so far as they are applicable to the preliminary proceedings for the organization of the Convention, shall be deemed in force for that purpose; and the said rules of order shall regulate the proceedings, after the organization, until altered by the Convention.

SEC. VI.—The Secretary.

[1.] In addition to the offices and duties elsewhere declared, the Secretary shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of this Church, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal of the Convention, and shall request the Secretaries of the Diocesan Conventions to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange.

[2.] He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in Section IV, of Canon 18, Title I, of the Digest, a certificate, to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid, or secured to be paid (distinguishing them), to the General Theological Seminary, together with the nominations of Trustees of that Seminary; and also, a like certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

[3.] Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, or he shall be unable to act, the duties shall devolve upon the Assistant Secretary, if there be one; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

SEC. VII.—The Treasurer.

[1.] At every stated Convention there shall be chosen by ballot a Treasurer, who shall remain in office until the next stated

Convention, and until a successor is appointed. It shall be his duty to receive all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, and to disburse them by the same authority; and where no disbursement has been ordered by the Convention, under the direction of the Standing Committee.

[2.] His accounts shall be rendered annually to the Convention, and shall be examined by a Committee appointed by it.

[3.] In case of a vacancy in the office of Treasurer, it shall be supplied by the Standing Committee; and the person appointed by such Committee shall continue to act until an appointment is made by the Convention.

SEC. VIII.—Of Elections.

Elections by ballot, when required by the Canons, may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the Convention; and when the election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order, upon concurrent ballot, shall be necessary to a valid election.

SEC. IX.—Of the Admission of a Church into union, and of maintaining such union.

[1.] To entitle a Church to admission into union with the Church in this Diocese, the Vestry or Trustees respectively shall submit to the Convention or to a Committee appointed by it, the Certificate or Act of Incorporation or a copy thereof, certified by the officer whose duty it is, or may be, to record or file certificates of incorporation of Religious Societies.

[2.] There shall also be submitted a certificate of the Ecclesiastical Authority, that the incorporation of such Church was approved before such act of incorporation, and that such Church is duly and satisfactorily established,

[3.] Satisfactory testimony, by certificate of the Rector or Churchwarden, or the principal officer of a Board of Trustees, or otherwise, shall also be given, that not less than twenty-five persons of legal age, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least six months preceding such application, attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

[4.] The application for admission shall be in writing and shall be accompanied with a copy of a resolution adopted by the Vestry, Congregation or Trustees respectively, that such Church agrees to abide by and conform to the Constitutions, Canons, Rules and Orders in force within this Diocese. Such copy shall be certified by the Secretary or Clerk, and be authenticated by the seal of the Corporation. This application, with the documents required as above, shall be sent to the Secretary of the Convention, that they may be communicated to the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches at least thirty days before the meeting of the Convention.

[5.] Whenever any Church in union shall neglect, for three years in succession, to make a parochial report (no missionary report being made in its behalf), or shall not, during the same period, have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor requested of the Ecclesiastical Authority the services of a Missionary, such Church shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and shall no longer have a right to send Delegates to the same. The Bishop shall report such Church to the Convention in his annual address, stating whether in his judgment, after legal advice of the Lay Assessor of the Ecclesiastical Court and the Church Advocate, such Church has or has not for any cause become extinct in fact.

[6.] Such Church, however, upon proof satisfactory to the Ecclesiastical Authority that it has continued its corporate existence, may be re-admitted upon an application to the Convention, accompanied with a report of its condition, and on such terms as shall appear just: such re-admission to take place from and after the rising of the Convention consenting to it.

[7.] Whenever any Church shall be thus reported as extinct by the death or removal of its members, or by ceasing to act in its corporate capacity and to keep up the services of the Protestant Episcopal Church, the Convention shall declare the same to be extinct, and may instruct the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese of Long Island, to apply to the proper authorities for an order and decree of the dissolution of the same.

CANON 4.

Of the Standing Committee.

Whereas, by Canon 2, of Title III, of the Digest, it is required that there shall be a Standing Committee, to be appointed by the Convention in each Diocese, whose duties, except so far as provided for by the Canons of the General Convention, may be prescribed by the Canons of the respective Dioceses; therefore it is, in addition to the Canons of the General Convention, declared and prescribed as follows:

SECTION I.—[1.] At this stated Convention of 1880, a Standing Committee shall be elected, to consist of four of the Clergy and four of the Laity, to be chosen by ballot, and by the concurrent vote of the members of each order. The Standing Committee, thus elected, shall immediately after divide themselves by lot, into four classes at the first election, so that one of the Clergy and one of the Laity shall go out of office annually thereafter, and the two vacancies thus made shall be filled by a new election by ballot, as before provided, at every stated meeting of the Convention, of one of each order to serve for four years.

[2.] Vacancies in said Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical and Lay members of the Committee until the meeting of the next Convention, when they shall be filled by an election by ballot.

In all other cases they shall act as one body, without distinction of orders, except when otherwise directed by the Canons of the General Convention.

SEC. II.—The Bishop of the Diocese and the Standing Committee are the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese of Long Island; and they and their successors in office are hereby elected and constituted by the said title, Trustees, under the Act, Chapter 110, of the Laws of the State of New York, passed April 11, 1876, which is hereby adopted, with all powers conferred by the said act.

Until otherwise ordered, the said Trustees are restrained from the exercise of such powers, properties and trusts as are committed to the officers and committees of this Convention, already appointed and existing.

SEC. III.—In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or of the inability or disability of the Bishop, the powers and duties to be performed by him, in matters of discipline, shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to or enjoined upon the Clerical members of such Committee, in which case they shall be exercised by such Clerical members alone; provided, that no sentence shall be pronounced on a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

CANON 5.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

SECTION I.—The Convention shall, at each regular annual meeting next preceding a stated meeting of the General Convention, elect, by the concurrent ballot of the Clerical and Lay members, four Clergymen and four Laymen as deputies to the General Convention from this Diocese. It shall, also, in like manner, elect four Clergymen and four Laymen as provisional deputies, to act in the cases hereafter mentioned. Such deputies and provisional deputies shall hold their respective stations until successors are appointed, and shall be deputies or provisional deputies for any General Convention which may be held during their continuance in office.

SEC. II.—Upon any vacancy occurring, by resignation, removal from the Diocese, death, or otherwise, among the deputies, or provisional deputies, between the stated times of election, the vacancy shall be supplied by any Convention during which or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

SEC. III.—It shall be the duty of the deputies elect to signify to the Bishop, at least ten days before the meeting of the General Convention, their acceptance of the appointment, and their intention to discharge its duties; in default of which, the Bishop shall designate, from the list of provisional deputies, so many as may be necessary to insure, as far as practicable, a full representation of the Diocese. The Bishop shall, in like manner, designate from the same list of provisional deputies, one or more, as the case may be, to supply any deficiency in the representation of the Diocese, which may in any way occur. The person or persons so designated, being furnished with a certificate of appointment, shall have all the power and authority of deputies duly elected by the Convention.

CANON 6.

Of the Registrar and Historiographer.

SECTION I.—The journals, files, papers, reports and other documents, which, under the Canons or otherwise, shall become the property of this Convention, shall be committed to the keeping of a Presbyter to be elected by it, and who shall be known as the Registrar and Historiographer of the Diocese of Long Island.

SEC. II.—It shall be his duty to procure all such journals, files, papers, reports, copies of charters and acts of incorporation of Churches and other documents, which may be of value in the history of this Diocese, to arrange, label, file, index and otherwise put in order, and provide for the safe keeping of the same, and all such others as may hereafter come into his possession, in some safe and accessible place of deposit, and to hold the same, under such regulations and restrictions as this Convention may from time to time provide.

SEC. III.—It shall be his duty, also, to procure a proper and sufficient Book of Record, and enter therein a record of the consecration of all the Bishops of this Diocese, designating accurately the time and place of the same, with the names of the consecrating Bishops, and of others present and assisting; to record a list of all the Presbyters and Deacons, and the dates of their connection with this Diocese, and copies of the charters and acts of incorporation of Churches in the same, with such additional facts as may be worthy of safe keeping in the archives of this Diocese.

CANON 7.

Of the Episcopal Fund.

SECTION I.—[1.] The Fund for the support of the Episcopate in this Diocese now provided, together with what may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation from the investment thereof, shall be intrusted to the Trustees of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate.

[2.] Such Trustees shall be five in number, and shall be appointed by and hold their offices during the pleasure of the Convention, which shall fill up all vacancies. Vacancies, however, occurring during a recess of the Convention, may be filled by the remaining Trustees, to be reported to and approved by the Convention.

SEC. II.—[1.] It shall be the duty of every Rector or Minister having charge of a Parish or Congregation in this Diocese, to cause an annual collection or contribution to be made in aid of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate, and in case of a vacant Parish, the duty shall devolve upon the Wardens and Vestrymen.

[2.] The amount received shall be paid to the Treasurer of the said Trustees, and shall be reported by them to the next Convention, at a stated meeting, and shall be entered on its Journal.

[3.] The moneys thus raised shall be kept by the Trustees in a regular course of accumulation without diminution, until by such accumulation it shall amount to at least one hundred thousand dollars, or until the Convention shall otherwise direct.

[4.] The interest or income of the Fund shall be subject to the order of the Convention.

SEC. III.—[1.] All moneys belonging to such Fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security of real estate, or invested in stock of the United States, or of the State of New York, or of the cities of New York or Brooklyn, or in Railroad Bonds, approved by the unanimous vote of the Trustees. All securities, when practicable, shall be taken in the corporate name. The Trustees may, from time to time, change such investments.

[2.] A statement exhibiting the condition of the said Fund and securities, together with all receipts and disbursements, shall be reported to the Convention at every stated meeting thereof, signed by the Trustees, or a majority of them.

CANON 8.

Of the Diocesan Fund.

SECTION I.—Whereas it is indispensable to provide a fund for defraying the necessary expenses of the Convention, it is therefore required of every Congregation in this Diocese to pay to the Treasurer of the Convention, on or before the day of its Annual Meeting, a contribution of not less than 1 per cent. on the amount of salary of its Clergyman, which fund shall be appropriated in part by a Committee of the Convention to said expenses.

SEC. II.—And whereas, by Section V, of Canon 1, of Title III, of the Digest, it is made the duty of the several Diocesan Conventions to forward to the Treasurer of the General Convention, at each meeting of the same, three dollars for each Clergyman within the Diocese, for the purpose of paying the contingent expenses of the said Convention: therefore it shall be the duty of the Committee upon the Diocesan Fund to retain annually, out of the moneys received by them, one dollar for each Clergyman in this Diocese. The amount thus retained shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Convention to the Treasurer of the General Convention, at each meeting of the same.

CANON 9.

Of the Missionary Operations of the Diocese.

SECTION I.—The corporation organized by Special Act of the Legislature in 1902 under the name of "The Diocesan Missions of Long Island" is hereby recognized as a Diocesan institution, for which provision is recommended to be made. It shall present at each annual Convention a report of its financial condition, showing its receipts and expenditures of money for the preceding year, and all property received or accepted by it in trust, or otherwise, and giving an account of all work done by it.

SEC. II.—The Diocese shall be divided into four districts to be called "Archdeaconries," as follows, viz.:

[1.] The Northern Archdeaconry of the Borough of Brooklyn, including all that part of Kings County lying north of a line running from the river up the middle of Montague Street, to Fulton, to Flatbush Avenue, to Atlantic Avenue, to Franklin Avenue, south to Flatbush Avenue, to Jamaica Bay.

[2.] The Southern Archdeaconry of the Borough of Brooklyn, including all that part of the city and suburbs lying south of said line.

[3.] The Archdeaconry of Queens and Nassau, comprising Queens County and Nassau County.

[4.] The Archdeaconry of Suffolk, comprising Suffolk County.

SEC. III.—Each Archdeaconry shall be composed of the Clergy resident within its limits, together with three Laymen from each Parish, appointed annually by the Rector, or Minister-in-Charge, or in his absence by the Vestry, to serve until the sitting of the next Convention, and one Lay Delegate from each Chapel or Mission Station not represented in the Convention and having fifteen or more regular communicants, to be appointed by the Minister of said Chapel from among its Laity.

For the purposes of this Canon, Clergymen shall be considered to be resident in that Archdeaconry where their work is located. But this Canon shall not be construed so as to exclude from membership Clergymen resident within the limits of the Archdeaconry and canonically resident in the Diocese, who are officers of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and those engaged as professors or instructors of youth in any College, Academy or General Seminary of learning duly incorporated.

At its first regular meeting and every fourth year thereafter each Archdeaconry as constituted above shall nominate to the Bishop for his approval or rejection a Clergyman to fill the office of Archdeacon, whose duty shall be, in the absence of the Bishop, to preside at all meetings and to perform the other functions of the office as hereinafter provided. His term of office shall be for four years from the time of his appointment, and until his successor shall be nominated and approved. In case the office should become vacant by death or resignation, a special meeting of the Archdeaconry shall be convened by the Bishop, and the said Archdeaconry shall proceed at once to the filling of the office in the manner provided above.

SEC. IV.—The Convention shall annually elect one Layman from each of said Archdeaconries, as a Trustee of "The Diocesan Missions of Long Island," and shall further elect, as Trustees of that corporation, two Clergymen and two Laymen at large. The persons so elected as Trustees of The Diocesan Missions of Long Island shall, together with the Trustees of the corporation who hold office ex officio, constitute the Missionary Committee of the Diocese, of which Committee the Bishop shall, ex officio, be the head.

SEC. V.—The Missionary Committee thus constituted and created shall have the management of Missionary operations of the Diocese and the control of the funds raised for Missionaries.

It shall have for its officers the corresponding officers of “The Diocesan Missions of Long Island.”

It shall receive annually from the several Archdeaconries full reports of their work, and with the aid of said reports it shall make a full annual report to the Diocesan Convention, giving an account of all the work done by it and moneys raised and expended by it within the limits of the Diocese. It shall meet as soon as convenient after the adjournment of the Diocesan Convention, at which meeting, after completing its organization, it shall designate the amounts derived from each Archdeaconry, and allot the amount to be expended in each Archdeaconry, and shall at once notify the secretaries of the several Archdeaconries of its action: such designation and allotment to be based in a general way upon the reports of the previous year. Its fiscal year shall end at the meeting of the Missionary Committee next preceding the Diocesan Convention, said meeting to be not less than five days before such Convention.

SEC. VI.—It shall be the duty of the Archdeacon to take the oversight of the Missionary work in the Archdeaconry—with the exception of Cathedral and Parochial Chapels. He shall confer with the Bishop as to plans and details, and with the Clergy within the limits of whose parishes missionary work may be proposed or is being conducted. He shall survey the ground, and propose, as occasion offers, plans of operation, and in case such plans be adopted by the Archdeaconry, awaken, as far as opportunity can be found, an interest therein on the part of the congregations. Each Archdeaconry shall annually present a report of the condition and progress of the missionary work within its limits to the Missionary Committee of the Diocese, in time for said Committee to make its report to the Convention.

It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of each Archdeaconry to receive contributions from the Parishes and to forward the same to the Treasury of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese, and to keep and account for the money of the Archdeaconry, paying out any such sums as he shall be authorized to pay by a regular meeting.

SEC. VII.—Each Archdeaconry shall, in open meeting, under the advice of the Bishop, and with the consent of the Clergy within the limit of whose parishes missionary work may be proposed, conduct the missionary work within its own limits; shall have control and distribution of the money allotted to it by the Missionary Committee, in aid of mission stations and feeble parishes; shall apportion for collection among its parishes and missions the sums from time to time so allotted; and may at its discretion, with the approval of the Bishop, undertake special missionary work within its limits, and raise funds for such purposes; provided it shall first have met the assessments made upon it by the Missionary Committee.

SEC. VIII.—Each Archdeaconry shall hold, at least twice annually, stated meetings for the transaction of its business, and no apportionments or appropriations shall be made except at those meetings. The time and place of such meetings shall be fixed by the vote or by-laws of each Archdeaconry.

It shall be the duty of each Clergyman, unless prevented by grave and reasonable causes, to attend the regular meetings of the Archdeaconry, and to report all missionary work done in his cure. It shall be competent for each Archdeaconry to arrange, by by-laws or otherwise, such a programme for devotional, business and social exercises as shall in their judgment tend to the profit and pleasure of the meetings.

SEC. IX.—No missionary station shall be established or missionary appointed except with the concurrence of the Bishop. The Bishop, together with the Archdeacon, shall have the power to remove any missionary for causes touching his moral character or efficiency. No appropriation shall be made by the Missionary Committee or by any Archdeaconry in aid of any organized parish, except on application of the wardens and vestrymen of said parish, with the written consent and approval of the minister, if there be one.

CANON 10.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

SECTION I.—Two Lay Trustees shall be appointed annually by the Convention, who, with the Bishop and one Clergyman, to be chosen by the Convention, and the Treasurer of the Convention, shall constitute a Board, to be called The Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, whose duty it shall be to receive applications for relief and to apply the interest of said Fund according to such rules and principles as the said Trustees shall adopt, to be submitted to the Convention for its revision and approval.

SEC. II.—It is hereby declared to be the duty of every Congregation in this Diocese to make an annual collection, to be paid to the Trustees of said Fund, who shall hold and apply the same to the relief of widows and children of deceased Clergymen of this Diocese. It is recommended that such collection be made on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or the Sunday next before or next following.

SEC. III.—Vacancies occurring in the number of the Trustees, during the recess of the Convention, may be supplied by the remaining Trustees.

SEC. IV.—All contributions or donations for this object shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the Convention, and funds not needed for current use shall be invested and held in trust by such Trustees.

CANON 11.

Of the Church Charity Foundation and other Benevolent Institutions.

SECTION I.—The Church Charity Foundation of Long Island is hereby recognized as a Diocesan Institution, for which provision is recommended to be made, so that each Congregation in the Diocese may make an annual contribution thereto.

SEC. II.—There shall be a Standing Committee appointed annually by the Bishop, whose duty it shall be to prepare and present to the Convention a digest of all reports relating to the Foundation and other Benevolent Institutions of the Church.

ARTICLE II.

OF DISCIPLINE.

CANON I.

Of the Ecclesiastical Court.

SECTION I.—There shall be an Ecclesiastical Court for the Diocese of Long Island, to try any Clergyman thereof upon charges. It shall consist of seven Presbyters, members of the Convention, and a Layman learned in the law, a communicant of the Church, of good reputation for gravity and soundness in the faith, to act as adviser of the Court, without a voice. No member of the Standing Committee shall be a member of this Court. They shall be appointed biennially by the Bishop, by and with the advice and consent of the Diocesan Convention, and shall continue in office two years, and until their successors are chosen, unless sooner removed by vote of the Convention.

SEC. II.—When vacancies occur, they shall be filled in the same manner for the residue of the term; but if the Convention be not then in session, the Bishop, with the consent of the remaining members of the Court, shall fill such vacancy by an appointment, which shall continue until the next meeting of the Convention.

SEC. III.—At any trial the Lay Assessor and five clerical members of the Court must be present; and if a less number be present, they shall adjourn from day to day till a quorum be present.

In case the Lay Assessor is absent, or unable to participate in a trial, or disqualified by reason of interest or otherwise, or if for any reason a quorum of the Court cannot be obtained, a special appointment or appointments sufficient to constitute a full Court, shall, at the request of the members of the Court who are present and qualified, be made for the occasion, as is hereinbefore provided, for filling vacancies. The accused may then reject two of these if he desires. Should a Lay Assessor be thus appointed and rejected, another shall be appointed as before, and the Court thus constituted shall proceed with the trial.

SEC. IV.—Upon the question of guilt or innocence of the accused, or upon the final decision of the cause, the Clerical members of the Court only shall vote.

They shall anticipate the opening of the sitting of the Court, in any case, by the reception of the Holy Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, and remember ever that the power committed to them is to be exercised without pride, prejudice or passion.

SEC. V.—The Court shall transact its business in accordance with the Canons of the Church and such rules as it may make for its own guidance.

SEC. VI.—There shall be an officer of the Court, to be called the Church Advocate, who shall be a Layman learned in the law. He shall be chosen by the Bishop, with the consent of the Standing Committee, and hold office during their pleasure. It shall be his duty to prepare the charges and conduct the trial on behalf of the Church. He shall be the legal adviser of the Ecclesiastical Authority, and give his opinion when called upon on legal questions. The accused may have counsel to aid in his defence. The Church Advocate and counsel for the accused shall be communicants of the Church, of good reputation for gravity and soundness in the faith.

SEC. VII.—The Court shall choose a Clerk, to hold office during its pleasure. He shall keep a record of its proceedings, of convictions and sentences, and preserve the testimony taken on trials.

CANON 2.

Of Confession before Trial.

SECTION I.—Whenever a Clergyman is accused of offences, either by public rumor or reliable information, charges shall be prepared without regard to form, but containing the substance of the offence alleged, with reasonable certainty as to the time, place and circumstances, and delivered to the accused.

SEC. II.—Whenever a Clergyman thus accused, or against whom charges are preferred, as hereinafter provided, shall, before the first session of the Court summoned to try the cause, voluntarily confess himself to the Bishop to be guilty of the offence alleged, the Bishop shall, in the presence of the Standing Committee, pronounce such sentence as he may judge proper, and cause the same, with the accusation reduced to form and the confession annexed, to be recorded by the Clerk of the Court.

Of Charges and Presentments.

SECTION I.—Charges against a Clergyman for any triable offence shall be made in writing, addressed to the Standing Committee, and be delivered to its President. They must be signed by a majority of the members of the Vestry of the Parish or Church of which the accused is Rector or Minister, or by seven male Communicants of this Church, who are not of such Parish or Church, and two of whom shall be Presbyters.

SEC. II.—When the accused is not connected with any Church or Parish, the charges may be signed by any three Presbyters, and three Lay Communicants of the Diocese, or by seven Lay Communicants.

SEC. III.—If the offence consists in teaching or preaching publicly and advisedly heresy or heretical doctrine, or doctrines contrary to those of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, a presentment, with specifications of the nature, time and place of such offence, shall be made, signed by three Presbyters of the Church canonically resident within the Diocese, and delivered to the President of the Standing Committee.

SEC. IV.—Whenever the Bishop shall, either from his own observation, or from any information which he shall deem worthy of notice, have reason to believe that there are grounds for an investigation into the conduct of any Clergyman of this Diocese, according to the Digest, Title II, Canon 2, Sections I and II, he shall, at his discretion, convene the Standing Committee, and lay before them the information in his possession.

SEC. V.—Whenever the Standing Committee, or a majority of them, shall, from any information so laid before them by the Bishop, or from any other information which they, or a majority of them, may think worthy of notice, or from charges made to them as hereinbefore specified, be of opinion that it is proper that a judicial investigation of the conduct of any Clergyman of this Diocese should take place, they, with the consent of the Bishop, shall cause a general statement of the facts of the case to be made and delivered to the Church Advocate.

CANON 4.

Of Limitation.

SECTION I.—No presentment shall be sustained in any case unless the offence be alleged and proved to have been committed within three years next before the day on which the charges are delivered to the Church Advocate, as hereinafter mentioned.

CANON 5.

Of the Preliminary Proceedings.

SECTION I.—Whenever it is determined to bring to trial any Clergyman of this Diocese, the Standing Committee shall notify the Church Advocate, and direct him to proceed with the same.

SEC. II.—He shall thereupon prepare charges and specifications, containing the substance of the offence alleged, with reasonable certainty as to time, place and circumstances. But no variance between an allegation and proof shall be regarded if the accused has not been misled or prejudiced thereby. The style of the charge or charges shall be:

“Articles or charges against.....exhibited on behalf of the Church to the Bishop of the Diocese of Long Island, by.....acting as Church Advocate, in consequence of a presentment made to the said Bishop by the Standing Committee of the said Diocese.”

He shall immediately deliver two copies of the charges and specifications signed by him to the Bishop, who shall cause one of them, with a notice of the time and place of trial (which he shall prescribe) to be served on the accused personally, or left at his place of abode, at least thirty days before the time appointed for trial.

SEC. III.—The Bishop shall also issue a precept, directed to all the members of the Ecclesiastical Court, requiring them to proceed to the trial of the accused, at the prescribed time and place, which precept, together with the other copy of the charges signed by the Church Advocate, shall be transmitted to the President of the Court, whose duty it shall be, on receipt of the same, to cause all the members of the Court to be summoned to meet at the prescribed time and place.

SEC. IV.—If the accused shall neglect to attend at the time and place appointed for the meeting of the Court, which is convened to try him, after due notice given to him, the President of the Court shall report the fact to the Bishop, who shall thereupon suspend such Clergyman from the exercise of the ministry for contumacy, until he shall appear and demand a trial. If he shall not apply for a trial within three months, the Bishop shall pronounce such sentence as would be proper upon a conviction for the offence alleged.

SEC. V.—Any resort to a civil court, on the part of the accused, for the purpose of impeding, delaying or averting the trial, shall be treated as contumacy, and the Bishop shall thereupon suspend such Clergyman from the exercise of the ministry for contumacy, until he appear and demand a trial.

CANON 6.

Of Trial.

SECTION I.—The accused, on appearance, shall be called upon to say whether he is guilty or not guilty of the offence charged in the presentment. He may thereupon except, in writing, to the sufficiency of the presentment, or any part thereof, or to all or any of the specifications therein, and such exceptions shall be heard and disposed of by the Court.

SEC. II.—If no exceptions are taken, or they are overruled, or only so far allowed as to leave substantial ground for trial, the same shall proceed. If the accused refuse or neglect to plead to the presentment, the Court shall enter the plea of not guilty for him, and proceed with the trial. The accused may attend, produce his testimony, and make his defence as advised.

SEC. III.—All testimony shall be given on oath or affirmation. The manner of conducting the trial, and the rules of evidence, unless otherwise provided by the Canons of the Church, shall be the same as in the Law Courts of the State of New York, so far as applicable. The Court may adjourn from time to time, not exceeding one week at one adjournment, for the purpose of procuring testimony or furthering the ends of justice.

SEC. IV.—Proceedings in a trial shall be private, unless the accused, ten days before the trial, shall demand in writing that the same be public.

SEC. V.—In case there is reason to suppose that the attendance of a necessary witness cannot be had on trial, either party may at any time after the presentment is served, on five days' notice to the other, apply to the Lay Assessor to appoint a Commissioner to take the deposition of such witness. The party so applying shall accompany his application with the interrogatories proposed to be propounded to the witness. The Lay Assessor shall then appoint a Commissioner, and fix a time and place to settle the interrogatories before him, at which time and place the other party shall, if he desires, present cross-interrogatories; and further interrogatories may be added with the approbation of the Lay Assessor, and a reasonable time allowed for that purpose, if the Lay Assessor shall deem it necessary or proper. The Lay Assessor shall then transmit the deposition with the interrogatories annexed, to the Commissioner, who shall take the testimony under oath or affirmation, as provided by the laws of the State where taken, and certify the same and transmit it, properly sealed and secured, to the President of the Court. The deposition so taken shall be read upon the trial, subject to all exceptions that would avail if such witness were examined in Court.

SEC. VI.—All notices and papers to be served on the accused, after the presentment, may be served on his counsel, and all papers to be served on the prosecutors shall be served on the Church Advocate. Such service may be made by leaving the same with such advocate or counsel personally, or at his place of residence or business, or such service may be made by mail, by depositing the notice or paper, properly folded and enveloped, in the Post Office directed to the said counsel or advocate, at his place of residence or business, and prepaying the postage. But in case of service by mail, three days' additional time shall be allowed for transmission and receipt.

SEC. VII.—If the person to be served with any presentment notice or paper has departed from the United States, it shall be sufficient service thereof to leave a copy at his last place of abode within the United States, sixty days before the day on which his appearance or other act required by such notice or paper is to be performed. If his last place of abode cannot be ascertained, a publication of a copy in a public newspaper, printed at the seat of Government of the State or Territory in which he last resided, shall be sufficient.

SEC. VIII.—The Court having fully heard the allegations and proofs of the parties, and deliberately considered the same after the parties have withdrawn, the Lay Assessor shall deliver an opinion in writing of the law and facts of the case, in matters not strictly theological. The Clerical members of the Court shall then declare respectively whether, in their opinion, the accused is guilty or not guilty of each particular charge and specification contained in the presentment, in the order in which they are set forth; and the accused shall be considered as not guilty of every charge and specification of which he shall not be pronounced guilty by a unanimous vote of the Clerical members of the Court.

SEC. IX.—On the final question whether the accused is guilty or not guilty, no member of the Court shall be permitted to vote, or be considered present, who shall not have been present at the delivery of all the testimony. Unless the accused be found guilty he shall be deemed acquitted.

SEC. X.—Whenever a trial shall fail by the negligence of any Clerical member or members, the President of the Court shall report the names and the facts of such negligence to the next ensuing Convention of the Diocese.

SEC. XI.—The decision of the Court as to each and all the charges and specifications shall be reduced to writing and signed by the Court. Such decision or decisions shall be regarded as the judgment of the Court. In case of a judgment of guilty on any charge, the Court shall state also the sentence which, in its opinion, ought to be pronounced.

CANON 7.

Of Ecclesiastical Sentences.

SECTION I.—All proceedings within this Diocese, the result of which may involve a subjection to Canonical sentence, must be ultimately revised and determined, and all sentences pronounced by the Bishop. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall call in the Bishop of some other Diocese, who shall be requested, and is hereby authorized, to act therein, and proceed in the same manner as the Bishop of this Diocese would be authorized to do.

SEC. II.—The Bishop having received the judgment of the Court, it shall be his duty to inform the accused of the sentence thereof and call upon him to show reason, if any, why the judgment should not be sustained. He may receive from him any statement in mitigation of sentence.

SEC. III.—The Bishop having reviewed and adjudged upon the case, shall proceed to pronounce such sentence as may be proper, not exceeding in severity that recommended by the Court. Such sentence shall be pronounced in the presence of any three Presbyters of the Diocese, after notice to the party of the time and place appointed therefor, and publicly in a Church, or privately, as the Bishop shall determine.

SEC. IV.—A copy of a sentence of suspension shall be sent to the accused, and another to the Vestry or Vestries of the Church or Churches with which he may be canonically connected, and such other publicity may be given to it as the Bishop may think expedient.

SEC. V.—The Ecclesiastical Authority, after the final decision, shall transmit all the papers, with such decision, to the Clerk of the Court, whose duty it shall be to record an abstract of the proceedings, including the final judgment and sentence in full, in a book kept for that purpose.

CANON 8.

Of Differences between Ministers and Congregations.

SECTION I.—[1.] In cases of controversy between any Rector or Assistant Minister of any Church or Parish, and the Vestry, Trustees, or Congregation thereof, which cannot be settled by the parties themselves, and is such as to injure the peace and prosperity of the Parish or the Church, the said parties, or either of them, may make a written application to the Ecclesiastical Authority for decision thereupon.

[2.] The parties may agree upon a written statement of facts, and submit the same. If not agreed upon, the application must contain a statement setting forth in substance the ground or grounds on which the interference is sought. A copy of such papers shall be served upon the other party with ten days' notice of the intention to present them. An answer in writing shall be made and delivered.

[3.] When a statement is agreed upon, or no answer is made, or the case shall clearly appear to require no further inquiry as to facts, the Ecclesiastical Authority shall pass upon the same, and if a dissolution of the pastoral relation be deemed necessary, may recommend to such Pastor or Minister to relinquish his titles, on such conditions as shall appear reasonable.

[4.] Whenever further inquiry shall be deemed expedient, or if, when an answer is filed, either party shall demand it, the Ecclesiastical Authority, being a Bishop, shall transmit the papers to the Standing Committee, for action upon the same.

SEC. II.—[1.] The Standing Committee in such case, as well as when the application is to said Committee as the Ecclesiastical Authority, shall thereupon designate three of its members, one of whom shall be a Layman, to inquire into the facts and take evidence thereon. Ten days' notice of the time and place where such inquiry is to be held shall be given to each party. The testimony so taken shall be reported to the Standing Committee, who, after considering the same, shall recommend to the Bishop such action as they deem proper to be taken in the premises.

[2.] The Bishop, if he approves the recommendation of the Standing Committee, shall declare a final judgment in accordance therewith, giving ten days' notice to each party of the time and place of announcing the same.

SEC. III.—[1.] If the final judgment in any case be a recommendation that the pastoral relations be dissolved, and that titles be relinquished by the Minister, and he shall refuse to comply with the same within thirty days after the decision shall be made known to him, the Bishop may proceed to declare the canonical dissolution of all connection between the parties.

[2.] And if the Vestry or Congregation refuse or neglect to comply on their part with such decision or judgment, the Church shall be prohibited from a representation in the Diocesan Convention until they submit thereto.

ARTICLE III.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

CANON I.

Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports.

SECTION I.—[1.] According to Section V, Canon 12, Title I, of the Digest, each Clergyman of this Church shall keep a Register of baptisms, confirmations, communicants, marriages and funerals within his cure, agreeably to such rules as may be provided by the Constitution of the Diocese where his cure lies.

[2.] The Register so to be kept by him shall specify the name, place and time of the birth of the child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors; the name of the adult baptized, and the names of the witnesses; the names of the parties married; the names of the persons buried, and also the time when each rite was performed.

[3.] These entries shall be made by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose, belonging to the Vestry of each Church, which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the records of the Church.

[4.] The list of communicants shall embrace all within the minister's cure, as nearly as can be ascertained; and he shall also keep a list of all the families and adult persons within his cure, as far as practicable; and also an accurate list of the persons confirmed, from time to time, by the Bishop.

SEC. II.—Every Minister of this Church shall present, or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every Annual Convention, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, if there be no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a statement of the number of baptisms, confirmations, marriages and funerals, the number of communicants, the contributions for Diocesan, Missionary and other Church objects, in his Parish, and any other matters that may throw light on the state of the same; and in reporting the number of communicants he shall distinguish the additions, removals and deaths since the last report.

CANON 2.

Of Preparing a Report on the State of the Church.

Pursuant to Section V, Canon 15, Title I, of the Digest, the Secretary of the Convention, with such aid as he may require, shall, after the stated Convention next before every stated meeting of the General Convention, assist the Bishop and Standing Committee in preparing a list of the Clergy to be presented to the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

CANON 3.

Of Vacant Parishes.

Whenever a Parish becomes vacant it shall be the duty of the Vestry to give immediate notice thereof to the Ecclesiastical Authority.

CANON 4.

Of Repealed Canons.

Whenever there shall be a repealing clause in any Canon, and such Canon shall be repealed, such repeal shall not be a re-enactment of the Canon or Canons repealed by the said repealing clause.

CANON 5.

Of the Repeal, Amendment and Enactment of New Canons.

SECTION I.—In all cases of future enactment, the same, if by way of amendment of an existing provision, shall be in the following form: "Canon —, (or Section —, of Canon —, or Clause —, of Section —, of Canon —,) of Article —, is hereby amended so as to read as follows." And if the Enactment is of an additional Clause, Section, or Canon, it shall be designated as the next Canon, or next Section, or next Clause of a Canon or Section, in the order of numbering of the Article to which the subject properly belongs. If a Canon, or Section, or Clause be stricken out, the existing numbering shall be retained until a new edition of the Canons be directed.

SEC. II.—The Secretary, with any one of the Committee on Canons, selected by such Committee, shall at the close of each session of the Convention, certify the changes made in the Canons, and the Secretary shall print the same in the Journal.

CANON 6.

Of Amendments of the Canons.

The Canons may be altered, or new Canons may be added at the Annual Convention, after one day's notice, by the vote of a majority of the members of the same.

The undersigned, in accordance with Section II, of Canon 5, Article III, hereby certify that the foregoing Constitution and Canons are a true copy of the same, as originally adopted by the Convention, with the subsequent additions and amendments.

REESE F. ALSOP,

Chairman of the Committee on Canons.

ROBERT ROGERS,

Secretary of the Convention.

BROOKLYN,

May 27, 1903.

Rules of Order of the Convention

OF THE DIOCESE OF LONG ISLAND.

1. At the opening of each Annual Convention, after Morning Prayer, Sermon, and the administration of the Holy Communion, the PRESIDENT shall take the chair; after which the Order of Procedure shall be as follows:

1. The Secretary, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or, of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

2. He shall call over the Churches entitled to representation, when the Lay Delegates shall present their certificates, which certificates shall be examined by the Secretary and a Committee of two members appointed by the Presiding Officer. Irregular or defective certificates, and certificates and documents referring to contested seats, shall be temporarily laid aside. The names of the Lay Delegates duly appointed shall then be called; after which the certificates and documents laid aside shall be reported to the Convention, which shall decide on the admission of the deputies named therein.

3. A constitutional quorum (fifteen Clergymen and fifteen Delegates) being present, the President shall declare the Convention organized for business, which shall proceed in the following order:

4. The election of a Secretary and Treasurer, the former of whom shall have power to nominate an Assistant Secretary.

5. The appointment of six Standing Committees by the President:

(1.) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, one Clergyman and two Laymen, reports from which Committee may be in order at any time during the session of the Convention.

(2.) On the Diocesan Fund, two Clergymen and two Laymen, with the Treasurer.

(3.) On the Treasurer's Report, three Laymen.

(4.) On the Theological Seminary, two Clergymen and three Laymen.

(5.) On Canons, at least two Clergymen and two Laymen.

(6.) On the Church Charity Foundation and other Benevolent Institutions, one Clergyman and two Laymen.

6. The appointment of Inspectors of Elections—one Clergyman and one Layman for the Clerical Votes, and one Clergyman and one Layman for the Lay Votes—for the Standing Committee, the Missionary Committee, the Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and the Deputies to the Federate Council.

7. Nominations for Election, without remarks.

8. The Annual Address of the Bishop shall be at any time in order.

9. The receiving and referring, when necessary, of Reports, other than those of Special Committees, which may have been handed in to the Secretary.

10. Miscellaneous Business.

II. On the second day, the Order of Business, after Morning Prayer, shall be :

1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.

2. Receiving Certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.

3. Calling over the names of members not present on the first day.

4. The Election of the Standing Committee, the Missionary Committee, the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention and the Deputies to the Federate Council.

5. The appointment of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and supplying vacancies, if any, in the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.

6. Report of the Secretary when any business has been committed to that officer.

7. Report of the Standing Committee.

8. Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

9. Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.

10. Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

11. Report of the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese of Long Island.

12. Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.

13. Report of the Standing Committee on the Theological Seminary.

14. Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.

15. Report of the Standing Committee on the Salary of the Bishop.

16. Report of the Standing Committee on the Church Charity Foundation and other Benevolent Institutions.

17. Report of the Standing Committee on Christian Education.

18. Report of the Committee on the Cathedral Library.

19. Reports of Special Committees.

20. Miscellaneous Business.

III. On the third and any subsequent day, the Order of Business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.
2. Receiving the Certificates of the Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present before.
4. Reports not presented the preceding day, in order.
5. Miscellaneous Business.

IV. If the prescribed Order of Business on any day should not have been gone through with, the first business on the succeeding day shall be the matters which had not been reached and finished on the preceding day, and in the Order for that day prescribed; this rule shall not apply to miscellaneous business.

V. If the President ex-officio is not present at the opening of the Convention, the Secretary shall call the Convention to order, when the senior Presbyter present, being entitled to a seat, shall take the chair; and in such case, immediately after the organization of the Convention, a President shall be elected by ballot from among the Presbyters.

VI. Before the rising of the Convention, the minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

VII. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church; Clergymen belonging in this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention; Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

VIII. The hours of each day's session shall be from 9 A.M. to 12:30 P.M., and from 1:30 P.M. to 5 P.M., and when ordered by the Convention from 7 to 10 P.M.

IX. The mode of conducting the stated Elections by ballot shall be as follows:

Immediately after nominations are closed on the first day, the Secretary shall prepare all ballots for the several offices and committees to be filled, containing the names of all persons nominated therefor, in alphabetical order, and stating the number of names to be voted for such office or committee, which ballots shall be on the Secretary's desk, for distribution at the opening of the Convention on the second day.

Voters shall prepare their ballots by striking out the names of those for whom they do not vote, leaving uncanceled not more than the number to be elected by the ballot voted.

Nothing herein shall prevent the voting of any ballot that may be presented.

No ballot shall be counted by the Inspectors which contains more names uncanceled than the number required to fill the office or committee for which the ballot is cast.

X. No Motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and, when required, reduced to writing.

XI. When a Question is before the Convention, no Motion, except as hereinafter provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table, to postpone it indefinitely, to postpone it to a certain time, to commit it or to amend it; which Motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a Motion to strike out the word "Resolved" shall have precedence of a Motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the Resolution.

XII. All Amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed Amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made; no after Amendment to such second Amendment shall be in order.

XIII. A Motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIV. A Motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate. A Motion to fix the hour or day to which the Convention shall adjourn takes precedence of a Motion to adjourn, and shall be decided without debate.

XV. The Mover may withdraw a Motion or Resolution at any time before decision or Amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

XVI. If a Question under debate contain several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided, at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

XVII. No member may speak more than twice on the same Question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XVIII. Every member present shall vote whenever a Question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XIX. The Votes shall be taken by Ayes and Noes, and by Orders, whenever called for by five members.

XX. In taking the Vote by Orders, it shall be the right of any member of a Delegation, who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the Delegation, to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XXI. A Question being decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session, without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, nor without the Motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the first decision. No Question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XXII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XXIII. The Reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance. They shall be entered on the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a Resolution or Resolutions for its consideration.

XXIV. When a member is called to order by the President or another member, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. All Questions of order shall be determined in the first instance by the President ; but any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair ; and on such appeal no member shall speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

XXV. All Questions relating to priority of business shall be decided without debate.

XXVI. The prescribed Order of Business shall not be departed from, nor shall any Rule of Order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

XXVII. The majority of a Quorum shall always be required to elect any Officer.
